A Tale of Two Churches Troy D. Ehlke, 2012-03-20 A Tale of Two Churches examines the complexities of resurrecting a congregation postmortem While conflict is a natural occurrence in all communities it can lead to organizational implosion The warning signs become blaring sirens when mistrust goes viral rumors escalate uncontrolled and the people discontinue their participation Pastor Ehlke attempts to generate new life in the corpse of a dying church through means of spiritual transformation Using the Scripture as a guidepost for reform the pastor starts a small group designed for the sole purpose of loving the people Trusting this will spark a revolution of compassion the leadership embarks on breathing new life into a community declared all but dead by many in observance Having worked at St John Lutheran Church in Winter Park perhaps this paradigm will breathe life into other faith communities who are staring into the darkness of death

I was and I Am Dust David M. Mellott, 2009 There are a variety of people practices and celebrations in the Catholic Church At times some of these can be dismissed too easily as extreme superstitious or uninformed Such is the case with the Penitentes of New Mexico In I Was and I Am Dust David M Mellott shares his experiences of the Penitentes as an outsider Through the voice of Larry Torres one of the senior members of the Penitentes Mellott poignantly provides readers with a more intimate picture of this community of practitioners Readers may be surprised to discover a depth of meaning in these seemingly extreme Holy Week rituals and to realize the beauty of being dust

A Powerful Presence Andy Fitzgerald, 2024-12-16 Bethel Church Redding California is one of the most influential churches in America The charismatic megachurch has garnered attention through its widely popular Bethel Music books conferences and senior pastor Bill Johnson Bethel is also known for its instances of supernatural power Divine healings ecstatic manifestations miracles and prophetic words are common at the church As such Bethel has garnered its share of critics and controversies Evangelical pastor Andy Fitzgerald DMin conducted a four month ethnographic study of Bethel Church In the first extensive study of the church Dr Fitzgerald observed and participated daily in Bethel's community sat under its teaching and interviewed its members and leaders to see how the church understands and practices supernatural power In A Powerful Presence Fitzgerald analyzes Bethel culturally and theologically by interacting with thinkers such as Charles Taylor Jürgen Moltmann and James Dunn Dr Fitzgerald brings his insights to bear for an appreciative but not uncritical look at Bethel Church This book offers new learnings and opens new pathways for churches and leaders to regain their apostolic footing in today's modern world Caring for Joy: Narrative, Theology, and Practice Mary Clark

Moschella, 2016-09-07 In Caring for Joy Narrative Theology and Practice Mary Clark Moschella offers a new account of the value of joy in caregiving vocations demonstrating how the work of caring for persons communities and the world need not be a dreary endeavor overwhelmed by crises or undermined by despair Moschella presents glimpses of joy in action in the narratives of five notable figures Heidi Neumark Henri Nouwen Gregory Boyle Pauli Murray and Paul Farmer gleaning their wisdom for the construction of a theology of joy that embodies compassion connection justice and freedom Care must be deep enough to hold human suffering and spacious enough to take in the divine goodness beauty and love This book expands the pastoral theological imagination and narrates joy full approaches to transformational care This work is a scholarly engaging and compassionate call to reconsider the significance of joyful living and joyful lives in radical pastoral theology Heather Walton University of Glasgow President of the International Academy of Practical Theology July 2016 Based on biographies interviews and life stories Mary Clark Moschella presents joy as a counter cultural emotion as a spiritual path and as a fruit of the Spirit In her research joy and reason are not ultimately opposed Jeanne Stevenson Moessner Professor of Pastoral Care Perkins School of Theology Southern Methodist University July 2016 This highly readable and compelling theology of joy will inspire you to explore how joy might energize your vocation especially caregiving vocations that use narrative approaches to spiritual care and pastoral counseling I plan on using this book as a textbook in my theodicy grief death and dying and vocational courses Carrie Doebling Professor of Pastoral Care and Counseling Iliff School of Theology Denver August 2016 Mary Moschella has given us a rare text one that is theologically rich intellectually sophisticated drenched in pastoral wisdom and beautifully written She gives us a pastoral theology attuned to the realities of diversity and sensitive to the complex challenges facing those who lives constantly interface with suffering There is simply nothing else like this book in pastoral care Willie James Jennings Professor of Systematic Theology and Africana Studies Yale University August 2016 Daring to Share Sandra Beardsall, Mitzi J. Budde, William P. McDonald, 2018-06-29 Multi denominational congregations offer rich soil for new interpretations of what it means to be a church These parishes have chosen to covenant together for worship service ministry mission and nurturing of faith across two or more denominational traditions Daring to Share tells their stories investigates their practices and proposes a fresh vision of church for the twenty first century This book equips ordained and lay leaders for the formation and flourishing of such ministries It describes five models of partnership analyzes the parish life cycle interprets how worship works addresses constitutional and governance issues and reflects theologically on the intersection of diversity and unity What can we learn from these congregations Studying their particular witness struggles and promise for the future fills a gap in both congregational studies and contemporary ecclesiology Multi denominational parishes are more than a convenient way to revitalize congregational ministry They present new opportunities and approaches for sharing the gospel Ecumenical convergence meets demographic realities to suggest a mission strategy that will transform local practice and perhaps the church itself By daring to share these churches challenge a fractured world

