anthropology at the end of the eighteenth century and ongoing philosophical issues in the twentieth century Specifically author Jerome Carroll argues that late eighteenth century anthropology diverges pointedly from traditional foundational approaches to philosophy for instance rejecting philosophy's quest for absolute foundations for knowledge or a priori categories and turning to a more descriptive account of man's being in the world Notably by drawing on the epistemological ontological and methodological aspects and implications of anthropological holism this book reads the philosophical significance of classical twentieth century anthropology through the lens of eighteenth century writings on anthropology

Phenomenal Blackness Mark Christian Thompson, 2022-01-21 This unorthodox account of 1960s Black thought rigorously details the field's debts to German critical theory and explores a forgotten tradition of Black singularity Phenomenal Blackness examines the changing interdisciplinary investments of key mid century Black writers and thinkers including the growing interest in German philosophy and critical theory Mark Christian Thompson analyzes this shift in intellectual focus across the post war decades placing Black Power thought in a philosophical context Prior to the 1960s sociologically oriented thinkers such as W E B Du Bois had understood Blackness as a singular set of socio historical characteristics In contrast writers such as Amiri Baraka James Baldwin Angela Y Davis Eldridge Cleaver and Malcolm X were drawn to notions of an African essence an ontology of Black being With these perspectives literary language came to be seen as the primary social expression of Blackness For this new way of thinking the works of philosophers such as Adorno Habermas and Marcuse were a vital resource allowing for continued cultural materialist analysis while accommodating the hermeneutical aspects of Black religious thought Thompson argues that these efforts to reimagine Black singularity led to a phenomenological understanding of Blackness a Black aesthetic dimension wherein aspirational models for Black liberation might emerge      From Poverty to Well-Being and Human Flourishing (Volume 2) Julio Boltvinik, 2025-05-20 Following the highly respected first volume this book continues to provide a holistic view of Julio Boltvinik's vast and important work on poverty conceptualisation and measurement. While the previous book introduced the author's widely adopted Integrated Poverty Measurement Method (IPMM), this new volume outlines his Marxian approach to poverty and human flourishing, focusing on what he conceptualises as human poverty. Bringing together 20 years of research, this interdisciplinary book provides an alternative to Sen's Capability approach and details its internal consistency, solid foundations, and promising perspectives for applicability.

Person and Value Grzegorz Ignatik, 2021-04-30 Person and Value Karol Wojtyła's Personalistic and Normative Theory of Man, Morality, and Love discusses the central themes of Karol Wojtyła's personalistic teaching in a concise yet comprehensive manner. Grzegorz Ignatik presents a philosophical understanding of the human person and human action that conforms with the phenomenological and metaphysical methodologies used by Wojtyła himself. This book pays special attention to Wojtyła's phenomenological insights concerning the significance of value for human life. Ignatik's reflections are based on his extensive research of original texts published and yet unpublished, written by Karol Wojtyła in his original tongue, Polish. By returning to and rediscovering the original sources, Person and Value provides a fresh and profound engagement with the anthropological and ethical thought of the future Pope John Paul II. Written for all who wish to encounter one of the most illustrious minds of the twentieth century, this book will be an indispensable key to reading his works.

Nonlinear Pedagogy and the Athletic Skills Model James Rudd, Ian Renshaw, Geert Savelsbergh, Jia Yi Chow, Will Roberts, Daniel Newcombe, Keith Davids, 2021-06-27 This book offers an ecological conceptualisation of physical literacy. Re-embracing our ancestry as hunter-gatherers, we gain a new appreciation and understanding of the importance of play, not only in terms of how children learn but also in showing us as educators how we can lay the foundations for lifelong physical activity. The concept of physical literacy has been recognised and understood throughout history by different communities across the globe. Today, as governments grapple with the multiple challenges of urban life in the 21st century, we can learn from our forebears how to put play at the centre of children's learning in order to build a more enduring, physically active society. This book examines contemporary pedagogical approaches such as constraints-led teaching, nonlinear pedagogy, and the athletic skills model, which are underpinned by the theoretical framework of Ecological Dynamics. It is suggested that through careful design, these models aimed at children as well as young athletes can i) encourage play and facilitate physical activity and motor learning in children of different ages, providing them with the foundational skills needed for leading active lives, and ii) develop young athletes in elite sports programmes in an ethical, enriching, and supportive manner. Through this text, scientists, academics, and practitioners in the sub-disciplines of motor learning and motor development, physical education, sports pedagogy, and physical activity and exercise domains will better understand how to design programmes that encourage play and thereby develop the movement skills, self-regulating capacities, motivation, and proficiency of people so that they can move skilfully effectively and efficiently while negotiating changes throughout the human lifespan

