

On 16 October 2013 the European Commission released its annual reports on prospective member states which concluded that the Albanian election was held in an "orderly manner" and that progress had been made in meeting other conditions and as such recommended granting Albania candidate status. A decision on making Albania a candidate is expected to be made at the European Council in December 2013

On 1 January 2008 the visa facilitation and readmission agreements between Albania and the EU entered into force. Albania received a road map from the EU for further visa liberalisation with Schengen countries in June 2008. On 8 November 2010 the Council of the European Union approved visa-free travel to the EU for citizens of Albania. The decision entered into force on 15 December 2010.

Eu Progress Report Albania 2008

Yoji Koyama

Eu Progress Report Albania 2008:

European Integration and Transformation in the Western Balkans Arolda Elbasani, 2013-09-02 The book investigates the scope and limitations of the transformative power of EU enlargement in the Western Balkans The extension of EU enlargement policy to the region has generated high expectations that enlargement will regulate democratic institution building and foster reform much as it did in Central and Eastern Europe However there is very little research on whether and how unfavourable domestic conditions might mitigate the transformative power of the EU This volume investigates the role of domestic factors identifying stateness as the missing link between the assumed transformative power of the EU and the actual capacity to adopt EU rules across the region Including chapters on Croatia Serbia Macedonia Albania Kosovo and Bosnia Herzegovina leading scholars in the field offer up to date comparative analysis of key areas of institutional and policy reform including state bureaucracy rule of law electoral management environmental governance cooperation with the International Court of Justice economic liberalization and foreign policy Looking to the future and the implications for policy change European Integration and Transformation in the Western Balkans provides a new theoretical and empirical focus on this little understood area The book will be of interest to scholars and students of EU politics comparative democratisation post communist transitions and Balkan area studies

Eu's Eastward Enlargement, The: Central And Eastern Europe's Strategies For Development Yoji Koyama, 2014-12-09 Owing to the global financial crisis of 2007 2009 and subsequently the Eurozone crisis the accession of Central and Eastern European countries to the European Union and the Eurozone has not been an easy one The EU s Eastward Enlargement analyses challenges that these countries currently face in their pursuit of economic self reliance Covering a period from the second half of the 1980s to the present Yoji Koyama provides unique and objective analyses of the European Union and the Euro system from a non European s perspective He offers a detailed reexamination of the fundamental problems of the European Union which in turn have affected the autonomous development of countries such as Poland the former Yugoslavia Albania and the Baltic States This book is a useful addition to the scholarship available on the Euro system and Central and Eastern European countries It will help readers gain a more holistic understanding of the ongoing Eurozone crisis and the future of the Eurozone project

Democratization and the European Union Leonardo Morlino, Wojciech Sadurski, 2010-05-31 This book examines in depth the impact of the EU on aspects of the quality of democracy in eight selected post communist countries Considering both the political and legal aspects of the dynamics among institutions and focussing on inter institutional accountability the book analyses how constitutional designs have been effectively implemented to achieve this and to what extent this was the result of EU action In order to make a comparative assessment of the EU on democracies the book features detailed case studies according to their different status vis vis the EU including older new member states Poland and Hungary newer new member states Romania and Bulgaria potential candidates Albania and Serbia and neighbour and remote neighbour states Ukraine and

Armenia Each chapter addresses a range of dimensions and most relevant domains of inter institutional accountability that is executive legislative relationships constitutional justice decentralisation and regionalism and the role of ombudsman or other relevant authorities Seeking to assess how important the role of the EU has been in influencing the modes and characteristic of democracies and fundamental rights established in these regions this book will be of interest to students and scholars of comparative politics EU politics Post communist studies and democratization studies

Europe in Prisons Tom Daems, Luc Robert, 2017-11-06 This volume explores the role that European institutions have come to play in regulating national prisons systems The authors introduce and contribute to advancing a new research agenda in international penology Europe in prisons which complements the conventional comparative approach prisons in Europe The chapters examine the impact if any that institutions such as the European Committee for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment and the European Court of Human Rights have had on prison policy throughout Europe With contributions from a wide range of countries such as Albania Austria Belgium Ireland Norway and Spain this edited collection offers a wide ranging and authoritative guide to the effects of European institutions on prison policy

