The Breakthrough Years offers readers a paradigm shifting comprehensive understanding of adolescence Just wait until they're a teenager Many parents of newborns have heard this warning about the stressful phase that's to come But what if it doesn't have to be that way Child development expert Ellen Galinsky challenges widely held assumptions about adolescents and offers new ways for parents and others to better understand and interact with them in a way that helps them thrive By combining the latest research on cognitive neuroscience with an unprecedented and extensive set of studies of young people nine through nineteen and their families Galinsky reveals among other things that adolescents don't want to separate completely from their parents but seek a different type of relationship that they want to be helpers rather than be helped and that social media can become a positive influence for teens Galinsky's Shared Solutions framework and Possibilities Mindset show you how to turn daily conflicts into opportunities for problem solving where both teens and parents feel listened to and respected how to encourage positive risk taking in your child like standing up for themselves making new friends and helping their communities and how to promote five essential executive function based skills that can help them succeed now and in the future The Breakthrough Years recasts adolescence as a time of possibility for teens and adults offering breakthrough opportunities for connection

The Global Community Yearbook of International Law and Jurisprudence 2018 Giuliana Ziccardi Capaldo, 2019-08-16 The Global Community Yearbook is a one stop resource for all researchers studying international law generally or international tribunals specifically The Yearbook has established itself as an authoritative source of reference on global legal issues and international jurisprudence It includes analysis of the most significant global trends in a way that allows readers to monitor the development of the global legal order from several perspectives The Global Community Yearbook publishes annually in a volume of carefully chosen primary source material and corresponding expert commentary The general editor Professor Giuliana Ziccardi Capaldo employs her vast expertise in international law to select excerpts from important court opinions and to choose experts from around the world to contribute essay guides which illuminate those cases Although the main focus is recent case law from the major international tribunals and regional courts the first four parts of each year's edition features expert articles by renowned scholars who address broader themes in current and future developments in international law and global policy themes that appear throughout the case law of the many courts covered by the series as a whole The Global Community Yearbook has thus become not just an indispensable window to recent jurisprudence the series now also serves to prepare researchers for the issues facing emerging global law The 2018 edition both updates readers on the important work of long standing international tribunals and introduces readers to more novel topics in international law The Yearbook continues to provide expert coverage of the Court of Justice of the European Union and diverse tribunals from the International Court of Justice ICJ to criminal tribunals such as the International Criminal Court ICC and the Tribunals for the Former Yugoslavia and Rwanda to economically based tribunals such as ICSID and the WTO Dispute Resolution panel This edition contains original research articles on the development and analysis of the concept of global law and the views of the global law theorists such as whether the Paris Declaration of 2017 and the Oslo Recommendation of 2018 deals with enhancing their institutions legitimacy how to reconcile human rights trade law intellectual property investment and health law with the WTO dispute settlement panel upholding Australia's tobacco plain packaging measure Israel's acceptance of Palestinian statehood contingent upon prior Palestinian demilitarization is potentially contrary to pertinent international law and a proposal to strengthen cooperation between the ECJ and National Courts in light of the failure of the dialogue between the ECJ and the Italian Constitutional Court on the interpretation of Article 325 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union The Yearbook provides students scholars and practitioners alike a valuable combination of expert discussion and direct quotes from the court opinions to which that discussion relates as well as an annual overview of the process of cross fertilization between international courts and tribunals The Yearbook provides students scholars and practitioners alike a valuable combination of expert discussion and direct quotes from the court opinions to which that discussion relates as well as an annual overview of the process of cross fertilization between international courts and tribunals and a section focusing on the thought of leading international law scholars on the subject of the globalization This publication can also be purchased on a standing order basis Country
