Gardens Of Revelation Environments By Visionary Artists:

Gardens of Revelation John Beardsley, 1995 John Beardsley tells the story of about twenty five visionary environments and the fiercely independent individuals who have created them in the course of the last century This lively international tour ranges from the soaring spires of Watts Towers in Los Angeles to the spirit lifting Camel Yard and Owl House in New Bethesda South Africa to the junk and flower filled labyrinths of Howard Finster s Paradise Garden near Summerville Georgia While capturing the spirit of each individual s unique creation Beardsley also situates the work in the larger contexts of traditional garden design religious architecture environmental sculpture and folk art He muses about the compulsion to create the sense of place and the visionary spirit that has inflamed these artists quoting at length their own poignant and pungent commentary on what they have created and why

Sublime Spaces and Visionary Worlds Leslie Umberger, 2007-10-04 The need to personalize our surroundings is a defining human characteristic For some this need becomes a compulsion to transform their personal surroundings into works of art The John Michael Kohler Arts Center in Sheboygan Wisconsin has undertaken the mission to preserve these environments which are presented for the first time in Sublime Spaces and Visionary Worlds This colorful and inspiring book features the work of twenty two vernacular artists whose locales personal histories and reasons for art making vary widely but who all share a powerful connection to the home as art Featured projects range from art environments that remain intact such as Simon Rodia s Watts Towers in California to sites lost over the years such as Emery Blagdon s six hundred elaborate Healing Machines made of copper aluminum tinfoil magnets ribbons farm machinery parts painted light bulbs beads coffee can lids and more Sublime Spaces and Visionary Worlds is the first book to explore these spectacularly offbeat spaces in detail From Original Rhinestone Cowboy Loy Bowlin s wall to wall glitter and foil living room to the concrete bestiary of witch of Fox Point Mary Nohl each artist and project is described in detail through a wealth of visuals and text Sublime Spaces and Visionary Worlds reminds us that our decorative choices tell the world not just what we like but who we are

World Heritage and National Registers Thomas R. Gensheimer, Celeste Lovette Guichard, 2017-09-08 Historic sites celebrate defining moments in history memorialize important events and people and contribute to the character of the locations where they are situated Heritage designation both globally and nationally is an inherently contested issue As detailed in this volume concerns of politics and identity criteria for designation impacts on communities and sites and challenges to management planning are central to any understanding of the process by which heritage sites are created developed and maintained The idea for this volume originated at a symposium hosted by the Savannah College of Art and Design Contributors address such topics as the need to revamp criteria for designation the effect historic site recognition has on local communities the challenges encountered in maintaining a site and issues linked to specific political climates or actions and group identity The contributors constitute an international cast of leading scholars employees and policy makers

all of whom have had extensive experience with World Heritage and National Register site stewardship The work will be an invaluable reference for historians architects and those committed to the preservation of national monuments Rare Visions & Roadside Revelations Randy Mason,2002 Companion book to KCPT s award winning public television series Includes an amazing array of art and oddities food and fun and a world of creativity in some of the most unexpected places

Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature Bron Taylor,Jeffrey Kaplan,2005-01-01 No Marketing Blurb The Art of Found Objects Robert Craig Bunch,2016-09-23 In this first book of interviews with visual artists from across Texas more than sixty artists reflect on topics from formative influences and inspirations to their common engagement with found materials Beyond the art itself no source is more primary to understanding art and artist than the artist s own words After all who can speak with more authority about the artist s influences motivations methods philosophies and creations Since 2010 Robert Craig Bunch has interviewed sixty four of Texas finest artists who have responded with honesty clarity and naturally great insight into their own work None of these interviews has been previously published even in part Incorporating a striking full color illustration of each artist s work these absorbing self examinations will stand collectively as a reference of lasting value

Public Performances Jack Santino,2017-12-15 Public Performances offers a deep and wide ranging exploration of relationships among genres of public performance and of the underlying political motivations they share Illustrating the connections among three themes the political the carnivalesque and the ritualesque this volume provides rich and comprehensive insight into public performance as an assertion of political power Contributors consider how public genres of performance express not only celebration but also dissent grief and remembrance examine the permeability of the boundaries between genres and analyze the approval or regulation of such events by municipalities and other institutions

Where the particular use of public space is not sanctioned or where that use meets with hostility from institutions or represents a critique of them performers are effectively reclaiming public space to make public statements on their own terms an act of popular sovereignty Through these concepts Public Performances distinguishes the sometimes overlapping dimensions of public symbolic display Carnival and thus the carnivalesque is understood to possess tacit social permission for unconventional or even deviant performance on the grounds that normal social order will resume when the performance concludes Ritual and the ritualesque leverages a deeper symbolic sensibility one believed or at least intended by the participants to effect transformative longer term change Contributors Roger D Abrahams John Borgonovo Laurent S bastien Fournier Lisa Gilman Barbara Graham David Harnish Samuel Kinser Scott Magelssen Elena Martinez Pamela Moro Beverly J Stoeltje Daniel Wojcik Dorothy L Zinn
