

Eulogy for Mom

Today we honor the life of my mom. She was a truly amazing woman who was the kindest and most loving person in the world.

I can honestly say she was my best friend and to try and do justice right her in this short eulogy will be impossible. She dedicated her life to family and making sure we were supported in whatever we did and that we never felt anything other than loved.

She sacrificed more than I'll ever know and even when she was putting everyone else before herself she still made time to listen to all our problems.

Everyone who was fortunate enough to know her was in awe of everything she achieved. And the warmth and happiness she brought to us cannot be overstated.

I loved her more than words could possibly say and she will live on in my heart forever more

Eulogies to Die For Patricia Dignan,2008-08-26 When death strikes words often fail us This book helps honor ones for whom the alphabet seems inadequate The first eulogy the author ever heard was for her aunt when she was 12 appalled that the minister knew so little about the deceased he never once mentioned her by name she became determined that such thoughtlessness and lack of recognition would never happen to anyone she loved in the future Consequently she wrote eulogies for her infant son her mother grandmother mother in law father and various friends and relatives upon their deaths In this book she has made it possible to mix and match by classifying the entries alphabetically and by occupation or title Blending humor scripture and classic literature this book provides a full eulogy or seeds for thought so readers can create their own
