C. E.,2009-03-01 So it is that poet and author I C E has given you twenty eight beautiful enlightening spiritual and inspirational poems I call them tributaries or streams of poetry that tells the story of I C E s life Son of a Pastor I C E has been close to God s word all the days of his life He gives you the substance and essence of God s word through twenty eight substreams of spiritual and inspirational poetry Included in those twenty eight poems is special poetry for Christmas Thanksgiving Mother s and Father s day as well as Valentine s day Dr Mark Chapman Jr Co author and editor molds the twenty eight tributaries into six mighty streams that rush and cascade into one mighty waterway the Ocean of righteousness with one message that God is good and His mercy endures forever East Wind Melts the Ice Liza Dalby,2009-02-17 To read East Wind Melts the Ice is to slip into a time stream that is both as long and sinuous as history and as ephemeral as the present moment Drawing inspiration from the thousand year old history of Japanese poetic diaries and form from the ancient Chinese almanac that she uses to contain her musings Liza Dalby has accomplished the seemingly impossible task of translating the sensibility of the Heian Court of 11th century Japan into the context of contemporary America The result is a stunning chronicle of the beauty of time passing and an evocation of the transient and whimsical nature of all things Ruth Ozeki author of My Year of Meats and All Over Creation I imagine Liza Dalby writing this book in an ancient library a lion sleeping at her side as in the paintings of Saint Jerome As she collects and layers arcane and fascinating pieces of knowledge she builds her own very personal almanac packed with the wonder of loving two cultures the intense inner life of each season and boundless curiosity of the scholar child This is a book to dip in and out of throughout the year Frances Mayes author of Under the Tuscan Sun Liza Dalby s memoir of the seasons is as fresh and captivating as springtime A very special book Michael Pollan author of The Omnivore s Dilemma This beautiful book awakens the senses A journal an almanac of the seasons and a series of reflections on ancient Eastern Chinese and Japanese cultures here you will find subtle observations of rain and heat tangerines mulberries and paulownia trees crickets and doves forming a rich tapestry as they are woven with evocative fragments of history stories of geishas of salesmen who sold bulk fireflies of the wood that was used for kimono chests of emptiness in the tea ceremony Like a lush garden this book is meant to savor Susan Griffin author of The Book of the Courtesans The Patience of Ice Renate Wood,2000 Filled with awe at the improbable incomprehensible trajectory of human experience the poems in this collection ponder history memory and family The poems begin with memories of the poet s childhood in Germany during World War I Humorous and Nonsensical Poems Liz Miles,2014-01-01 Examines humorous and nonsensical poetry providing readers with the skills to explore the meaning in a poem and discussing the techniques the poets used to create them      A Broken Flute Doris Seale, Beverly Slapin, 2005 A Broken Flute The Native Experience in Books for Children is a companion to its predecessor published by Oyate Through Indian Eyes The Native Experience in Books for Children A compilation of work by Native parents children educators poets and writers A Broken Flute contains from a Native perspective living stories essays poetry and hundreds of reviews of children s books about Indians It s an indispensable volume for anyone interested in presenting honest materials by and about indigenous peoples to children
