Ib Estonian Paper 1 2013:

Instruments of Land Policy Jean-David Gerber, Thomas Hartmann, Andreas Hengstermann, 2018-01-17 In dealing with scarce land planners often need to interact with and sometimes confront property right holders to address complex property rights situations To reinforce their position in situations of rivalrous land uses planners can strategically use and combine different policy instruments in addition to standard land use plans Effectively steering spatial development requires a keen understanding of these instruments of land policy This book not only presents how such instruments function it additionally examines how public authorities strategically manage the scarcity of land either increasing or decreasing it to promote a more sparing use of resources It presents 13 instruments of land policy in specific national contexts and discusses them from the perspectives of other countries Through the use of concrete examples the book reveals how instruments of land policy are used strategically in different policy contexts

Small States and International Security Clive Archer, Alyson J.K. Bailes, Anders Wivel, 2014-03-14 This book explains what small states are and explores their current security challenges in general terms and through specific examples It reflects the shift from traditional security definitions emphasizing defence and armaments to new security concerns such as economic societal and environmental security where institutional cooperation looms larger These complex issues linked with traditional power relations and new types of actors need to be tackled with due regard to democracy and good governance Key policy challenges for small states are examined and applied in the regional case studies The book deals mainly with the current experience and recent past of such states but also offers insights for their future policies Although many of the states covered are European the study also includes African Caribbean and Asian small states Their particular interest and relevance is outlined as is the connection between their security challenges and their smallness Policy lessons for other states are then sought The book is the first in depth multi continent study of security as an aspect of small state governance today It is novel in placing the security dilemmas of small states in the context of wider ideas on international and institutional change and in dealing with non European states and regions

While histories of Czech cinema often highlight the quality of Czechoslovak New Wave films made in the 1960s post socialist Czech cinema receives little attention Through a methodology of historical reception Stories between Tears and Laughter explores how attitudes towards post socialist Czech cinema have shifted but still viewed it as popular cinema By analysing publicity materials reviews and articles Richard Vojvoda offers a new perspective on the notions of cultural value and quality that have been shaping the history of post socialist Czech cinema International Handbook of Semiotics Peter Pericles Trifonas,2015-05-11

This book provides an extensive overview and analysis of current work on semiotics that is being pursued globally in the areas of literature the visual arts cultural studies media the humanities natural sciences and social sciences Semiotics also known as structuralism is one of the major theoretical movements of the 20th century and its influence as a way to conduct analyses of cultural products and human practices has been immense This is a comprehensive volume that brings together many otherwise fragmented academic disciplines and currents uniting them in the framework of semiotics Addressing a longstanding need it provides a global perspective on recent and ongoing semiotic research across a broad range of disciplines The handbook is intended for all researchers interested in applying semiotics as a critical lens for inquiry across diverse disciplines Soviet Postcolonial Studies Epp Annus,2017-09-05

studies is a well established academic field rich in theory but it is based mostly on postcolonial experiences in former West European colonial empires This book takes a different approach considering postcolonial theory in relation to the former Soviet bloc It both applies existing postcolonial theory to this different setting and also uses the experiences of former Soviet bloc countries to refine and advance theory Drawing on a wide range of sources and presenting insights and material of relevance to scholars in a wide range of subjects the book explores topics such as Soviet colonality as co constituted with Soviet modernity the affective structure of identity creation in national and imperial subjects and the way in which cultural imaginaries and everyday materialities were formative of Soviet everyday experience The Soviet Past in the

Post-Socialist Present Melanie Ilic,Dalia Leinarte,2015-07-03 This collection examines practical and ethical issues inherent in the application of oral history and memory studies to research about the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe since the collapse of the Soviet bloc Case studies highlight the importance of ethical good practice including the reflexive interrogation of the interviewer and researcher and aspects of gender and national identity Researchers use oral history to analyze present day recollections of the Soviet past thereby extending our understanding beyond archival records official rhetoric and popular mythology Oral history explores individual life stories but this has sometimes resulted in rather incomplete incoherent inconsistent or illogical narratives Oral history therefore presents the researcher with a number of methodological and ethical dilemmas including the interpretation of silence in biographical accounts This collection links the discussion of oral history ethics with that of memory studies Memories are shaped by factors that may be simultaneously both consecutive and disrupted In written accounts and responses to interview questions respondents sometimes display nostalgia for the Soviet past or conversely may seek to de mythologize the realities of Soviet rule Case studies explore what to do when interview subjects and memoirists consciously sub consciously or unconsciously forget aspects of their own past or themselves seek to take control of the research process Identity and Nation Building in Everyday Post-Socialist Life

