Intergovernmental Relations and Human Resources Subcommittee,1985 The Reality Bubble Ziya Tong,2019-05-14 WINNER OF THE 2020 LANE ANDERSON

AWARD SHORTLISTED FOR THE 2020 RBC TAYLOR PRIZE From one of the world's most engaging science journalists a groundbreaking and wonder-filled look at the hidden things that shape our lives in unexpected and sometimes dangerous ways Our naked eyes see only a thin sliver of reality We are blind in comparison to the X rays that peer through skin the mass spectrometers that detect the dead inside the living or the high tech surveillance systems that see with artificial intelligence And we are blind compared to the animals that can see in infrared or ultraviolet or in 360 degree vision These animals live in the same world we do but they see something quite different when they look around With all of the curiosity and flair that drives her broadcasting Ziya Tong illuminates this hidden world and takes us on a journey to examine ten of humanity's biggest blind spots First we are introduced to the blind spots we are all born with to see how technology reveals an astonishing world that exists beyond our human senses It is with these new ways of seeing that today's scientists can image everything from an atom to a black hole In Section Two our collective blind spots are exposed It's not that we can't see Tong reminds us It's that we don't In the 21st century there are cameras everywhere except where our food comes from where our energy comes from and where our waste goes Being in the dark when it comes to how we survive makes it impossible to navigate our future Lastly the scope widens to our civilizational blind spots Here the blurred lens of history reveals how we inherit ways of thinking about the world that seem natural or inevitable but are in fact little more than traditions ways of seeing the world that have come to harm it This vitally important new book shows how science and the curiosity that drives it can help civilization flourish by opening our eyes to the landscape laid out before us Fast paced utterly fascinating and deeply humane The Reality Bubble gives voice to the sense we've all had that there is more to the world than meets the eye
