

- For legend elements that are direct children of fieldset elements that are themselves direct children of the form element, set the font size to 1.25em, the font family to a font stack including PTSansCaption, Georgia, Times New Roman, Times, and serif, and absolutely position the elements 0.6em from the top. (Hint: Use the selector `form > fieldset > legend`.)
- For the fieldset containing the legend text Check-in date, set the width to 40% and float the element on the left.
- For the fieldset containing the legend text Check-out date, set the width to 40% and float the element on the right.
- For the fieldset containing the legend text Parking, clear floated elements on both the left and right sides.
- For the last fieldset (the one for the submit button), set the padding to 0.5em 0, the bottom margin to 0, and center-align text.

Save your changes to `styles.css`, open `reserve.html` in a browser, then verify that the fieldsets and legends are displayed.

- In `reserve.html`, add three `label` elements to the first fieldset (the one that contains the legend Contact Information), containing the label text Name, Email, and Phone. Add code for a text box within each `label` element, using the relevant input types and appropriate name and id values. Add placeholder text if appropriate. Associate each `label` element with the enclosed text box. Save your changes, then in `styles.css`, above the `/* footer section */` comment, add a comment containing the text field styles, then below the comment create the following style rules:

- For input elements, set padding to 0.2em on all sides and font size to 1em.
- For input elements within the first fieldset, absolutely position the elements 5em from the left.
- For the input elements associated with the label text Name and Email, set the width to 30em.
- For the input element associated with the label text Phone, set the width to 12em.

Policing and Public Management Kevin Morrell, Ben Bradford, 2018-07-17 Policing and Public Management takes a new perspective on the challenges and problems facing the governance of police forces across the UK and the developed world Complementing existing texts in criminology and police studies Morrell and Bradford draw on ideas from the neighbouring fields of public management and virtue ethics to open the field up to a broader audience This forms the basis for an imaginative reframing of policing as something that either enhances or diminishes the public good in society The text focuses on two cross cutting aspects of the relationship between the police and the public public confidence and public order Extending award winning work in public management and drawing on extensive and varied data sources Policing and Public Management offers new ways of seeing the police and of understanding police governance This text will be valuable supplementary reading for students of public management policing and criminology as well as others who want to be better informed about contemporary policing

Access to Justice Ellie Palmer, Tom Cornford, Yseult Marique, Audrey Guinchard, 2016-01-28 Building on a series of ESRC funded seminars this edited collection of expert papers by academics and practitioners is concerned with access to civil and administrative justice in constitutional democracies where for the past decade governments have reassessed their priorities for funding legal services embracing new technologies that reconfigure the delivery and very concept of legal services cutting legal aid budgets and introducing putative cost cutting measures for the administration of courts tribunals and established systems for the delivery of legal advice and assistance Without underplaying the future potential of technological innovation or the need for a fair and rational system for the prioritisation and funding of legal services the book questions whether the absolutist approach to the dictates of austerity and the promise of new technologies that have driven the Coalition Government's policy can be squared with obligations to protect the fundamental right of access to justice in the unwritten constitution of the United Kingdom

European Disintegration? Douglas Webber, 2018-11-20 This new book provides a comprehensive analysis of Europe on the brink of political disintegration Observers of the European Union EU could be forgiven for thinking that it is in a state of permanent crisis The Union has been beset with high levels of Eurozone debt Russian intervention and armed conflict in Ukraine refugees fleeing conflict zones in North Africa and the Middle East and the decision of Britain to leave the European Union This text offers a concise and readable assessment of the dynamics character and consequences of these four crises and the increasingly real possibility of European disintegration High levels of socio economic interdependence and institutionalization have failed to result in an ever closer union and yet the proposed theories of disintegration also fall short Webber instead shows that it is only by looking at the role of the EU's dominant member Germany in each crisis that the potential for an increasingly fragmented Europe becomes clear Until now Germany has been the EU's stabilizing force but this is no longer guaranteed

The fate of the integration process will depend on whether other more inclusive forms of stabilizing leadership may emerge to fill the vacuum created by Berlin's incapacity. This text is the ideal companion for upper undergraduate and postgraduate students of the European Union as part of degrees in politics international relations or European studies or for anyone interested in the crises of the European Union. Nigeria - Politics, Religion, Pentecostal-Charismatic Power and Challenges Akintayo Emmanuel, 2023-10-13 Nigeria presents an enthralling case study for understanding developing archetypes in interreligious encounters in Africa. The global community needs a cultural understanding and sensitivity for productive engagement with the Arab and non Arab Muslim world. The Nigeria religious exigencies provide a requisite intelligence into the challenges facing a global community seeking to foster peace. Without a domain of tolerance love equity and justice Nigeria will continually be immured by pessimism parochialism cynicism and mutual suspicion. Despite being the largest economy in Africa and the most populous Black country Nigeria demonstrates incessantly an uncommon fault line between Christianity and Islam. The significance of this goes beyond the borders of Nigeria but has become a global showcase anywhere the two religions exist contemporaneously. Nigeria is the nexus between west and central Africa. Rooted in the dusty Sahel of the north the savannah plains the rich rainforests of the Atlantic coast the rocky hills of the West and the oil filled swamps of the Delta Nigeria is the beauty sound vision passion and the soul of the African continent. In Nigeria the Nigeria Pentecostal Charismatic Movement possesses a distinctive flair that demands a holistic understanding of the movement's historical cultural fundamental and religious dimensions in a multifarious religious landscape. The disquisition of the movement's political cognizance identity power authority theology popular culture ethics and missiological impact in northern Nigeria presents a fine embroidery of their trials frustrations and challenges but inveterate in faith hope and love that opens up innovative panoramas of peaceful dialogical prospects and coexistence between Christians and Muslims in northern Nigeria. In Nigeria Politics Religion Pentecostal Charismatic Power and Challenges Akintayo Emmanuel reconnoiters the complex missiological hindrances challenging the Nigerian Pentecostal Charismatic Movement. Their contextual missional landslide disheveled with complicated paradoxes in the way the Christian majority have responded to Muslims in northern Nigeria is anatomized. The Nigerian Pentecostal Charismatic Movement's puissance to solve some of Nigeria political ideological cultural and spiritual dimensions of crisis and sectarian violence is achievable if the movement can mitigate her missiological hindrances. The responses of Nigerian Pentecostal Charismatic Movement to Nigeria's socio political and ethno religious complexities can construct a great future for the soul of Nigeria. They do not only have the capacity to provide the Christian alternatives to Nigeria's peculiarities they can also stimulate Nigeria's deification among other nations by continuing to disentangle from unscrupulousness and atrociousness embedded within a reproach and opprobrium to any people. Routledge Handbook of Corruption in Asia Ting Gong, Ian Scott, 2016-11-25 Corruption in Asia ranges from the venal rent seeking of local officials to the million dollar bribes received by corrupt politicians from excessive position related consumption to future job offers in the private sector for compliant public servants from money laundering to white elephant projects that do little more than line the pockets of developers and their political partners The Routledge Handbook of Corruption in Asia addresses the theories issues and trends in corruption and anticorruption reform that have emerged from this diverse experience The book is divided into four major parts corruption and the state corruption and economic development corruption and society and controlling corruption strategies successes and failures Chapters compare and contrast corruption in different social and institutional contexts examine both successful and unsuccessful attempts to control it and consider what lessons can be drawn from these Asian experiences This academically rigorous and insightful book will be of interest to a wide range of students and scholars particularly those of Asian studies politics and sociology
