MODEL ANSWER (STREAMLINED) - 'What is the purpose of Source B?' (7/8 marks)

Cambridge IGCSE History

2025 - KQ2

A cartoon cartoon published in 1919

The purpose of Source B is to highlight the opinions and readiness of the League of Nations to treat the world into a more peaceful and stable, whilst also alluding to the potential challenges the League may face in getting their mission off the ground. The intended audience is the British public, and the cartoon is attempting to build a sense of positive opinion. The cartoon depicts an army of soldiers, representing the League of Nations, standing in a line and looking towards a sign that says 'THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS'. The soldiers are dressed in uniform and are holding rifles. The cartoon is signed 'H. H. H. H.' and is dated '1919'.

Using your knowledge, I know that the League of Nations was created as part of the Treaty of Versailles in 1919. The League had many structural and operational flaws from the very outset of its creation. A lack of representation, unbalanced and uneven structure which undermined democratic principles, limited number of signatories among other things that it would be able to carry out its job effectively. Compared with this was the lack of leadership and leading which would have come from America's unwillingness. Without America, some doubted whether the League had the power to regulate and enforce international conflicts and peacekeeping powers, as represented in the cartoon. The cartoonist's viewpoint is one of caution optimism. It represents the idea of hope for the future and peace, but also highlights the fact that the League may be a difficult one to achieve. In short, the purpose of the cartoon is to acknowledge the full goals of the League while also highlighting the fragile foundation upon which these ambitions are set. The cartoon suggests that the success of the League is uncertain and that it is about to undertake a significant challenge.

What is the examiner looking for in the how useful Q?

1. Your ability to analyse and interpret a source.

3. To structure your answer well with a clear focus on the question.

Remember, a source doesn't need to be truthful, accurate or impartial to be useful. Diary extracts, propaganda and political speeches may all contain manipulated versions of the truth but they are still useful in telling a historian about the opinions, values, views etc of the author.
