The Life and Fate of Vasily Grossman John Garrard, Carol Garrard, 2012-10-24 A definitive treatment of one of the Soviet Union's most significant writers The Russian Review Vasily Grossman 1905-64 one of the greatest authors of the twentieth century served for over 1 000 days with the Red Army as a war correspondent on the Eastern front He was present during the street fighting at Stalingrad and his 1944 report The Hell of Treblinka was the first eyewitness account of a Nazi death camp Though he finished the war as a decorated lieutenant colonel his epic account of the battle of Stalingrad Life and Fate was suppressed by Soviet authorities and never published in his lifetime Declared a non person Grossman died in obscurity Only in 1980 with the posthumous publication in Switzerland of Life and Fate was his remarkable novel to gain an international reputation This meticulously researched biography by John and Carol Garrard uses archival and unpublished sources that only became available after the collapse of the Soviet Union A gripping narrative Fascinating gives the reader a very clear insight into the horrors of the War on the Eastern Front For anyone interested either in WWII or Soviet Communism this book is a must R J Dick Lloyd author of Three Glorious Years Grossman is a sufficiently important Soviet cultural figure to deserve a biography and through his the Garrards say a good deal about cultural politics internal repression and antisemitism in the Soviet Union Foreign Affairs

The French Who Fought for Hitler Philippe Carrard, 2010-09-13 Thousands of Frenchmen volunteered to provide military help to the Nazis during World War II fighting in such places as Belorussia Galicia Pomerania and Berlin Utilizing these soldiers' memoirs The French Who Fought for Hitler examines how these volunteers describe their exploits on the battlefield their relations to civilian populations in occupied territories and their sexual prowess It also discusses how the volunteers account for their controversial decisions to enlist to fight to the end and finally to testify Coining the concepts of outcast memory and unlikeable vanquished Philippe Carrard characterizes the type of bitter unrepentant memory at work in the volunteers' recollections and situates it on the map of France's collective memory In the process he contributes to the ongoing conversation about memory asking whether all testimonies are fit to be given and preserved and how we should deal with life narratives that uphold positions now viewed as unacceptable
