Etudes Philosophiques Gambara:

Etudes philosophiques Honoré de Balzac, 1845 In the Court of the Pear King Sandy Petrey, 2018-07-05 The period 1830 1832 witnessed a remarkable series of cultural and political milestones in France In 1830 a revolution overturned one monarchy only to replace it with another In 1831 Charles Philippon's caricature of Louis Philippe the new monarch as a pear achieved extraordinary popularity Drawn on walls from one end of France to another the pear caricature became a national obsession In that same year George Sand moved from the provinces to Paris and challenged gender stereotypes by adopting men's clothes and writing fiction in a man's voice During 1830 1832 Stendhal and Balzac developed the techniques of the realist novel that still dominate much of the world's fiction Sandy Petrey explores the factors accounting for such consequential innovations in so short a time so restricted a space In Petrey's view these disparate events betoken a common recognition of society's capacity to make and unmake what it recognizes as real Petrey's first two chapters explore the popularity of the pear caricature The remaining chapters focus on Balzac Stendhal and Sand addressing these writers' concern with society's power to define and transform the identity of its members For Petrey their work continually recalls the hybrid character of Philippon's pear both totally unlike the king and the king's spitting image While the French government declared the July Revolution a nonevent and the July Monarchy an incontrovertible fact French fiction concentrated on society's power to declare an individual a nonperson or to make presence out of absence plenitude out of emptiness The Basic Principle of Balzac's "Etudes Philosophiques".
