Eulogy For Mom From Son:

Harvesting Memories Linda Lee Cermak Kocan, 2025-02-07 Harvesting Memories abounds with intimate and heartfelt recollections from a lone survivor of a family and by extension a way of life that has virtually disappeared from the American landscape. The life she vividly portrays as a child growing up in rural Ohio as the youngest member of a farm family in the 1950s and 1960s, one generation away from two sets of grandparents who immigrated from Czechoslovakia, taught her invaluable life lessons among its triumphs and setbacks. Coal mining and farming coexisted as unlikely bedfellows in that part of the country, but the author's father, who dropped out of school to work in the mines, ultimately came to live a hardscrabble but fulfilling life as a farmer dedicated to his undying belief that the land will feed you. Edward Cermak's realized dream of providing for his family by living off the land came with a death sentence of Black Lung Disease from his years of breathing in coal dust. He and wife Anna were married at the onset of the Great Depression, a most challenging time, and it is fair to say that they shared a prodigious workload and occasional hardship over several decades of farming and never regretted their journey together. The greater the difficulties, the harder they worked, and the more they learned to adapt. As for daughter Linda, the baby and unexpected addition to the family, joining a much older sister and brother, her two decades on the farm were so special that she, as sole survivor, had to put it all into the words that comprise this book as she embarked into her seventies. There are many stories, from the exultant to the tragic, told in these pages. Linda takes you back in time through her memories and ultimately sharing the many truths that came to serve her well as a wife, mother, and grandmother. Perhaps most fascinating is a way of life so reliant on and respectful of family and neighbors, captured in this memoir. You might even find yourself, as did the author in her youth, enjoying the antics of a pet groundhog or dealing with the meanest gobbler ever to walk the face of the earth. It is a compilation of stories and maxims that can only be shared by a dwindling number of those among us who have experienced this rapidly disappearing way of life. All proceeds from the sale of this book will be donated equally to the Dillonvale High School Alumni Association and to the community of East Palestine, Ohio, who suffered the tragic train derailment in 2023 in memory of Linda's Dad and Mom, Ed and Anna Cermak. About the author: Linda Lee Cermak Kocan, the youngest of three children, is the second daughter and only surviving child of the late Edward and Anna Cermak of Dillonvale, Ohio. At 71 years of age, Linda decided to take pencil to paper and record her experiences and lessons learned growing up on her small 150-acre family farm in Ohio's Jefferson County in the 1950s and 1960s. Just jot down a few interesting stories in a notebook to tell her children and grandchildren about their roots and pass on some important life values she had learned during those years. A vociferous reader, Linda is not a formally trained writer, but this memoir reveals a natural talent for writing about what is most important in life via an approach that is inviting, gentle, and authentically warm and loving. She asks that you place your hand in hers as she takes you on a virtual journey back in time to her farm and a childhood replete with memories told in an unpretentious style that can be humorous, charming, and at times assertive and life affirming She promises that Harvesting Memories will inspire and inform you in ways you might find surprising Linda currently lives in the verdant countryside outside of Towanda Pennsylvania with Mark her husband of 52 plus years They live on a 22 acre piece of land which they share with deer various wild critters and their 17 year old cat Sydney The Savvy Mom's Guide to Sons Tina Krause,2014-07-01 The Savvy Mom s Guide to Sons will encourage your faith challenge you spiritually and give you real life advice on how to parent boys with wisdom and confidence Biblically based advice will equip you to guide your boys in the Christian faith plus you ll encounter some humorous common sense tips along the way Each of these 101 accessible chapters wraps up with thought provoking quotations and questions making The Savvy Mom s Guide a perfect book to read alone or with other mothers of sons Gordie Howe's Son Mark Howe,2013-11-01 Mark Howe emerged from the shadow cast by his iconic father Gordie to achieve greatness In this autobiography he vividly describes his unparalleled experiences A U S Olympic silver medalist at age 16 and a member of the Memorial Cup champion Toronto Marlboros Howe went on to play seven seasons alongside his father Gordie and brother Marty for the WHA s two time champion Houston Aeros and New England and Hartford Whalers before becoming a four time NHL All Star with the Philadelphia Flyers Howe elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2011 recounts the joys and travails endured by the sport s most beloved family Recollections of teammates injuries game experiences deaths and his life as a child athlete make this a must read for all hockey fans Mom's Everything Book for Sons Becky Freeman,Becky Freeman Johnson,2003 Short practical suggestions offer mothers ideas to build a quality relationship with their eight to 12 year old sons following the pattern set in Luke 2 52 The Day Isn't Over William Bisbing,2021-08-03 This is the story of a man and a woman who have made their respective plans to enter into their golden years after going through all of life s challenges raising their families wanting only to enjoy their retirement years with each other filling those remaining years of their lives with travel adventure and grandchildren along with making memories only to discover their plans lost upon losing both loves of their lives A surprise event in their lives opens the door to their wildest dreams thus providing the book s title The Day Isn t Over However finding each other living happily ever after proves to be harder the second time around and has become more difficult than the first but they remain steadfast in their live for each other regardless of the newfound obstacles in their way making the love they had discovered for each other s golden years shine brighter The Child Catcher Andrew Bridge,2024-09-24 The Child Catcher is the true story of the fight to rescue the children confined to a violent and secretive institution in the rural South Andrew Bridge s bestselling memoir Hope s Boy told the story of his survival after he was taken from his mother who struggled with schizophrenia and was left to foster care Bridge was first confined at one of our country s most notorious children s institutions MacLaren Hall Now in The Child Catcher he chronicles his role in the longest running most bitterly fought mental health lawsuit in American history After graduating from Harvard Law School Bridge joined the small team of civil rights lawyers representing the children of the Eufaula Adolescent Center a violent and secretive