PREHISTORY OF THE OREGON COAST R Lee Lyman, 2009-08-15 This book is the first synthesis of the prehistory of the coast of Oregon It analyzes the artifacts and mammalian faunal remains of three representative sites on the coast A model of the evolution of cultural adaptational strategies is presented and tested from which it creates a model of coastal cultural development On a methodological level the volume examines the overriding importance and effects of various sampling techniques

Constitutional Culture, Independence, and Rights Javier Garcia Oliva, Helen Hall, 2023-05-26 In Constitutional Culture Independence and Rights Javier Garc a Oliva and Helen Hall coin the term constitutional culture to encapsulate the collective rules and expectations that govern the collective life within a jurisdiction Significantly these shared norms have both legal and social elements including matters as diverse as standards of parenting the modus operandi of police officers and taboos around sexuality Using Quebec Scotland and Catalonia as case studies the book delves into what these constitutional battles mean for the rights identity and needs of everyday people and it powerfully demonstrates why the hypothetical future independence of these regions would have far reaching practical consequences beyond the realm of political structures and academic theory The book does not present a magic bullet to resolve debates around independence this is not its purpose and the text in fact demonstrates why there is no objectively optimal approach in any or all contexts Instead it seeks to shed light on aspects of these situations often overlooked in discussions around the fate of nations and it addresses what the consequences of constitutional paradigm shifts might be for individuals Constitutional culture is a complex web of interconnected understandings and behaviours and the vibrations from shaking or cutting a fundamental strand will be felt throughout the structure

Singing Out Heather MacLachlan, 2020-12-01 Can you change the world through song This appealing idea has long been the professed aim of singers who are part of choruses affiliated with the Gay and Lesbian Association of Choruses GALA Theses choruses first emerged in the 1970s and grew out of a very American tradition of often gender segregated choral singing that explicitly presents itself as a community based activity By taking a close look at these choruses and their mission Heather MacLachlan unpacks the fascinating historical and cultural dynamics behind groups that seek to change society for the better by encouraging acceptance of LGBT identified people and promoting diversity more generally She characterizes their mission as integrationist rather than liberationist and zeroes in on the inherent tension between GALA s progressive social goals and the fact that the music most often performed by GALA groups is deeply rooted in a fairly narrowly conceived tradition of art music that identifies as white Euro centric and middle class and that much of the membership identifies as white and middle class as well Pundits often wax eloquent about the power of music asserting that it can in some positive way change the world Such statements often rest on an unexamined claim that music can and does foster social justice Singing Out GALA Choruses and Social Change tackles the premise underlying such claims analyzing groups of amateur singers who are explicitly committed to an agenda of social justice STRUCTURE

AND CHOICE Chen Binggong,2021-04-05 This book employs the methods of philosophical anthropology to examine the question of what the noumenon of human life is which has been debated for thousands of years This work elaborates upon the noumenon of human life that is man s structure and choice The noumenon of human life differs essentially from the animals in bringing about the unity of structure and choice The noumenon of human life or rather man s structure and choice provides the motive force for the survival and development of individuals and groups families organizations and states as well as the basic ways in which human values can be possible of realization It is only through the instrumentality of man s structure and choice that humans can attain their goals and grasp the laws of development and change of things In passing criticism upon structuralism and existentialism the author tries to reconstruct the ontology of human life whereby his theory provides an ontological foundation for the humanities and social sciences a theoretical framework for an idealistic anthropological commitment to self transcendence a scientific philosophy of life for us and a good deal of enlightenment about many theoretical prerequisites Giving Is a Lifestyle Pasquale De Marco,2025-04-14
