Monologues In Isizulu:

The Angina Monologues Rosamund Kendal, 2010 The story of three very different women finding courage love and compassion in the most unlikely places this narrative follows medical interns as they work in a rural South African hospital Spoiled Rachel struggles to establish her independence and learns to love across the cultural conservative Seema attempts to end a relationship that has become increasingly abusive and street savvy Nomsa finally accepts a past that she has spent a lifetime denying Coping with rogue snakes gang assassinations and the public s denial of AIDS these women demonstrate what it takes to be a doctor in South Africa The Cambridge History of South African Literature David Attwell, Derek Attridge, 2012-01-12 South Africa s unique history has produced literatures in many languages in both oral and written forms reflecting the diversity in the cultural histories and experiences of its people The Cambridge History offers a comprehensive multi authored history of South African literature in all eleven official languages and more minor ones of the country produced by a team of over forty international experts including contributors from all of the major regions and language groups of South Africa It will provide a complete portrait of South Africa s literary production organised as a chronological history from the oral traditions existing before colonial settlement to the post apartheid revision of the past In a field marked by controversy this volume is more fully representative than any existing account of South Africa s literary history It will make a unique contribution to Commonwealth international and postcolonial studies and serve as a definitive reference work for decades to come The Modernist World Allana Lindgren, Stephen Ross, 2015-06-05 The Modernist World is an accessible yet cutting edge volume which redraws the boundaries and connections among interdisciplinary and transnational modernisms The 61 new essays address literature visual arts theatre dance architecture music film and intellectual currents The book also examines modernist histories and practices around the globe including East and Southeast Asia South Asia Sub Saharan Africa Australia and Oceania Europe Latin America the Middle East and the Arab World as well as the United States and Canada A detailed introduction provides an overview of the scholarly terrain and highlights different themes and concerns that emerge in the volume The Modernist World is essential reading for those new to the subject as well as more advanced scholars in the area offering clear introductions alongside new and refreshing insights Object Medleys Daisy Pillay, Kathleen Pithouse-Morgan, Inbanathan Naicker, 2017-11-13 How do we get at the meanings of everyday and not so everyday objects and how might these meanings enrich educational research The study of objects is well established in fields such as archaeology art history communications fine arts museum studies and sociology but is still developing in education Object Medleys Interpretive Possibilities for Educational Research brings together 37 educational researchers from wide ranging contexts and multiple knowledge fields to a dialogic space in which subjects and objects living and nonliving entangle as medleys to open up understandings of connections made with between and through objects Object Medleys offers diverse innovative modes and lenses for representing interpreting and theorising object studies The book is distinctive within scholarship on object inquiry in that much of the research has been conducted within Southern African educational contexts This is complemented by contributions from scholars based in Canada and the United Kingdom The original research represented in each peer reviewed chapter expands academic conversations about what counts as data and analysis in educational research Overall Object Medleys illuminates the applied and theoretical usefulness of objects in response to pressing educational and societal questions Object Medleys is a rich and fascinating exploration of new possibilities with potential for research teaching and learning that seems almost unlimited This book is a rich assembly of affordances for exploring and widening the role of objects in educational research It relocates attention from language and text towards embodied and material storytelling practices where new and marginalised ways of expression can find their ways into classrooms thereby opening completely new avenues of teaching and learning Kenneth M lbjerg J rgensen Professor Aalborg University Denmark In a time when materiality is being brought at the centre of critical inquiry in the social sciences and humanities this edited collection offers unique insights into the relationship between objects subjectivities and learning Beautifully written and cogently argued the book breaks new ground by casting a critical spotlight on artefacts that might appear mundane at first sight but on closer inspection reveal complex patterns of educational potential Tommaso M Milani Associate Professor University of the Witwatersrand Johannesburg South Africa Language Narratives and Shifting Multilingual Pedagogies Belinda Mendelowitz, Ana Ferreira, Kerry Dixon, 2022-12-15 Winner of the UKLA Academic Book Award 2024 This book challenges monoglossic ideologies traditional language pedagogies and dominant forms of knowledge construction by foregrounding multilingual and multicultural students language narratives repertoires and identities The research is based on a sixteen year longitudinal study of a sociolinguistics course at an English language university and the language narratives produced by the first year education students The study was borne out of a need to create a critically inclusive course that would engage a cohort of students from socially and linguistically diverse backgrounds in contemporary South Africa Drawing on data from over 5 000 students who have journeyed through this course this book shows how a narrative heteroglossic pedagogy harnesses students multilingual strengths A close analysis reveals complex identity work by students located in the Global South The authors argue that decolonising language education is about reconceptualising language reconfiguring what knowledges are valued in the classroom and reshaping pedagogy Digital Shakespeares from the Global South Amrita Sen, 2022-11-08 Digital Shakespeares from the Global South re directs current conversations on digital appropriations of Shakespeare away from its Anglo American bias The individual essays examine digital Shakespeares from South Africa India and Latin America addressing questions of accessibility and the digital divide This book will be of interest to students and academics working on Shakespeare adaptation studies digital humanities and media studies Included in this volume the chapter on Finding and Accessing Shakespeare Scholarship in the Global South Digital Research and Bibliography by Heidi Craig and Laura Estill is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International

E. Nxumalo, Dumisile Mkhize, Dumisile N. Mkhize, 2005 Held Up Christopher Radmann, 2012-07-19 How far do you go to rescue your child Paul van Niekirk a successful white South African is held up at gun point when driving his new BMW He's dragged out and his abductor drives off in his car It's an everyday car jacking Except his nine month old daughter is in the back seat As a pacifist Paul is reluctant to carry a gun but he descends into the heart of darkness of his country determined to find his child He uncovers a criminal gang involved in people trafficking and discovers in himself a capacity for violence When the trail goes cold he is on the verge of losing everything but finds redemption in the most unlikely circumstances Moving from the enclaves of Johannesburg's northern suburbs to the throbbing heart of Soweto's informal settlements Paul is forced to confront the changing political and social landscape of the new South Africa questioning his own values as his perfect life crumbles around him Changing Men in Southern Africa Robert Morrell, 2001-08-18 Despite claims that men are in crisis the domestic and public realms of Southern Africa are still dominated by men This examination of modern men aims to show that the power of man is not a fixed concept and that it is not true that all men share the spoils of dominance
