Struggling to Make the Grade: A Review of the Causes and Consequences of the Weak Outcomes of South Africa's Education System Mr.Montfort Mlachila,Tlhalefang Moeletsi,2019-03-01 While South Africa has made significant improvements in basic and tertiary education enrollment the country still suffers from significant challenges in the quality of educational achievement by almost any international metric The paper finds that money is clearly not the main issue since the South Africa s education budget is comparable to OECD countries as a percent of GDP and exceeds that of most peer sub Saharan African countries in per capita terms The main explanatory factors are complex and multifaceted and are associated with insufficient subject knowledge of some teachers history race language geographic location and socio economic status Low educational achievement contributes to low productivity growth and high levels of poverty unemployment and inequality Drawing on the literature the paper sketches some policy considerations to guide the debate on what works and what does not Journal of Psychology in Africa ,2009 Improving National Education Systems After COVID-19 Nuno Crato,Harry Anthony Patrinos,2024-10-14 This open access book compares and analyses the results in twelve countries of the two latest international student assessments Progress in International Reading Literacy Study 2021 PIRLS and the Programme for International Student Assessment 2022 PISA and tries to disentangle the effects of the pandemic from the long term trends in education It is one of the first or maybe the first published volumes to provide a global assessment of the devastating impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on student learning as measured by independent international comparative surveys The 12 countries discussed in this volume represent a wide variety of educational systems including Chile Ecuador England Estonia Italy the Netherlands Poland Portugal South Africa Spain and the United States It compiles diverse scenarios including countries that are high performers countries that perform at the OECD mean and countries that are struggling to attain the OECD average Each country has its history that reflects efforts to cope with pandemic school closures and to improve educational achievement A major topic discussed in this edited volume is related to understanding the diverse circumstances for the variations in results within different countries Why did learning loss in specific locations How much learning was lost Why is a country continuously declining Why is another country constantly improving Why is there higher or less levels of inequality How is a country regularly improving with an outdated curriculum Which policies have worked and which ones have not What can we do now This book is a valuable contribution to answer these concerns based on a diverse sample of countries and research questions Code-Switching as a Pedagogical Tool in Bilingual Classrooms Miriam Chitiga,2021-11-29 Presenting a mixed methods study conducted in a bilingual mathematics classroom in Zimbabwe this text reveals the semantic pedagogical functions and linguistic forms of code switching during STEM instruction Code Switching as a Pedagogical Tool in Bilingual Classrooms offers a detailed analysis of code switching in the context of educational linguistics and reveals ten major pedagogical techniques which illustrate how teachers use code

switches to engage students and provide guidance clarification discipline and recaps during individual and whole class interactions Chapters highlight that code switching can be used in a targeted manner to harness the cognitive potential of bilingual speakers and enhance instruction Ultimately the text identifies implications for teacher education language policy and educational leadership more broadly and demonstrates intersections with key areas including functional critical and cultural literacy This text will benefit researchers academics and educators with an interest in bilingualism applied linguistics and secondary education more broadly Those specifically interested in multicultural education sociolinguistics and educational policy will also benefit from this book

Diverse educational contexts and research on metacognition and motivation to enhance self-directed learning Bernadette Geduld, Byron J. Bunt, Divan Jagals, 2025-02-17

This scholarly book explores the latest education research on metacognition and self directed learning providing practical insights for educators and students As the thirteenth volume in the NWU Self Directed Learning Series it focuses on developing metacognitive skills to enhance self regulation motivation and independent thinking key competencies for success in the 21st century Metacognition plays a vital role in learning helping students plan evaluate and self assess their progress Research shows that students with strong metacognitive strategies achieve better learning outcomes apply knowledge effectively and persist through academic challenges This book offers evidence based teaching strategies to support the development of self regulated learning and motivation in diverse educational settings It examines teaching behaviour and instructional methods that foster metacognitive growth in both basic and higher education With a particular focus on the South African education landscape it extends research in cognitive developmental and applied psychology Researchers and educators will find practical approaches for integrating metacognition into various disciplines making this book a valuable resource for both undergraduate and graduate education programmes

