Makerere University Intake:

Strengthening Uganda's Policy Environment for Investing in University Development, 1993 In recent years Makerere University has experienced increasing student and staff unrest The academic community is demoralized by tight government controls on spending especially by inaction on staff salary demands Donor support will not be forthcoming without broad policy reform in higher education rather than piecemeal reform

Bridging the Knowledge Divide Stewart Marshall, Wanjira Kinuthia, Wallace Taylor, 2009-04-01 In many international settings developing economies are in danger of declining as the digital divide becomes the knowledge divide This decline attacks the very fabric of cohesion and purpose for these regional societies delivering increased social health economic and sustainability problems The examples in this book will provide leaders policy developers researchers students and community with successful strategies and principles of ICT use in education to address these needs This book will discuss how educational technology can be used to transform education and assist developing communities to close the knowledge divide It will provide comprehensive coverage of educational technology in development in different professions and parts of world The book will provide examples of best practice case studies and principles for educators community leaders researchers and policy advisers on the use of educational technology for development In particular it will provide examples of how education can be provided more flexibly in order to provide access to hitherto disadvantaged communities and individuals

Learning to make change Paul Kibwika, 2023-08-28 Universities represent the highest level of education yet they are notoriously slow in responding to a rapidly changing world Deeply entrenched elitism and routines a continued emphasis on reproductive learning and the continued dominance of disciplinary thinking have in many instances created bastions of educational conservatism unable to contribute meaningfully to the development of people businesses and communities within a finite global ecosystem This book focuses on an African university s efforts to become more innovative and responsive to community needs and the challenges posed by sustainability A central concept is innovation competence as a pre requisite for transforming learning research and consultancy Making change in society requires innovation competences over and above disciplinary expertise and these competences have to be learnt by both staff and students Kibwika not only shows that it is imperative that African universities re orient their programmes to produce graduates capable of enhancing innovation and social change in the community he also provides a number of solid stepping stones for capacity building and curriculum development that in time will result in an innovative university able to contribute to a world that is more sustainable than the one currently in prospect