Becoming Apostolic Catherine Sexton, 2024-07-01 This book explores the experience and understanding of Roman Catholic sisters of their vocation to the apostolic form of religious life as they age Based on interviews with twelve religious women it draws on the practice of Lectio Divina to explore how these women describe their call to service and activity at a time in life when these might be curtailed by physical diminishment and increasingly reduced social interaction and influence As the very institutions of religious life are themselves under threat the book identifies new emerging forms of ministry through presence to each other and to their carers

Greenhouses of Hope Dorie Grinenko Baker, 2010-11-12 Do you know a church where young people regularly shape the liturgy with words that speak their truth in ways that also inspire their elders Do you hear about congregations that reach out in quirky new ways to their ailing neighborhoods instead of locking doors and shipping out to a suburb Do you find churches creating hospitable space that invites the live wriggling questions and doubts of young people in unhurried unworried ways Do you see congregations where young people's gifts are not stored in the basement or bracketed into contemporary worship services but are brought forth and celebrated The authors who collaborated on this book launched a quest for such vibrant life giving greening congregations and observed the diverse practices that grow there They named these churches Greenhouses of Hope A Greenhouse of Hope is a Christian congregation freeing itself to experiment with both newly imagined and time honored ways of following the path of Jesus Its members respond to God's love through practices that genuinely embrace the gifts of youth and young adults Out of these greenhouses emerge young leaders who want to change the world In Greenhouses of Hope Dori Baker and six contributors tell the stories of these remarkable congregations helping others think about how they can create space for the dreams of young people to be grafted into God's dreams for the world

Movement of the Heart Hee-Kyu Heidi Park, 2024-07-29 Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path Ps 119 105 An avid Bible reader reflects As the Lord leads the lamp illuminates my path step by step Such small step makes sense when connected to another inspirational moment marked by her deeply moved heart The movement of the heart emerges as a recurring phenomenon in the in depth interviews with dedicated Bible readers who share powerful narratives of their Bible reading journey's ups and downs By unraveling the psychological spiritual and cultural dimensions of this heart moving experience this book forges a fresh practical theology of Bible reading

Body Connections Michael S. Koppel, 2021-08-03 A new articulation of pastoral theology care and counseling Too often we think and teach in ways that reinforce a mind body split This can lead people to self alienation impeding holistic healthy relationships between people God and each other Body Connections takes a different approach teaching us to see the connections between our embodied experience and faithful spiritual care Author Michael Koppel focuses on the human body and its relationship to faith and spiritual care He engages religious texts and traditions as well as scientific insights offering accessible theology and spiritual practices for healing and care of the body Our bodies are amazing resources but we are too often unaware of their power or unable to harness it in helpful ways for our own good This remarkable book empowers pastors counselors chaplains seminarians and caregivers to understand and provide the ministry of care in an entirely new life giving way This book is highly useful for individuals and groups It is for clergy chaplains spiritual directors seminarians clinical educators lay people in churches and those who are institutionally unaffiliated but care deeply about fostering a holistic spiritual path Praise for Body Connections Everything we think feel and do comes through the body But practices of spiritual care tend to downplay the body as a source of knowledge and a tool for responding to others and to God Koppel s book reclaims that wisdom coaching us to strengthen our abilities to read listen and think with the body I can t wait to teach this practical wise and convicting book which addresses embodied emotion grief silence trauma and more Koppel s seasoned pastoral voice offers a rich synthesis of sources and insights that demonstrate the body s place at the center of ministry Duane Bidwell professor of practical theology spiritual care and counseling Claremont School of Theology Claremont CA Body Connections provides new insights into the voice and language of the body Koppel crafts a body theology that encourages spiritual care practitioners to be proactive in their spiritual practices of listening adapting and responding to our bodies and to the bodies of those to whom we offer care Using the image of body as storyteller and other metaphors Koppel captures and defines the healing power of the body in clear and profound ways Bishop Teresa Jefferson Snorton D Min Presiding Bishop Fifth Episcopal District The CME Church Michael Koppel returns the body to its rightful place at the center of each person s story and the center of the Christian story He calls readers home to their bodies and gently challenges escapes from the body into hasty fixing detached rationalizing anxious dithering or addictive numbing At a time when the COVID pandemic has underscored the vulnerability of bodies Koppel s focused healing deep body consciousness paints a portrait of health far beyond mere absence of disease Don t just read this book absorb it practice it and let it heal you Douglas M Thorpe PhD is Executive Director of the Virginia Institute of Pastoral Care and a past president of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors It is surprisingly difficult even confusing to have a body to be a body to touch talk and listen to even read a sensing body to honor and restore the body s wounds traumas and shame while celebrating its healing and resilience Koppel is a wise guide and caregiver for those seeking to embrace the sacredness of a human body and its unique story Body Connections empowers a reader to discover body knowledge anew It deepens trust in the most intimate relationship one has the relationship with one s body Jaco J Hamman professor of religion psychology and culture and director of the Program in Theology and Practice Vanderbilt University Nashville TN Christian Practical

