American Catholic Church how we got here and how it could be different Pope Francis has spoken of his desire for pastoral bishops shepherds who have the smell of the sheep The story of Raymond G Hunthausen archbishop of Seattle from 1975 1991 is about a bishop who epitomized this style and the price he paid The quintessential Vatican II bishop Hunthausen embraced the spirit of renewal reaching out to the laity women and those on the margins A courageous witness for peace he earned national attention when he became the first American bishop to urge tax resistance as a protest against preparations for nuclear war In doing so he ran against the Cold War policies of the Reagan Administration But he also came into conflict with Pope John Paul II s desire to reshape the American episcopacy This fascinating biography not only recounts a critical turning point for the American Catholic church it rekindles the vision of a more inclusive prophetic and compassionate church as people of God Publisher s description Catalog of Copyright Entries.