Son of Sister Maria Michael Parlee, 2011-07-11 As an older foster child Andrew longed for the day when he'd be adopted by a real family because they loved him and wanted him to be part of their family unit Until that day dawned like many other foster kids he lived with the stigma that he was kept by his foster parents to generate income for them Of late bad had gone to worse for 13 year old Andrew He was being sexually abused by Blanche his new single foster mom Blanche had been abandoned by her husband and despised men Although she used Andrew for her own depraved needs she treated him poorly To add to his pain news of this sexual relationship leaked out to his peers at school and he was now enduring verbal torment at recesses and noon hour Andrew couldn't bear the pain any longer when the only friend who'd stuck up for him at school turned against him He felt totally alone so unloved Dear God I have nothing left to live for he sobbed one night when his foster mom left for a party Please forgive me for what I have to do but I'm hurting so much Andrew headed to his foster mothers shed to get the rope With the rope coiled up under his coat he headed to the big black poplar tree in the Kinsman Park Twelve feet off the ground was a large branch at right angles to the trunk Andrew quickly fashioned a hangmans noose and shinnied up the tree Bracing himself with his legs he slipped the noose over his head and tied the other end of the rope to the branch Grasping the branch he let himself down As he hung there by his fingertips his short life passed before him

The Mayor's Daughter T. C. Christman, 2011-05 A Mayors Daughter shines a spotlight on history of ordinary people from the greatest generation The memories of Therese Christman generates a dynamic story which is birthed in the great depression and then accelerates to the greatest overflow of prosperity the world has ever known A daughters memories a father of fame and a renowned internationally known priest combine to bring a trilogy of a true story of a Michigan city of a culture and of a society that was fashioned by grace to greatness through hard work resilience of spirit sacrifice of self and above all a vision with leadership Up from a small Midwestern community came these two men who by divine intervention found themselves in the broader stretch of community fame social prominence and a cultural revolution This story becomes compelling because it captures the amazing transformation of a community by one man's leadership And the ultimate salvation of a society by another man's influence through eloquent radio broadcasting This translates to special people with greatness of vision motivated by love and that inner call that brings a profound change to the societies in which great men and women live Henceforth the book the Mayors Daughter Finally this book through the memories of a daughter rehearses history in the City of Royal Oak Michigan that now includes one of the top medical centers in the world and all because of one man's vision and leadership. Moreover, the freedom of the American culture in part is derived from a Catholic priest who dared to speak out against the evils of communism and the social depression that it causes. The memories of a daughter form a trilogy to reveal history in some of its greatest triumphs. This book is a must read. The Peace I Know Udochukwu Vincent Ogbuji, 2013-02. There is an ancient proverb that instructs: Physician, heal thyself. It helps to keep this saying in mind as we seek to bring peace to others. That is because our collective peace of mind makes for a beautiful life, family and society, and no one gives what he or she has not. As a priest, my endeavor to bring inner healing and peace to many comes with challenges among which includes maintaining my own personal tranquility. Urged by my friends and wish to make a difference, I decided to write this book after my car accident and resulting paralysis. I hope that reading this book will inspire you to continue searching for peace and what makes life worth living. Letters from Alaska Richard Bartoo, Norma Bartoo, 2013-08-08. Letters from Alaska. Someone has commented that the Bartoo family is made of people who are highly literate, adventurous and in love with the outdoors and animals. From the articles in this collection, I think any reader will agree with that. In their 30 to 40 years of living in Alaska, my mom and dad wrote many things to describe what their life was like. Some were letters written to family and friends, some were trapping logs, some were just personal accounts of activities on hunting trips and other travels, often written strictly for their own enjoyment. My mother and dad were over 50 when they moved to Alaska and started a new life there. From my mother's letters over the years, she tells all about their life in Alaska in the 20th century. She makes the stories of their experiences come alive: hunting for moose, goats or caribou, then fishing for salmon and halibut, and how they lost the Salmon Derby and their fur trapping of mink, martin, etc. The perennial question folks ask: What's it like to live in Alaska? Mom answers from her viewpoint, both in showing details of daily routines of growing flowers while weeding and feeding mosquitoes, as well as how to prepare for spending weeks or months at a time in the bush on their annual trapping trip. Called Out But Safe Al Clark, Dan Schlossberg, 2014-05-01. If an umpire could steal the show in a Major League game, Al Clark might well have been the one to do it. Tough but fair in his thirty years as a professional umpire, he took on some of baseball's great umpire baiters such as Earl Weaver, Billy Martin, and Dick Williams while ejecting any number of the game's elite, once tearing a hamstring in the process. He was the first Jewish umpire in American League history and probably the first to eject his own father from the officials' dressing room. But whatever Clark was doing officiating at Nolan Ryan's three-hundredth win, Cal Ripken's record breaker, or the earthquake World Series of 1989 or braving a labor dispute, an anti-Semitic tirade by a Cy Young Award winner, or a legal imbroglio, it makes for a good story. Called Out but Safe is Clark's outspoken and often hilarious account of his life in baseball, from umpire school through the highlights to the inglorious end of his stellar career. Not just a source of baseball history and lore, Clark's book also affords a rare look at what life is like for someone who works for the Major Leagues' other team. My Mother's Kitchen Peter
