Dara Moskowitz Grumdahl, 2009-11-24. Ever been baffled by a wine list, stood perplexed before endless racks of bottles at the liquor store, or ordered an overpriced bottle out of fear of the scathing judgment of a restaurant sommelier? Before she became a James Beard Award-winning food and wine writer, Dara Moskowitz Grumdahl experienced all these things. Now she presents a handy guide that will show you how to stop being overwhelmed and intimidated, how to discover, respect and enjoy your own personal taste, and how to be whatever kind of wine person you want to be, from budding connoisseur to someone who simply gets wine you like every time you buy a bottle. Refreshingly simple, irreverent and witty, Drink This explains all the insider stuff that wine critics assume you know. It will teach you how to taste and savor wine alone with a friend or with a group. And perhaps most important, this book gives you the tools to learn the only thing that really matters about wine: namely, figuring out what you like. Grumdahl draws on her own experience and savvy and interviews some of the world's most renowned critics, winemakers and chefs, including Robert M. Parker Jr., Paul Draper and Thomas Keller, who share their wisdom about everything from pairing food and wine to the inside scoop on what wine scores and reviews really mean. Readers will learn how to master tasting techniques and understand the winemaking process from soil to cellar. Drink This also reveals how to get your money's worth out of wine without spending all you've got. At last, there's a reason for wary wine lovers to raise a glass in celebration. Savor the insider's viewpoint and straight talk of Drink This and watch your intimidation of wine transform into well-grounded, unshakeable confidence. The Everything Bartender's Book

American Still Life F. Paul Pacult, 2011-02-10 The untold story of the world's premier bourbon and the family that made it 1 American Still Life tells the intertwined true stories of America's favorite whiskey and the family dynasty that produces it to this very day Jim Beam is the world's top selling bourbon whiskey with sales of over five million cases per year. Not a day has passed in the 207 years of Jim Beam's existence when a Beam family member has not been master distiller. Dedicated to quality and dedicated to the family legacy the Beams have shepherded their particularly American spirit to the top of their industry. And they've done it in an industry beset by challenges from government regulation and prohibition to changing consumer tastes to fierce new global competition. By creating a brand of unparalleled quality and consistency and by tying the success of their product with the good name of the family the Beams have established a lasting legacy as perhaps one of the greatest family business dynasties in American history. Not just a simple history of America's native spirit so named by an act of Congress in 1964 or a simple family history. American Still Life is a story of business success based on quality and attention to detail, constant innovation, revolutionary branding and advertising and adaptation to the business environment. F. Paul Pacult, Walkill, NY, is recognized the world over as his generation's most accomplished and respected authority on beverage alcohol. He has written for many magazines including Playboy, Wine and Spirits, Connoisseur, Whisky, Drink, Men's Journal, Cheers, Country Inns, Travel and Leisure, Bon Appetit, Decanter and Food and Wine. Among his many accomplishments he has hosted and coproduced two syndicated talk radio programs and served as the primary expert on whiskey, beer and wine for the History Channel documentary America Drinks History in a Glass.
