

Chapter 1: Parts of Speech Overview, pp. 1–27

Choices activities are designed to extend and enrich students' understanding of grammar, usage, and mechanics and to take learners beyond traditional classroom instruction. To use the Choices worksheet, have each student pick an activity that interests him or her. In some cases, you may wish to assign an activity to a particular student or group of students. You may also want to request that students get your approval for the activities they choose. Establish guidelines for what constitutes successful completion of an activity. Then, help students plan how they will share their work with the rest of the class.

Choices activities can be scored with a pass-fail grade or treated as bonus-point projects. Those activities that require students to research or create a certain number of items might be graded in a traditional manner.

Prep Experts, Teaching English in Africa Anderson, Jason,2016-04-30 Teaching English in Africa is a practical guide written for primary and secondary school teachers working all over the continent This book relates the practice of English language teaching directly to the African context As well as covering the underlying theory of how children learn languages and how teachers can best facilitate this learning it also provides practical resources and ideas for activities and techniques that have proved successful in English classrooms in Africa both at primary and secondary level It is intended to be a practical guide so references and citations are kept to a minimum and concepts are presented using examples that are likely to be familiar to most teachers working in Africa If there is a bias in this book it is towards the needs of teachers working in low resource isolated contexts in Africa as these teachers are so often neglected by literature on teaching methodology