The EU's Conceptualisation of the Rule of Law in its External Relations Lisa Louwerse, 2023-09-04 This book explores the question of how the EU understands the rule of law in its external relations with a particular focus on development cooperation and enlargement Although the EU's commitment to the rule of law is strong the relevant concept remains nebulous On the basis of a detailed analysis of two key EU external policy areas the main argument advanced is that the Union has adopted a mostly institutional approach to the concept by focussing largely on judicial reform By testing the relevant practice against the background of the constitutional traditions of the Member States and legal theory the book attests to the significance of developing a comprehensive approach to the rule of law in EU external relations

Minority Integration in Central Eastern Europe, 2009-01-01 The book presents a timely examination on a range of issues present in the discussions on the integration of ethnic minorities in Central Eastern Europe norm setting equality promotion multiculturalism nation building social cohesion and ethnic diversity It insightfully illustrates these debates by assessing them diachronically rather than cross nationally from the legal political and anthropological perspective The contributors unpack concepts related to minority integration discuss progress in policy implementation and scrutinize the outcomes of minority integration in seven countries from the region The volume is divided into three sections taking a multi variant perspective on minority integration and equality The volume starts with an analysis of international organizations setting standards and promoting minority rights norms on ethnic diversity and equal treatment The second and third sections address state policies that provide fora for minority groups to participate in policy making as well as the role of society and its various actors their development and enactment of integration concepts The volume aims to assess the future of ethnic diversity and equality in societies across Central Eastern European states

The International Dimension of EU Competition Law and Policy Anestis S. Papadopoulos, 2010-10-28

Modern competition law was first employed by countries over one hundred years ago in order to address issues relating to restrictions of trade at the national level. Recent international economic integration has weakened the distinction between the domestic and the international in several fields of economic activity and consequently the laws which regulate such activity. Competition law included. Several attempts to address the paradox of adopting national competition rules to address international issues have been made at the international, regional and lately bilateral levels. This book discusses the international dimension of EU competition law and examines the position taken by the EU in four distinct categories of international agreements which are devoted to competition or include competition provisions. In particular it analyses the EU's position with regard to bilateral enforcement cooperation agreements, bilateral free trade agreements, plurilateral regional agreements and the long negotiations for the adoption of a multilateral competition regime. Conditioning Democratization Ridvan Peshkopia, 2014-04-15. This book analyzes the effects of European Union membership conditionality on institutional reforms in Eastern Europe, building on concrete examples from four sectors in Albania and Macedonia, two postcommunist countries that have yet to join the EU. The author discusses the theory of consociational democracy, often considered the key to stabilizing deeply divided countries, and reapplies it on the international stage to argue for how the EU can better direct democratization. From Europeanisation to Diffusion Tanja A. Borzel, Thomas Risse, 2020-11-25. This book provides a comprehensive account of the extent to which policies and institutions of the European Union (EU) spread across different contexts. Are the EU's attempts to transfer its policies and institutions to accession and neighbourhood countries sustainable and effective? To what degree do other regions of the world emulate the EU's institutional features? What are the mechanisms of and conditions for their diffusion? Chapters deal with Europeanization in the new EU member states, particularly in Romania and Bulgaria, in current accession candidates, i.e. the Western Balkans and Turkey, as well as the Eastern Southern Caucasus and Southern Neighbourhood, Israel and the Maghreb. In addition, authors investigate the diffusion of EU policies and institutions in Sub-Saharan Africa, Asia and Latin America. The authors place Europeanization studies in the wider context of research on transnational diffusion and examine the relevant mechanisms and processes, including incentives and capacity building, socialization and learning, as well as functional and normative emulation. Finally, the book discusses what conditions lead to the successful diffusion of European institutions and policies, such as domestic incentives, degrees of limited statehood, regime type and power asymmetries. This book was originally published as a special issue of West European Politics. European Social Charter (revised) Conclusions 2009 European Committee of Social Rights, Council of Europe, 2010-07-22. European Social Charter (revised) Conclusions 2011 Council of Europe. European Committee of Social Rights, Council of Europe, 2013-01-31. Trafficking and Human Rights Leslie Holmes, 2010-01-01. Human trafficking is widely considered to be the fastest growing branch of trafficking. As this important book reveals, it has moved rapidly up the agenda of states and international organisations since the early 1990s, not only because of this growth but also as its implications for security and human rights have become clearer This fascinating study by international experts provides original research findings on human trafficking with particular reference to Europe South East Asia and Australia A major focus is on why and how many states and organisations act in ways that undermine trafficked victims rights as part of quadruple victimisation It compares and contrasts policies and suggests which seem to work best and why The contributors also advocate radical new approaches that most states and other formal organisations appear loath to introduce for reasons that are explored in this unique book

