Supporting Entrepreneurship and Innovation Janet Crum, Samantha Schmehl Hines, 2019-04-29 Libraries have recently begun doing more to support entrepreneurship and innovation within their communities This volume explores how this has come about looking at libraries from across North America Europe and Africa and helps position readers to better understand what is happening and how this can be brought to further institutions North-South Knowledge Networks Towards Equitable Collaboration Between Tor Halvorsen, Jorun Nossun, 2017-02-23 Since the 1990s internationalisation has become key for institutions wishing to secure funding for higher education and research For the academic community this strategic shift has had many consequences Priorities have changed and been influenced by new ways of thinking about universities and of measuring their impact in relation to each other and to their social goals Debates are ongoing and hotly contested In this collection a mix of renowned academics and newer voices reflect on some of the realities of international research partnerships They both question and highlight the agency of academics donors and research institutions in the geopolitics of knowledge and power The contributors offer fresh insights on institutional transformation the setting of research agendas and access to research funding while highlighting the dilemmas researchers face when their institutions are vulnerable to state and donor influence Offering a range of perspectives on why academics should collaborate and what for this book will be useful to anyone interested in how scholars are adapting to the realities of international networking and how research institutions are finding innovative ways to make NorthSouth partnerships and collaborations increasingly fair sustainable and mutually beneficial Education and Elitism Conrad Hughes, 2021-04-26 Education and Elitism discusses polemical debates around privilege private schools elitist universities equal access to education and underlying notions of fairness The overarching question that runs through the book is about the future of education worldwide how can schools and universities tread the tightrope between access and quality This book investigates the philosophical positions that characterize elitism and anti elitism to establish three types meritocratic plutocratic and cultural These types of elitism and their counter positions are used as reference points throughout the book s analysis of successive educational themes The conclusion leads to suggestions that bridge the worlds of elitism and egalitarianism worldwide The book covers critical questions related to the sociology and philosophy of education with particular focus on contemporary disruptors to education such as the COVID 19 pandemic and protest movements for social justice With an attempt to offer readers an objective overview this book will be an excellent compendium for students academics and researchers of the sociology of education education policy and comparative education It will also be of interest to school leaders university provosts and professionals working in curriculum design Intra-Africa Student Mobility in Higher Education Chika Trevor Sehoole, Jenny J. Lee, 2022-01-01 This book examines student mobility within Africa International student mobility is among the central activities of higher education internationalization As the number of international students increase so do the destinations in both number and geographic diversity Historically international student mobility has followed South North and North North patterns However recent literature show the growth in North South and South South patterns of student mobility There has also been a rise in regional mobility In what is referred to in the book as intra Africa mobility the books explores and analyzes the patterns of intra Africa mobility based on seven African countries South Africa Kenya Uganda Nigeria Ghana Senegal and Egypt The editors and contributors address three central research questions Why did the students choose the country they are studying in Why did they choose the institution they are studying in What are their academic and social experiences in these countries and their respective institutions This book is the first comprehensive exploration of intra Africa student mobility in a field that traditionally centers on the Global North