Abel Polese,Jeremy Morris,Emilia Pawłusz,Oleksandra Seliverstova,2017-07-31 This book explores the function of the everyday in the formation consolidation and performance of national sub national and local identities in the former socialist region Based on extensive original research including fieldwork the book demonstrates how the study of everyday and mundane practices is a meaningful and useful way of understanding the socio political processes of identity formation both at the top and bottom level of a state The book covers a wide range of countries including the Baltic States Ukraine Russia the Caucasus and Central Asia and considers everyday banal practices including those related to consumption kinship embodiment mobility music and the use of objects and artifacts Overall the book draws on and contributes to theory and shows how the process of nation building is not just undertaken by formal actors such as the state its institutions and political elites 'The Politics' and 'The Political' of the Eastern Partnership Initiative Elena Korosteleva,Igor

Merheim-Eyre,Eske Van Gils,2019-10-23 The Special Issue consolidates new approaches to the study of the EU s role in the eastern neighbourhood and beyond informed by post structuralist traditions in international relations More specifically by revisiting the European Neighbourhood Policy s agenda from the conceptual perspective of the political and redefining the notions of othering differentiation and normalisation this volume renders a new and much needed theoretical and empirical outlook onto the policy developments and their practices By unpacking and connecting security regional institutional normative and sector thematic policy dimensions the book seeks to re politicise the agenda and re focus policy revision on understanding the fundamentals of power relations when applied to the EU external relations In light of the compounding crises external and internal one can no longer afford to simply tinker around the edges of the policy content and instruments A more radical theoretical undertaking is overdue to re shape re define and re centre the EU relations with the eastern region especially put in the context of the new EU s Global Security Strategy and the new aspirations for the 2017 European Neighbourhood summit The chapters originally published as a special issue in East European Politics Comparative and Decolonial Studies in Philosophy of Education David G. Hebert, 2023-03-18 This book introduces the educational philosophies of notable African and Asian thinkers who tend to be little recognized in Europe and North America It offers specific resources for diversification of higher education curricula The book expands the philosophy of education in clear language to include ideas of major non western educational thinkers who are little discussed in previous publications It includes critical analysis of non western concepts and consideration of their relevance to schools worldwide The book features discussions of how the work of Tagore and postcolonial thinkers offers diverse visions that increasingly inspire a decolonizing approach to education This book offers a unique emphasis on how a decolonized philosophy of education can especially enable a rethinking of approaches to education in arts and humanities subjects

Borders in the Baltic Sea Region Andrey Makarychev, Alexandra Yatsyk, 2016-11-09 This book focuses on the recent political trajectories within the Baltic Sea Region from one of the success stories of regionalism in Europe to a potential area of military confrontation between Russia and NATO The authors closely examine the following issues new security challenges for the region stemming from Russia s staunch anti EU and anti NATO policies institutions and practices of multi level governance in the region and different cultural strategies that regional actors employ The common threads of this innovative volume are issues of changing borders and boundaries in the region and logics of inclusion and exclusion that shape its political contours From diverse disciplinary and methodological positions the authors explain policies of specific Baltic Sea states as well as structural matters that make them a region

Stalin's Final Films Claire Knight, 2024-07-15 Stalin s Final Films explores a neglected period in the history of Soviet cinema breathing new life into a body of films long considered moribund as the pinnacle of Stalinism While film censorship reached its apogee in this period and fewer films were made film attendance also peaked as Soviet audiences voted with their seats and distinguished a clearly popular postwar cinema Claire Knight examines the tensions between official ideology and audience engagement and between education and entertainment inherent in these popular films as well as the financial considerations that shaped and constrained them She explores how the Soviet regime used films to address the major challenges faced by the USSR after the Great Patriotic War World War II showing how war dramas spy thrillers Stalin epics and rural comedies alike were mobilized to consolidate an official narrative of the war reestablish Stalinist orthodoxy and dramatize the rebuilding of socialist society Yet Knight also highlights how these same films were used by filmmakers more experimentally exploring a diverse range of responses to the ideological crisis that lay at the heart of Soviet postwar culture as a victorious people were denied the fruits of their sacrificial labor After the war new heroes were demanded by both the regime and Soviet audiences and filmmakers sought to provide them with at times surprising results Stalin's Final Films mines Soviet cinema as an invaluable resource for understanding the unique character of postwar Stalinism and the cinema of the most repressive era in Soviet history

Educational Digital Transformation: New Technological Challenges for Competence Development Julio Cabero Almenara, Carmen Llorente Cejudo, Antonio Palacios-Rodriguez, 2023-10-09 The COVID 19 pandemic has provided a unique opportunity to examine our understanding of the opportunities and challenges that ICTs offer to support the functioning of all aspects of education The closure of educational institutions has forced a radical change in the practices of teachers and societies regarding the use of ICT to support teaching learning social relations and work in many sectors In the training of digital skills the instrumental mastery of ICT continues to outweigh the preparation of citizens to make constructive and safe use of technologies After two decades of educational policies we continue to reduce digital literacy to instrumental skills That is you do not learn why to use educational technologies and how or to be critical of their use Education 4.0 seeks to develop and enhance the digital skills of students and teachers in digital teaching environments through the creation of a line of academic training programs for undergraduate postgraduate and continuing education This article collection welcomes contributions to improve training policies and practices in Educational Digital Transformation for educational development strategies activities proposals for assessment and certification of skills
