Flowers for Mrs. Lusk
Arthur Jay Harris, 2016-03-01 A Millionaire Has An Affair His Wife Throws Him Out She Gets The Mansion The Business The Cash His Parents Business His Parents Cash She Gets Shot And Doesn t Know It The Bullet Disappears He Goes To Prison His Parents Flee The Country He Weds The Other Woman Behind Bars Has There Ever Been A Case Like This The Miami Herald Tropic Magazine FLOWERS FOR MRS LUSKIN begins with a flower delivery to the best house in the best part of Hollywood Florida Inside Marie Lusk was cautious her husband Paul used to send her flowers but those days had ended more than a year before when she filed for divorce She thought it was safe to open the door just enough to accept the pot of azaleas She was wrong The delivery was a ruse the man pointed a gun at her and demanded her money and jewelry When he left she fell to the floor bloodied thinking he d hit her with the gun Over 40 years Paul s family had built a business called Lusk s from one store in Baltimore into a chain of consumer electronics stores in Florida Coming of age Paul was taking it over to run He d already made his first million and he and Marie were living a life their friends admired But between them all was not well Then Paul s high school girlfriend moved to town with her husband and sparks rekindled When Marie discovered it she threw Paul out of the house For a moment it looked like they would reunite She asked Paul to move back in at the end of the day after Thanksgiving the biggest sale day of the year But that was a ruse too That day at the store her attorneys served him the divorce Marie s attorneys were aggressive Accusing Paul s parents of shielding his assets they asked the judge for everything he and his parents had A year later it looked like Marie would get it all The divorce was overwhelming and compound stress Three times Marie had him arrested for not paying his very high support payments exactly on time the judge had frozen his assets and his dad had asked him to leave his high paying job because he couldn t concentrate both on it and the divorce Marie s attorneys wanted Paul s mom to testify for days about the business s finances but because she had a blood clot that stress could loosen and become lethal Paul s family asked them to lay off her They refused Not long after came the flower delivery The Feds indicted Paul for attempted murder for hire They told the jury A Lusk s employee called his brother in Baltimore who was a mob guy who got someone to come to Hollywood to kill Marie Although she thought the gunman hit her with the gun he really shot her his bullet grazed her head Paul was convicted and sentenced to prison for 35 years In prison Paul married his high school girlfriend To me they protested so insistently that there was no murder for hire that it seemed something was truly wrong I eventually found there had been a murder plot but the real question was who had asked the Luskin's employee to call his brother in Baltimore. Testimony said Mr Luskin ordered the murder the prosecutor naturally assumed that meant Paul. But there was a better case that Mr Luskin was Paul's dad. As a result of his son's divorce he lost his whole business, owed Marie £11 million he didn't have and was facing jail for contempt of court for not paying her and so had to leave the country. At the story's turning point Mr Luskin had to choose between two untenable outcomes: the death of the elder Mrs Luskin or the younger. But prosecutors also were forced to make a tragic choice. Without certainty of which Mr Luskin it was, did they choose the wrong one?

Literature & Pedagogy

Anthony Cordingley, 2025-04-01. Building upon the approach to reading literature pioneered by Bruce Gardiner at the University of Sydney for over four decades, Literature and Pedagogy is devoted to the way that texts, literary texts in particular, seek to instruct us. Bruce Gardiner has inspired generations of teachers and scholars in the field of literary criticism. He stands for a scholarly ethos which is at risk of disappearing. His distinctive academic career, which was entirely devoted to research-led teaching, invites us to think about the relationships between literary studies and pedagogy. It also invites us to ask what role a unique pedagogical style plays in the evolution of a discipline. How does intergenerational transmission between teacher and student play out both within and beyond disciplinary boundaries? This collection explores these questions while also documenting Gardiner's methods of scholarly as much as professional resistance to the neo-liberalisation and neo-conservatism of contemporary academic culture. Contributors draw from inspiring encounters with him to reflect upon the rhetoric and motifs of pedagogy within literary works. They put Gardiner's mode of reading into practice by offering new interpretations of pedagogical mechanisms employed within important literary works from the seventeenth century to the present and of cultural phenomena like colonial interpretations of the Australian lyrebird's song. The volume also offers pieces inspired by Gardiner such as poetry, art, translation and creative non-fiction as well as three unpublished lectures by Gardiner himself. Techniques and methodologies of literary education are traditionally believed to offer students the keys with which to unlock the secrets of texts and foster their appreciation. Literature and Pedagogy offers a new perspective showing teachers and students of both education and literature how literary works present their own methods for reflecting critically upon how and why we learn, read and teach.