The European Union and the Paradox of Enlargement Tatjana Sekulić, 2020-05-26 This book sheds light on the contradictions underlying the European Union enlargement process specifically to the Western Balkans challenging the common assumption that the integration of an extended European space might be possible without mutual transformation of the institutions and agencies involved Sekuli maps the institutional dimension of the accession process and analyses how the conditionality principle shapes and constrains the space for negotiation within the EU Combining ethnographic research with the discourse analysis of the European Commission's reports and documents from 2008 to 2019 concerning the Western Balkan countries the book also explores the perceptions and agency of the individuals involved in this process The European Union and the Paradox of Enlargement will be of interest to students and scholars of European integration the sociology of Europe and the EU and Eastern European and Western Balkan studies

The Ethos of Europe Andrew Williams, 2010-03-11 Can the EU become a just institution Andrew Williams considers this highly charged political and moral question by examining the role of five salient values said to be influential in the governance and law of the Union peace the rule of law respect for human rights democracy and liberty He assesses each of these as elements of an apparent institutional ethos and philosophy of EU law and finds that justice as a governing ideal has failed to be taken seriously in the EU To remedy this condition he proposes a new set of principles upon which justice might be brought more to the fore in the Union's governance By focusing on the realisation of human rights as a core institutional value Williams argues that the EU can better define its moral limits so as to evolve as a more just project

Evolving Practice In EU Enlargement With Case Studies In Agri-Food And Environment Law Kirstyn Inglis, 2010-04-16 Following some ten years as a practicing lawyer and consultant Kirstyn Inglis has been researching the evolving legal practice of EU enlargement for over ten years This book succinctly introduces this evolving practice covering transitional arrangements in accession treaties the Treaty of Lisbon recent European Court case law the specific governance challenge of incorporating Bulgaria and Romania and the strategy for future enlargements to bring in the Western Balkans and Turkey In part two the examples of the environment and the agri food acquis are explored including the analysis of the transitional arrangements in practice Overall the diversity and complexity of the pre accession and post accession challenge of enlargement becomes apparent as do key challenges for the evolution of the acquis communautaire in an enlarging Union at a time when Croatia is waiting to sign its own accession treaty

Integration in Energy and Transport Alexandros Petersen, 2016-06-16 The South Caucasus has established itself as a corridor for transporting energy from Azerbaijan to Georgia Turkey and on to Europe symbolized by the Baku Tbilisi Ceyhan oil pipeline This new infrastructure has created an east west Eurasian bridge in which transnational extra regional actors especially the European Union and international financial institutions have played a critical role This book offers an original exploration of integration in the energy and transport sectors amongst Azerbaijan Georgia and Turkey and the capacity of this to fundamentally change relations between these countries In the period studied from the mid 1990s to 2008 integration in energy and transport did not result in broader political security and sociocultural integration in any significant way The author sets his analysis in a theoretical framework drawing on theories of integration but also grounds it in the detailed empirical knowledge that is the measure of true expertise European Administrative Space.Balkan Realities Lucica Matei, Davor Vašiček, Marija

Kaštelan-Mrak, 2011 EU Regional Trade Agreements Maryna Rabinovych, 2021-04-06 This book unveils the potential of utilizing EU Regional Trade Agreements RTAs as an instrument of promoting the rule of law to third states In doing so the book combines development economics foreign policy and legal perspectives at three levels of analysis of four sectors to introduce the concept of EU value promoting RTAs The book demonstrates that the EU RTAs bear considerable potential to be strategized as instruments of promoting the rule of law in third states requiring however overcoming strict divides between EU political and economic cooperation and values and acquis conditionality in its relations with third countries This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of European Studies European Union Law EU external action foreign policy EU trade agreements and Development Studies as well as to NGOs and think tanks that work on European affairs

Remittances, Gender and Development Russell King, Julie Vullnetari, 2011-07-30 Migration in the modern world rather than being seen as a symptom or result of underdevelopment is now understood more as a route towards development and a strategy for alleviating poverty This study of Albania is particularly significant in this new debate on migration and development as since the fall of communism remittances have been a major supporter of the Albanian economy sustaining many Albanian families especially in rural areas The authors thus focus on the socio cultural context of remittances and explore how gender emerges as a powerful facet in the processes of development It will therefore be of interest to scholars and students in Migration Studies Development Studies Gender Studies Geography and Anthropology as well as offering vital analysis for policy makers donors and civil society activists engaged in development planning and migration management
