Artistic Practices and Archaeological Research Dragoş Gheorghiu, Theodor Barth, 2019-02-28 This volume which has come about through a collaborative venture between Dragoş Gheorghiu archaeologist and professional visual artist and Theodor Barth anthropologist aims at expanding the field of archaeological research with an anthropological understanding of practices that include artistic methods

The Interiors Theory Primer William Mangold, 2025-07-31 In a world where life is increasingly defined by the spaces we inhabit understanding interiors is essential to understanding ourselves The Interiors Theory Primer maps the intellectual terrain of interior design and spatial experience introducing readers to key concepts that shape how people occupy interior spaces Organized into three parts this book begins with foundational concerns such as place identity materiality and atmosphere and then examines the boundaries and expertise of the discipline before turning to critical and emerging topics like biophilia virtuality and social justice Each chapter presents a focused literature review of a major theme in interiors theory supported by key design precedents and suggestions for further reading Drawing on a wide range of scholarship The Interiors Theory Primer offers a coherent framework for understanding interiors as a distinct interdisciplinary field deeply embedded in the human condition Accessible to students useful to professionals and provocative for scholars The Interiors Theory Primer argues that the designed environments in which we live work and gather deserve greater attention not only for their aesthetic and functional qualities but also for their powerful role in shaping contemporary life

Surfaces Mike Anusas,Cristián Simonetti,2020-02-24 In attending to surfaces as they wrap layer and grow within sentient bodies material formations and cosmological states this volume presents a series of ten anthropological studies stretching across five continents and in observation of earthly practices of making knowing living and dying Through theoretically reflecting on time spent with Aymara and Mapuche Andean cultures the Malagasy people of Madagascar craftspeople and designers across Europe and Oceania amongst the architectures of Australia and South Korea and within the folds of books screens landscape and the sea the anthropologists in this volume communicate diverse ways of considering working with and knowing surfaces Together these writings advance a knowledge of the world which resists any definitive settlement of existential categories and rather seeks to know the world in its emergence and transformation as entities grow cohere shift dissolve decay and are reborn through the contact and exchange of surfaces persisting with varying time power and effect The book principally invites readers from anthropology the creative arts and environmental studies but also across the wider humanities and social sciences as well as those in neighbouring scientific fields of archaeology biology geography geoscience material science neurology and psychology interested in the intersections of mind body materials and world

ECKM 2018 19th European Conference on Knowledge Management Ettore Bolisani,Eleonora Di Maria,Enrico Scarso,2018-09-06 Detailing Worlds Eric Bellin,2025-02-06 In the 21st century the word detail appears constantly in discussions of building and we use it in many different ways yet just over 250 years ago detail meant nothing at all particular to the work of architects engineers or builders Detailing Worlds is the first book to examine the origins and evolution of detail as a concept with meanings specific to practices of building By exploring how past meanings and roles were ascribed to detail in different worlds of practice those of academics technicians students engineers and architects Detailing Worlds looks to the future illuminating the ways disciplinary knowledge and the concepts on which it is based evolve and change over time It is a story about how such concepts are slowly but constantly reconceived redefined and transformed by individuals as they interact with one another and how this process is shaped by the ever changing sociocultural and technological dimensions of the world around us Richly illustrated with more than 200 images including figures from rare texts archival student drawings and practitioners construction documents from the 18th through 20th centuries Detailing Worlds ventures to tell the history of a disciplinary specific idea and offer insights about how we think and speak about the practice of building today      Unpacking IKEA Pauline Garvey, 2017-11-23 This book represents the first anthropological ethnography of Ikea consumption and goes to the heart of understanding the unique and at times frantic popularity of this one iconic transnational store Based on a year of participant observation in Stockholm's Kungens Kurva store the largest in the world this book places the retailer squarely within the realm of the home building efforts of individuals in Stockholm and to a lesser degree in Dublin Ikea the world's largest retailer and one of its most interesting is the focus of intense popular fascination internationally yet is rarely subject to in depth anthropological inquiry In Unpacking Ikea Garvey explores why Ikea is never just a store for its customers and questions why it is described in terms of a cultural package as everyday and classless Using in depth interviews with householders over several years this ethnographic study follows the furniture from the Ikea store outwards to probe what people actually take home with them      Archaeological Theory in Dialogue Rachel J. Crellin, Craig N. Cipolla, Lindsay M. Montgomery, Oliver J.T. Harris, Sophie V. Moore, 2020-11-09 Archaeological Theory in Dialogue presents an innovative conversation between five scholars from different backgrounds on a range of central issues facing archaeology today Interspersing detailed investigations of critical theoretical issues with dialogues between the authors the book interrogates the importance of four themes at the heart of much contemporary theoretical debate relations ontology posthumanism and Indigenous paradigms The authors who work in Europe and North America explore how these themes are shaping the ways that archaeologists conduct fieldwork conceptualize the past and engage with the political and ethical challenges that our discipline faces in the twenty first century The unique style of Archaeological Theory in Dialogue switching between detailed arguments and dialogical exchange makes it essential reading for both scholars and students of archaeological theory and those with an interest in the politics and ethics of the past      Experiential Walks for Urban Design Barbara E. A. Piga, Daniel Siret, Jean-Paul Thibaud, 2021-08-05 The edited volume explores the topic of experiential walks which is the practice of multi or mono sensory and in motion immersion into an urban or natural environment The act of walking is hence intended as a process of re discovering reflecting and learning through an embodied experience Specific attention is devoted to the investigation of the ambiance of places and its dynamic atmospheric perception that contribute to generating the social experience This topic is gaining increasing attention and has been studied in several forms in different disciplines to investigate the particular spatial social sensory and atmospheric character of places The book contains chapters by experts in the field and covers both the theory and the practice of innovative methods techniques and technologies It examines experiential walks in the perspective of an interdisciplinary approach to environmental and sensory urban design by organising the contributions according to three specific interrelated focuses namely the exploration and investigation of the multisensory dimension of public spaces the different ways to grasp and communicate the in motion experience through traditional and novel forms of representation and the application of the approach to urban participatory planning and higher education Shedding new light on the topic the book offers both a reference guide for those engaged in applied research and a toolkit for professionals and students

