Divining the Woman of Endor J. Kabamba Kiboko, 2017-02-23 An examination of the language of divination in the Hebrew Bible particularly in 1 Samuel 28 3 25 the oft called Witch of Endor passage Kiboko contends that much of the vocabulary of divination in this passage and beyond has been mistranslated in authorized English and other translations used in Africa and in scholarly writings Kiboko argues that the woman of Endor is not a witch The woman of Endor is rather a diviner much like other ancient Near Eastern and modern African diviners She resists an inner biblical conquest theology and a monologic authoritarian view of divination to assist King Saul by various means including invoking the spirit of a departed person Samuel Kiboko carries out a Hebrew word study shaped by the theories of Mikhail M Bakhtin regarding the utterance heteroglossia and dialogism in order to understand the designative connotative emotive and associative meanings of the many divinatory terms in the Hebrew Bible She then examines 1 Samuel 28 and a number of prior translations thereof using the ideological framework of African feminist postcolonial biblical interpreters and translation theories to uncover the hidden ideology or transcript of these translations Finally using African contextual cultural hermeneutics and cross cultural translation theory Kiboko offers new English French and Kisanga translations of this passage that are both faithful to the original text and more appropriate to an inculturated liberation African Christian hermeneutic theology and praxis
