Limpopodoe 25september2014 Question Paper:

Women and Climate Change in Bangladesh Margaret Alston, 2015-02-11 Bangladesh is by no means a high emitter of carbon but it is nevertheless one of the countries most critically affected There is a significant risk of damage to lives and livelihoods due to climate change in the form of cyclones flooding and storm surges and slow onset impacts such as droughts sea level rises and river basin erosion Moreover Bangladeshis are especially vulnerable as a high proportion of people live in extreme poverty This book assesses the impact of climate change in Bangladesh and presents the findings of a three year in depth study undertaken at village level in different districts of the country It examines national policies contrasting them with what is actually happening at village level It outlines the impact of climate change on livelihood strategies and health and focuses particularly on the impact on gender relations showing that although women have a significant role to play in helping communities cope with the effects of climate change cultural customs and practices often work against this The book argues for and puts forward policy proposals for recognising women s active contribution and supporting gender equality as a critical strategy in global adaptation to climate challenges

Financial Inclusion and Digital Transformation Regulatory Practices in Selected SADC Countries Howard Chitimira, Tapiwa Victor Warikandwa, 2023-03-28 This book investigates the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion and provides a comparative analysis of the regulation promotion and enforcement of the relevant laws in the SADC in particular South Africa Namibia Botswana and Zimbabwe as well as the challenges of financial inclusion In turn it evaluates financial inclusion in the context of specific challenges faced by unbanked and underbanked customers who are easy targets for cyber criminals because they tend to have lower levels of digital literacy The book presents novel discussions that identify the challenges and flaws associated with the enforcement of financial inclusion laws and related measures intended to promote financial inclusion in the SADC region This is primarily done in order to reveal the current strengths and weaknesses of financial inclusion laws in relation to certain aspects of the companies securities and financial markets in the region For example there is no common financial inclusion instrument law that is effectively and uniformly applied throughout the SADC This has impeded the enforcement authorities efforts to effectively combat financial exclusion across the region The book is likely the most comprehensive study to date on the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion in the SADC region and fills a major gap in SADC and African legal jurisprudence As such it offers a valuable asset for policymakers attorneys bankers securities share holders and other market participants who deal with financial inclusion as well as undergraduate and graduate students interested in the topic

Small Town Tourism in South Africa Ronnie Donaldson, 2017-10-14 This book investigates small town tourism development in South Africa taking into account the most common strategies branding promotion festivals and theming The contents of the book resonate with the intersection of the power elite and their impacts on small town tourism Because the book focuses on small town geographies in South Africa the literature on small town tourism in the country is reviewed in Chapter 2 to provide a contextual background Each subsequent chapter begins with an overview of international literature to give the conceptual context of the case studies each chapter explores In Chapter 3 the concept of small town tourism branding is illustrated by an exploration of the Richmond book town In Chapter 4 the branding theme is probed further in an investigation of two winners of the Kw la Town of the Year competition namely Fouriesburg and De Rust Chapter 5 documents the branding of Sedgfield through its proclamation as Africa s first Cittaslow slow town a process driven by the local power elite to the exclusion of town s poor who have no understanding of the intentions of the Cittaslow movement and its potential benefits for the town Chapter 6 is a case study of Greyton s tourism led rural gentrification by which a small town has transformed in three decades to become a sought after place of residence for elite immigrants so making the town a jewel tourism destination while reinforcing racial segregation Because festivals and events creations of the wealthy have made significant financial contributions to small towns Chapter 7 considers festivals and events as strategies to market and brand small towns in a particular way Case studies of the economic impacts of festivals on small towns are assessed and the assessment methodologies used are critiqued Chapter 8 provides a synthesis by drawing on the thesis of the urban growth machine by power elites Women's Empowerment for a Sustainable Future Claude-Hélène Mayer, Elisabeth Vanderheiden, Orna Braun-Lewensohn, Gila Chen, Kiyoko Sueda, Brightness Mangoloth, Saba Safdar, Soyeon Kim, 2023-07-08 This edited volume focuses on women s empowerment for a sustainable future It takes cultural and transcultural and positive psychology perspectives into consideration and explores the topic of women s empowerment from diverse stances across social strata cultural divides as well as economic and political divisions It addresses the critique of the overly Western focus of positive psychology on this topic by adopting a transnational and transcultural lens and by taking non WEIRD Western Educated Industrialized Rich Democratic samples into in depth consideration The chapters therefore focus on women from diverse socio cultural political socio economic backgrounds and discuss their ways of empowering others and being empowered They also discuss related positive psychology constructs such as coping resilience transformation growth leadership creativity identity development sustainable action as well as positive socio economic political and eco sustainable thought and action The volume as a whole looks at women s leadership as a factor of empowerment A further fundamental assumption is that women s empowerment is needed to create a sustainable future at micro meso and macro levels which presumes safety peace ecological considerations and compassionate leadership Southern Africa Report ,2008
