Transforming Research Excellence McLean, Robert ,Tijssen, Robert,Wallace, Matthew L.,Kraemer-Mbula, Erika, 2020-01-18 Modern day science is under great pressure A potent mix of increasing expectations limited resources tensions between competition and cooperation and the need for evidence based funding is creating major change in how science is conducted and perceived Amidst this perfect storm is the allure of research excellence a concept that drives decisions made by universities and funders and defines scientists research strategies and career trajectories But what is excellent science And how to recognise it After decades of inquiry and debate there is still no satisfactory answer Are we asking the wrong question Is reality more complex and excellence in science more elusive than many are willing to admit And how should excellence be defined in different parts of the world particularly in lower income countries of the Global South where science is expected to contribute to pressing development issues despite often scarce resources Many wonder whether the Global South is importing with or without consenting the flawed tools for research evaluation from North America and Europe that are not fit for purpose This book

takes a critical view of these issues touching on conceptual issues and practical problems that inevitably emerge when excellence is at the center of science systems Emerging from the capacity building work of the Science Granting Councils Initiative in sub Saharan Africa it speaks to scholars as well as to managers and funders of research around the world Confronting sticky problems and uncomfortable truths the chapters contain insights and recommendations that point towards new solutions both for the Global South and the Global North

Uganda Jörg Wiegratz, Giuliano Martiniello, Elisa Greco, 2018-11-15 For the last three decades Uganda has been one of the fastest growing economies in Africa Globally praised as an African success story and heavily backed by international financial institutions development agencies and bilateral donors the country has become an exemplar of economic and political reform for those who espouse a neoliberal model of development The neoliberal policies and the resulting restructuring of the country have been accompanied by narratives of progress prosperity and modernisation and justified in the name of development But this self celebratory narrative which is critiqued by many in Uganda masks the disruptive social impact of these reforms and silences the complex and persistent crises resulting from neoliberal transformation Bringing together a range of leading scholars on the country this collection represents a timely contribution to the debate around the New Uganda one which confronts the often sanitised and largely depoliticised accounts of the Museveni government and its proponents Harnessing a wealth of empirical materials the contributors offer a critical multi disciplinary analysis of the unprecedented political socio economic cultural and ecological transformations brought about by neoliberal capitalist restructuring since the 1980s The result is the most comprehensive collective study to date of a neoliberal market society in contemporary Africa offering crucial insights for other countries in the Global South
