Viktor Skyrman, 2024-03-01 Financialization the increasing influence of financial markets actors practices and measurements in political economic and social life continues to draw attention from scholars from diverse academic fields Contributing to the literatures on household financialization financial market institutionalization and the financialization of nature this dissertation explores the underlying factors that enabled and facilitated the financialization of Sweden's growth model Drawing from the Regulation Approach and heterodox economics it analyzes how covered bonds an overlooked topic in financialization studies have contributed to de-risking European financial markets decelerated the spread of securitization and enabled an increase in mortgage lending house price inflation and household indebtedness especially in Sweden Zooming in on the Nordic forest industry the dissertation furthermore elaborates on the differential impact of financialization on non-financial firms Amid the entrance of shareholder value ideology it shows how innovation was undermined through R D downsizing while dividends have been increased to shareholders at labor's expense Meanwhile profitability has been supported by appreciating forest assets that are increasingly treated as a new financial asset class by the financial sector In addition providing data on welfare retrenchment financialization indicators and corporate governance while applying a Gramscian Regulation Approach the dissertation analyzes the structural pressures and the formation of a particular neoliberal hegemony that have shaped the financialization of Sweden's previously universal welfare sector Whereas financial markets have been seen as crucial for growth and employment the dissertation furthermore documents how financial deepening has mainly resulted in increased mortgage lending while public sector debt has increasingly been perceived as economically detrimental by policymakers The dissertation finalizes with some stylized facts of financialization in small Western economies and how they relate to Sweden

Recent Researches in Engineering Sciences

Hasan Koten, 2021-05-15 Recent Researches in Engineering Sciences The Archaeology of Slavery in Early Medieval Northern Europe Felix Biermann, Marek Jankowiak, 2021-11-18 This volume is the first comprehensive study of the material imprint of slavery in early medieval Europe While written sources attest to the ubiquity of slavery and slave trade in early medieval British Isles Scandinavia and Slavic lands it is still difficult to find material traces of this reality other than the hundreds of thousands of Islamic coins paid in exchange for the northern European slaves This volume offers the first structured reflection on how to bridge this gap It reviews the types of material evidence that can be associated with the institution of slavery and the slave trade in early medieval northern Europe from individual objects such as e.g. shackles to more comprehensive landscape approaches The book is divided into four sections The first presents the analytical tools developed in Africa and prehistoric Europe to identify and describe social phenomena associated with slavery and the slave trade The following three sections review the three main cultural zones of early medieval northern Europe the British Isles Scandinavia and Slavic central Europe The contributions offer methodological reflections on the concept of the archaeology of slavery They emphasize that the material record by its nature admits multiple interpretations More broadly this book comes at a time when the history of slavery is being integrated into academic syllabi in most western countries The collection of studies contributes to a more nuanced perspective on this important and controversial topic This volume appeals to multiple audiences interested in comparative and global studies of slavery and will constitute the point of reference for future debates

Vocational Education in the Nordic Countries Svein Michelsen, Marja-Leena Stenström, 2018-05-15 Vocational Education in the Nordic Countries The Historical Evolution is the first of two books that disseminate new and systematic knowledge on the strengths and weaknesses of the different models of vocational education and training VET in four Nordic countries Vocational education in Europe has resisted standardisation to a higher degree than other fields of education and during the last decade there has been a growth in international comparative VET research While the Nordic countries provide an ideal case for comparative education studies the literature in English on the Nordic VET systems is at present very limited This first book provides thorough examinations of VET in Sweden Denmark Norway and Finland over 150 years Each section examines the historical evolution of VET at upper secondary level in one of the four Nordic countries Contributors also analyse how each country has tried to reform their respective VET systems and compare the paths which each nation has taken The book explores what can be learned from the diversity of the VET systems in the Nordic countries which otherwise have many similarities and share a common heritage in education policy This volume will help strengthen the knowledge base required for transnational policy learning and for developing vocational education internationally for the future It will be of interest to researchers academics and postgraduate students involved in the study of vocational education educational studies and educational policy education planners and teachers educators

Nordic Cooperation Johan Strang, 2015-07-16 The recent crises in global economy and in European integration have caused a considerable revival of interest in the Nordic Welfare Model However less attention has been given to the ways in which the nations that form Scandinavia or Norden are connected through various forms of inter and transnational cooperation With contributions from a team of experts in the field this volume analyses Nordic cooperation in a European perspective and argues that this special form of transnational cooperation has been crucial in the development of the Nordic Welfare Model In addition it also contends that the Nordic model of transnational cooperation is a relevant case study when pondering the present problems of European integration This text will be of key interest to students researchers and policy makers studying the Nordic Model and transnational cooperation and more generally to those interested in European studies Scandinavian studies welfare studies international
