International Bible Lesson Commentary

2 Corinthians 6:1-18

(2 Corinthians 6:1) As we work together with him, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain.

The Lord Jesus Christ, along with Paul, Timothy, Titus, and those Christians who faithfully followed Him as Lord and Savior worked together to achieve the goals of God in Christ; including the salvation of all who would accept the good news of Jesus. Salvation includes everlasting fellowship with God through faith in Jesus Christ rather than simply hearing the good news and not following Christ or not using God's gifts, which would be accepting the grace of God in vain or to no effect or uselessly.

(2 Corinthians 6:2) For he says, "At an acceptable time I have listened to you, and on a day of salvation I have helped you." See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation!

At various times in the past, the Israelites had called out to God to save them from their oppressors. In the books of Exodus, Joshua, and Judges, the Bible records many of God's saving acts through His leaders. At the acceptable time, God sent His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ, to save His people from their sins and free them from slavery to Satan, sin, sinful habits, and the fear of death. As Paul preached and wrote his letters, the acceptable time came for his listeners and readers to accept and act upon the good news they received; their day of salvation had come if they would rightly respond to the good news they heard.