Knowing from the Inside Tim Ingold, 2022-02-24

Knowledge comes from thinking with from and through things not just about them We get to know the world around us from the inside of our being in it Drawing on the fields of anthropology art architecture and education this book addresses what knowing from the inside means for practices of teaching and learning If knowledge is not transmitted ready made independently of its application in the world but grows from the crucible of our engagements with people places and materials then how can there be such a thing as a curriculum What forms could it take And what could it mean to place such disciplines as anthropology art and architecture at the heart of the curriculum rather than as at present on the margins In addressing these questions the fifteen distinguished contributors to this volume challenge mainstream thinking about education and the curriculum and suggest experimental ways to overcome the stultifying effects of current pedagogic practice

The Contested Territory of Architectural Theory Elie G. Haddad, 2022-10-21 This book brings together a diverse group of theoreticians to explore architectural theory as a discipline assessing its condition and relevance to contemporary practice Offering critical assessment in the face of major social and environmental issues of today 17 original contributions address the relevance of architectural theory in the contemporary world from various perspectives including but not limited to politics gender representation race environmental crisis and history The chapters are grouped into two distinct sections the first section explores various historical perspectives on architectural theory mapping theory's historiographical turn and its emergence and decline from the 1960s to the present the second offers alternative visions and new directions for architectural theory incorporating feminist and human rights perspectives and addressing contemporary issues such as Artificial Intelligence and the Age of Acceleration This edited collection features contributions from renowned scholars as well as emergent voices with a Foreword by David Leatherbarrow This book will be of great interest to graduate and upper level students of architecture as well as academics and practicing architects

The Materiality of Architecture Antoine Picon, 2021-01-26 A new paradigm combining architectural tradition with emerging technologies Digital tools have launched architecture into a dizzying new era one in which wood stone metal glass and other traditional materials are augmented by pixels and code In this ambitious exploration an eminent thinker examines what exactly the building blocks of architecture have meant over the centuries and how technology may or may not be changing how we think about them Antoine Picon argues that materiality is not only about matter and that the silence and inscrutability the otherness of raw materials work against humanity's need to live in a meaningful world He describes how people define who they are in part through their specific physical experience of architectural materials and spaces Indeed Picon asserts the entire paradox of the architectural discipline consists in its desire to render matter expressive to human beings Through a retrospective review of canonical moments in Western European architecture Picon offers an original perspective on the ways materiality has varied throughout centuries demonstrating how experiences of the physical world have changed in relation to the evolution of human subjectivity Ultimately Picon concludes that computer based design methods are not an abrupt departure from previous architectural traditions but rather a new way for architects to control material resources The result reinforces the fundamentally humanistic nature of architectural endeavor with an increasing sense of design freedom and a release from material constraint in the digital era

Ambiance, Tourism and the City Iñigo Sánchez-Fuarros, Daniel Paiva, Daniel Malet Calvo, 2023-04-28 Ambiance Tourism and the City considers how tourism and urban development affect the lived ambiances of contemporary cities around the world As most of the existing literature on sensory atmospheres says little about the intersection between tourism and atmospheric production this book affirms the centrality of the notion of ambiance as a mode of inquiry into the making and remaking of urban places for tourist consumption The book takes the reader into the sensory worlds of a traditional Italian marketplace a jungle park in Kuala Lumpur a slum in the Colombian city of Medellín or the sun and sand tourism destinations in Southern Spain among other case studies It offers new insights into the impact of tourism on the urban environment from multidisciplinary perspectives and a wide range of geographical regions across Europe North America Asia and South America Through these contemporary case studies the book further deepens our understanding of the ways in which ambiances and atmospheres pervade the physical regeneration and sensory transformation of contemporary tourist destinations Conversely this book offers insights on the effects of tourism on everyday urban experience By bringing together a diverse group of scholars and case studies to present a global perspective on the atmospheric production of the tourist city this book is to serve as a valuable reference tool for researchers and undergraduate and postgraduate students with an interest in urban ambiances tourism cultural geography and urban planning Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Making, Makers, Makerspaces Janette Hughes, 2022-08-21 This book is about makers and makerspaces in education It furnishes and analyzes case studies from sixty teachers working in twenty different school districts in Ontario Canada Each author provides research and analyzes data about the process of establishing makerspaces and implementing maker pedagogies with students in grades K-8 The first chapter sets the stage for the book describing the theoretical framework and methodology used and offering information on the schools in which the research occurred Subsequent chapters focus on specific topics and individual case studies including assessment pedagogic techniques equity inclusivity and methods of making The book will prove valuable to both researchers and practitioners any educator interested in this developing topic including school leaders school district leaders educational researchers and teacher educators It will also be useful for initial teacher education programs
