Hitching Rides With Buddha:

Hitching Rides with Buddha Will Ferguson, 2010-06-04 Originally published as Hokkaido Highway Blues with limited distribution in Canada Will Ferguson's classic book about Japan for all fans of the bestselling Beauty Tips from Moose Jaw With the same fervour they have for outlandish game shows and tiny gadgets the Japanese go nuts each spring when the cherry blossoms sweep from island to island towards the country's northerly tip Will Ferguson was celebrating the event in the standard fashion And after way too much sake he announced he would be the first person in recorded history to follow the blossom's progress end to end To make it a challenge worth doing he'd hitchhike all the way relying on the kindness of some very weird and wonderful strangers Mixing his penchant for biting observation with wicked humour Ferguson starts at the southernmost tip of Cape Sata and heads north for distant Hokkaido Whether he is doing the forbidden and not knowing it or holding conversations by non sequitur it is a journey full of misadventures and revelations The resulting travelogue is one of the funniest and most illuminating books ever written about Japan To make matters worse I decided to hitchhike Striking a heroic stance I declared my intention to my Japanese friends to become the first person ever to hitchhike the length of Japan end to end cape to cape sea to sea This did not impress them as much as I had hoped Why would you want to do that they asked genuinely puzzled There is no reason to hitchhike That's why we built the Bullet Train Others worried about my safety But I would argue Japan is a very safe country is it not Oh yes Very safe Safest in the world So why shouldn't I hitchhike Because Japan is dangerous And so on Now I will admit that mooching rides across Japan is not a major achievement I mean it's not like I paddled up the Amazon or discovered insulin or anything but I am the first person ever to do this so allow me my hubris When I left my home in Minamata City aboard a southbound train I felt suitably bold with my backpack and muscular thumb I'm going to hitchhike the length of Japan I told the man beside me He smiled and nodded I'm going to follow the cherry blossoms He nodded All the way to Russia I said He smiled again and soon after changed seats from Hitching Rides with Buddha

Hitching Rides with Buddha Will Ferguson, 2006-04 Take a humorist from the Great White North one part Bob and Doug McKenzie the other Bill Bryson feed him lots of sake and set him loose hitchhiking his way through polite Japanese society The result is one of the warmest and funniest travelogues you've read It had never been done before Not in four thousand years of Japanese recorded history had anyone followed the Cherry Blossom Front from one end of the country to the other Nor had anyone hitchhiked the length of Japan And as Ferguson learns it illustrates that to travel is better than to arrive

Hitching Rides with Buddha Will Ferguson, 2006 Beauty Tips from Moose Jaw Will Ferguson, 2010-08-06 The follow up to the back to back successes of How to Be a Canadian over 110 000 copies sold and Happiness Winner of the Leacock Medal for Humour Will Ferguson spent a three year period criss crossing Canada and back again In a helicopter above the barrenlands of the sub Arctic in a canoe with his four year old son aboard seaplanes and along the Underground Railroad Will's travels have taken him from Cape Spear on the coast of Newfoundland to the sun dappled streets of Olde Victoria In his last book Will told us how to be Canadian now in this book he will tell us what it means to be Canadian Will s journey takes him to far flung isolated communities as well as deep into Canada s urban centres From the million acre farm that is P E I to the tobacco belt of southern Ontario from the architectural mess that is Montreal to the glorious jumble that is St John s from a renegade republic in northwestern New Brunswick to a tundra buggy in the polar bear migration paths of Hudson Bay Will explodes the myths of who we are Funny poignant and insightful Beauty Tips from Moose Jaw is a provocative tribute to our quirky and fascinating country Excerpt from Beauty Tips from Moose Jaw In one particular seedy St John s pub I was adopted by a work crew from Portugal Cove who took an immediate almost antagonistic liking to me You re from Alberta you say I have a cousin in Fort McMurray maybe you know him Everybody in Newfoundland has a cousin in Fort McMurray The crew from Portugal Cove tormented me with screech and second hand smoke as they regaled me with tales of how their families were so poor back when that all they could afford to eat were lobsters This was not the first time I had heard this Apparently half the population of Newfoundland has subsisted on lobster at some point or other

The Corruption of Theological Institutions by Plagiarism in Dissertations Alkuin Schachenmayr, 2022-12-12 Getting a doctorate in Europe is supremely attractive for young Catholic priests from the Global South They attain prestige career advancement and in many cases the opportunity to move permanently from impoverished countries to some of the world s wealthiest But do they submit rigorous original doctoral research in keeping with universal academic standards This study examines theological dissertations by international students accepted by major Austrian universities and shows that academic incompetence plagiarism and negligent supervision are seriously damaging theological institutions in Europe and abroad By looking the other way advisors and administrators do their students and the church a disservice