Independent Schooling in Post-apartheid South Africa Jacques Du Toit, 2004 This paper presents a quantitative overview of the current South African independent schooling sector Historically research on the sector has been partial resulting in questions about its current size and profile A recent survey revealed that the sector has grown considerably since the nineties and that official sources underestimate its size Some popular myths about the sector being largely white and elitist are dispelled by the study which shows that historically disadvantaged learners currently constitute more than 70% of all learners and that more than 50% of all schools charge low to average fees However there is also evidence of new forms of inequity emerging and poor performance in parts of the independent sector of which roleplayers in the sector should be aware HSRC website

Raising the Impact of Education Research in Africa

Charl C. Wolhuter, 2018-12-01 The low demonstrable effect of education research done in South Africa in particular and Africa in general continues to be a problem in scientific records in the educational sciences This scholarly collected work addresses this obstacle and focuses on recommendations from scholars in different sectorial categories in the field of education Scholars from a variety of sub fields within the educational sciences reflect on this particular matter revisiting the history of research and research outcomes and offering informed recommendations based on in depth investigation and analysis of aspects of the various discourses within the relevant sub fields The scope of the content of this collected work centres on the issue of the lack of scientific records concerning the scientific raising of the impact of education research The book aims at making a specific contribution to the educational sciences by stimulating scholarly discussion around how to increase the recording of the significance of educational research done in Africa and in South Africa in particular and to redirect the research agenda into the direction of making more impact Impact is conceptualised to mean both scholarly impact that is being cited and being used as foundation for theory building and for further research and practical impact that is improvement of practice teaching and learning in education institutions at all levels Autism Mary

Clasquin-Johnson,Dikeledi Mahlo,Michel Clasquin-Johnson,2023-02-10 This book is written at a time of a paradigm shift in the African continent where dependence on western epistemologies and ontologies are giving way to African indigenous knowledge systems Africa has been an importer of knowledge from the west since time immemorial and this book contributes to the body of knowledge on autism spectrum disorder ASD from the African perspective As a result decoloniality and Inclusive Education have gained traction within the academic discourse with University of South Africa UNISA hosting decoloniality annual conference and a summer school to stimulate academic discussions and debates with a focus on African indigenous knowledge systems and theoretical lenses as opposed to the western epistemologies The book also demystifies some of the misconceptions that children with ASD are a curse and punishment from God or gods Among others Ubuntu seems to be the dominant theoretical framework underpinning some of the research studies reported in this book

Globalisation, Ideology and Education Reforms Joseph Zajda,2020-06-17 This book analyses the nexus between ideology the state and education reforms worldwide The research evinces the neo liberal ideological imperatives of current education and policy reforms and illustrates the way these shifts in the relationship between the state and education policy are affecting current trends in education reforms and schooling around the globe With this as its focus the chapters represent hand picked scholarly research on major discourses in the field of global education reforms Offering a compendium of the very latest thought on the subject this book is like the others in the series a state of the art sourcebook for researchers practitioners and policymakers alike Not only do the chapters offer a timely analysis of current issues shaping education policy research the work also contains ideas about future directions that education and policy reforms could take By doing so it provides a comprehensive view of the diverse and intersecting discourses on globalisation and policy driven reforms in education The book draws on recent studies in the areas of globalisation education reforms and the role of the state Respective chapters critically assess the dominant discourses and debates on education and policy reforms Using diverse comparative education paradigms ranging from critical theory to historical comparative research they focus on globalisation ideology and democracy and examine both the reasons for and outcomes of education reforms and policy change Higher grounds Patience Adjekai Sowa, PhD, Rachel Jordan, Wendi Ralaingita, Benjamin Piper, 2021-05-23 To address chronically low primary school completion rates and the disconnect between learners skills at the end of primary school and the skills learners need to thrive in secondary school identified in many low and middle income countries more investment is needed to improve the quality of teaching and learning in upper primary grades Accordingly we provide guidelines for improving five components of upper primary education 1 In service teacher professional development and pre service preparation to improve and enhance teacher quality 2 a focus on mathematics literacy and core content area subjects 3 assessment for learning 4 high quality teaching and learning materials and 5 positive school climates We provide foundational guiding principles and recommendations for intervention design and implementation for each component Additionally we discuss and propose how to structure and design pre service teacher preparation and in service teacher training and ongoing support fortified by materials design and assessment to help teachers determine where learners are in developmental progressions move learners towards mastery and differentiate and support learners who have fallen behind We provide additional suggestions for integrating a whole school climate curriculum social emotional learning and school related gender based violence prevention strategies to address the internal and societal changes learners often face as they enter upper primary