Wisdom Dorothy C. Bass, Kathleen A. Cahalan, Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, James R. Nieman, Christian B. Scharen, 2016-05-05

In this richly collaborative work five distinguished scholars examine the oft neglected embodied practical wisdom that is essential for true theological understanding and faithful Christian living After first showing what Christian practical wisdom is and does in several real life situations the authors tell why such practical wisdom matters and how it operates exploring reasons behind its decline in both the academy and the church and setting forth constructive cases for its renewal

?STREETISM? Isaac Ishmael Arthur, 2013 This book is a study that investigates the phenomenon of streetism the manner of life of homeless or unmonitored youth on the streets of Accra Ghana and other urban centers in a country where barrenness and childlessness are socially undesirable The study utilizes a qualitative ethnographic and critical theory based approach to present a socio culturally nuanced addition to the literature on street children The work engages in theological reflection on the basis of the experiences of poverty and marginalization of the youth on the streets and for their liberation This thesis also utilizes an intercultural methodology to examine the causes of streetism and liberation praxis for its eradication The findings of the study include how poverty dropping out of school breakdown of the extended family systems parental death urbanization adventure and earning of personal income influence the migration of youth to the streets The study also examines the effects of rape and the resilient and hopeful attitudes of the homeless youth The study proposes pastoral responses on three ecological levels At the macro level advocacy is proposed for addressing the problems embedded in social structures and government policies and ideologies At the meso level congregational and community response is offered to deal with issues emanating from local communities and institutions Dealing with the psychosocial effects at the micro level the study offers pastoral counseling for street youth and parents and individual group and narrative counseling approaches for individuals and groups within the community

Introducing Practical Theology Pete Ward, 2017-10-17 This introduction to the field of practical theology reclaims a theological vision for the life and work of the church Pete Ward dispels the myth that practical theology is a distraction from the real tasks of ministry or from serious academic theological work He argues that practical theology is part of the everyday life of the church and that there are a variety of possible approaches helping readers evaluate the approach that is most appropriate to their ministerial context and theological tradition This reliable accessible resource will work well for those in training or in ministry

The Fruits of Listening Colleen C. B. Weaver, 2024-10-31 Theological seminaries and Bible institutes find themselves at the crossroads of preserving biblical faithfulness and of maintaining contextual relevance What does faithful contextual relevance look like How can theological institutions steer a course that will engage and serve the church through the men and women they equip for ministry and service In pursuit of answers to those questions a qualitative research project was designed and conducted in the Protestant evangelical community in Madrid Spain It presented a unique situation where seminary faculty and students and church attenders could be invited to share their perspectives experiences and hopes for transformative theological education Congregants offered a vision of theological education that equips leaders to relationally empower the church to give witness in the society Intentional listening was prioritized on three seminary campuses where faculty and students shared their stories of theological formation and described the unique contextual challenges they face as Protestant believers in Spain They voiced narratives of how they must find ways to persevere amid pervasive scarcity and in a rapidly changing society Seminaries and churches around the world may recognize details of their own experiences in these stories and importantly receive resources for relevant contextualization in this work

The Top Books of the Year Ethnography As A Pastoral Practice An Introduction The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Ethnography As A Pastoral Practice An Introduction : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Ethnography As A Pastoral Practice An Introduction : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
