Teaching Writing to Children in Indigenous Languages Ari Sherris, Joy Kreeft Peyton, 2019-02-18 This volume brings together studies of instructional writing practices and the products of those practices from diverse Indigenous languages and cultures By analyzing a rich diversity of contexts Finland Ghana Hawaii Mexico Papua New Guinea and more through biliteracy complexity and genre theories this book explores and demonstrates critical components of writing pedagogy and development Because the volume focuses on Indigenous languages it questions center margin perspectives on schooling and national language ideologies which often limit the number of Indigenous languages taught the domains of study and the age groups included

South African Foreign Policy David R Black, David Hornsby, 2018-04-19 This book considers the identity direction and intentions embodied in post apartheid South African Foreign Policy It aims to deepen the understanding of this evolving post apartheid foreign policy through an exploration of the nature and trajectory of key bilateral relationships from both the global South Brazil China Iran the AU and North Japan and the UK This window on the country's international relations enriches understanding of the normative and structural factors that influence not only South African foreign policy but those of what Jordaan 2003 calls emerging middle powers as they seek to position themselves as influential actors in international affairs By sketching the contours of key South African relationships the contributors offer illuminating insights into the cross pressures shaping South African foreign policy In addition they also add depth to the emerging middle power concept by exploring four areas where the tendencies and tensions of emerging middle power foreign policies are apparent regionalism multilateralism reform of global governance and approach to moral leadership This book was previously published as a special issue of Commonwealth and Comparative Politics

Unlocking the chains of knowledge Monwabisi K Ralarala, Suren Pillay, Zannie Bock, Russell H. Kaschula, 2025-02-28 Unlocking the chains of knowledge Understanding the challenges remaking pedagogies and curriculum renewal addresses the complex yet imperative task of reshaping the colonial legacy embedded within South African higher education and beyond The book confronts the historical and ideological bindings that have entrenched European centric knowledge within the fabric of academia in Africa propelling a transformative journey within the Arts and Humanities At its core this work presents a tripartite focus firstly understanding the deep seated issues ingrained in the traditional university structure secondly remaking pedagogical practices and lastly renewing the curriculum Recognising the historical dominance of Eurocentric ideas the book explores various movements theories and practices from negritude to postcolonial theory aiming to emancipate and amplify the voices and knowledge of those historically excluded With a commitment to a pluralistic approach the book scrutinises the power dynamics of language the importance of diverse perspectives and the challenging task of inclusion without replicating the divisive structures of the past Prof Christine Winberg Research Chair in Work integrated Learning Cape Peninsula University of Technology In Unlocking the chains of knowledge Understanding the challenges

remaking pedagogies and curriculum renewal the editors provide a decisive and detailed reflection and profound understanding of complexities of knowledge generation in Southern Africa Unlike many volumes that address these intricate complexities this volume not only navigates the intricate complexities of the long history of epistemic injustices and intolerance in the Southern African higher education environment but delves deeper into the core of what is required for curriculum transformation and renewal The groundbreaking volume addresses the urgent need for linguistic inclusivity consciousness about decoloniality as well as embedding social justice in South African and Zimbabwean education and by doing so presents strategies that can be used by the rest of the African continent in addressing the scourge of coloniality Prof Pamela Maseko Executive Dean Faculty of Humanities Nelson Mandela University

The Geography of South Africa Jasper Knight, Christian M. A hybrid approach to decolonize formal water law in Africa van Koppen, Barbara,Schreiner, B.,2018-12-11

Sustainable Development in Africa Walter Leal Filho,Rudi Pretorius,Luiza Olim de Sousa,2021-07-09 This book serves the purpose of documenting and promoting African experiences on sustainable development which encompasses both formal and non formal education Sustainable development is very important to Africa but there is a paucity of publication which documents and promotes experiences from African countries Due to their complexity the interrelations between social economic and political factors related to sustainable development especially at universities need to be better understood There is also a real need to showcase successful examples of how African institutions are handling their sustainability challenges It is against this background that this book has been produced It is a truly interdisciplinary publication useful to scholars social movements practitioners and members of governmental agencies and private companies undertaking research and or executing projects focusing on sustainability from across Africa As African nations strive to pursue the UN Sustainable Development Goals it is imperative to cater for the information needs seen across the continent and foster the dissemination of experiences and case studies which may support both on going and future efforts The scope of the book is deliberately kept wide and we are looking for contributions across the spectrum of sustainable development from business and economics to arts and fashion administration environment languages and media studies
