Handbook on Teaching Social Issues published in 1996 During the last few years social studies teachers have been confronted by student inquiries on a plethora of historical and contemporary issues that implores for the implementation of an interdisciplinary approach to the teaching of anthropology economics geography government history sociology and psychology in order for students to make sense of the world around them and develop their own voices This demands a student centered focus in the classroom where problematic questions must be addressed and investigated in depth in order to increase social understanding and active participation toward social progress This volume provides crucial upgrades to the original handbook including a greater emphasis on teaching issues in the elementary grades the inclusion of issues pertaining to human rights genocide and sustainability to be addressed in the secondary grades and addressing issues related to disabilities Mark Previte Associate Professor of Secondary Education University of Pittsburgh Johnstown Chair NCSS Issues Centered Education Community Teachers' Journal ,1961 The Reference Catalogue of Current Literature ,1913 Human Rights in Russia Jonathan Weiler,2004 Weiler argues that the processes associated with political and economic reform have in important instances diminished human rights in post Soviet Russia Military Training and Children in Armed Conflict Jenny Kuper,2005-01-01 Drugs, Oil, and War Peter Dale Scott,2004-01-01 Peter Dale Scott s brilliantly researched tour de force illuminates the underlying forces that drive U S global policy from Vietnam to Colombia and now to Afghanistan and Iraq He brings to light the intertwined patterns of drugs oil politics and intelligence networks that have been so central to the larger workings of U S intervention and escalation in Third World countries through alliances with drug trafficking proxies This strategy was originally developed in the late 1940s to contain communist China it has since been used to secure control over foreign petroleum resources The result has been a staggering increase in the global drug traffic and the mafias associated with it_a problem that will worsen until there is a change in policy Scott argues that covert operations almost always outlast the specific purpose for which they were designed Instead they grow and become part of a hostile constellation of forces The author terms this phenomenon parapolitics_the exercise of power by covert means_which tends to metastasize into deep politics_the interplay of unacknowledged forces that spin out of the control of the original policy initiators We must recognize that U S influence is grounded not just in military and economic superiority Scott contends but also in so called soft power We need a soft politics of persuasion and nonviolence especially as America is embroiled in yet another disastrous intervention this time in Iraq The Latest and Best of TESS ,1991 A Micro-Sociology of Violence Jutta Bakonyi,Berit Bliesemann de Guevara,2014-06-11 This book aims at a deeper understanding of social processes dynamics and institutions shaping collective violence It argues that violence is a social practice that adheres to social logics and in its collective form appears as recurrent patterns In search of characteristics mechanisms and logics of violence contributions deliver ethnographic descriptions of different forms of collective violence and contextualize these phenomena within broader spatial and temporal structures The studies show that collective violence at least if it is sustained over a certain period of time aims at organization and therefore develops constitutive and integrative mechanisms Practices of social mobilization of people and economic resources their integration in functional structures and the justification or legitimization of these structures sooner or later lead to the establishment of new forms of violent orders be it at the margins of or beyond the state Cases discussed include riots in Gujarat India mass violence in Somalia social orders of violence and non violence in Colombia humanitarian camps in Uganda trophy taking in North America and violent livestock raiding in Kenya This book was originally published as a special issue of Civil Wars The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1923 Human Rights Discourse in a Global Network Lena

Khor,2016-05-13 In her innovative study of human rights discourse Lena Khor takes up the prevailing concern by scholars who charge that the globalization of human rights discourse is becoming yet another form of cultural legal and political imperialism imposed from above by an international human rights regime based in the Global North To counter these charges she argues for a paradigmatic shift away from human rights as a hegemonic immutable and ill defined entity toward one that recognizes human rights as a social construct comprised of language and of language use She proposes a new theoretical framework based on a global discourse network of human rights supporting her model with case studies that examine the words and actions of witnesses to genocide Paul Rusesabagina and humanitarian organizations Doctors Without Borders She also analyzes the language of texts such as Michael Ondaatje s Anil s Ghost Khor s idea of a globally networked structure of human rights discourse enables actors textual and human who tap into or are linked into this rapidly globalizing system of networks to increase their power as speaking subjects and in so doing to influence the range of acceptable meanings and practices of human rights in the cultural sphere Khor s book is a unique and important contribution to the study of human rights in the humanities that revitalizes viable notions of agency and liberatory network power in fields that have been dominated by negative visions of human capacity and moral action CUSTOM: Grand Canyon University and processes influence for better or worse local experiences and understandings of justice The result is a timely and original addition to scholarship on a topic of major scholarly and pragmatic interest Contributors Felicitas Becker Jonathon L Earle Patrick Hoenig Stacey Hynd Fred Nyongesa Ikanda Ngeyi Ruth Kanyongolo Anna Macdonald Bernadette Malunga Alan Msosa Benson A Mulemi Holly Porter Duncan Scott Olaf Zenker      Global Political Economy and New World Disorder Sean Creaven, 2025-04-24 Drawing upon a range of resources of critique including critical realist social theory realist international relations theory the sociology of globalization the Marxist critique of imperialism and dependency theory this book is an essential contribution to the critical understanding of nationalism and imperialism in the global age It conducts a sustained and in depth analysis of the relations between the asymmetry in the distribution of economic resources and powers of command and the recent play of political events involving imperialist wars including the Russo Ukrainian and Israeli Hamas wars Crucially the author argues that establishing these connections requires theorizing political economy in the so called global age as comprised of neoimperial and neoliberal orders As such the book offers a new interpretation of the relations between neoliberalism and neoimperialism and between modes of organizing social relations and resulting global disorders and instabilities This will therefore be of interest to researchers scholars and students working at the intersection of global political economy international relations and the sociology of globalization      The English Catalogue of Books ...
