Land Of The Blind:

The Big Short Michael Lewis, 2011-02-01 The 1 New York Times bestseller It is the work of our greatest financial journalist at the top of his game And it s essential reading Graydon Carter Vanity Fair The real story of the crash began in bizarre feeder markets where the sun doesn t shine and the SEC doesn t dare or bother to tread the bond and real estate derivative markets where geeks invent impenetrable securities to profit from the misery of lower and middle class Americans who can t pay their debts The smart people who understood what was or might be happening were paralyzed by hope and fear in any case they weren t talking Michael Lewis creates a fresh character driven narrative brimming with indignation and dark humor a fitting sequel to his 1 bestseller Liar s Poker Out of a handful of unlikely really unlikely heroes Lewis fashions a story as compelling and unusual as any of his earlier bestsellers proving yet again that he is the finest and funniest chronicler of our time The Other Enlightenment Matthew Sharpe, 2023-02-16 Challenging widespread misunderstandings this book shows that central to key enlightenment texts was the practice of estranging taken for granted prejudices by adopting the perspective of Others The enlightenment s key progenitors led by Montesquieu Voltaire and Diderot were more empiricist than rationalist and more critical than utopian Moreover each was an artful exponent of the proto postmodernist practice of asking Europeans to review what they considered unquestionable through the eyes of Others Persians women Tahitians Londoners natives and na ves the blind and even imaginary extra terrestrials This book aims to show that this self estrangement as a means to gain critical distance from one s taken for granted assumptions was central to the enlightenment and remains vital for critical and constructive sociopolitical thinking today Land of the Blind Jess Walter, 2012-05-29 A mystery novel of profound depth Booklist starred review Walter is at his incisive best Hypnotically compelling Publishers Weekly In this fiendishly clever and darkly funny novel 1 New York Times bestselling author Jess Walter explores the bonds and compromises we make as children and the fatal errors we can make at any time in our lives While working the weekend night shift Caroline Mabry a weary Spokane police detective encounters a seemingly unstable but charming derelict who tells her I d like to confess But he insists on writing out his statement in longhand In the forty eight hours that follow the stranger confesses to not just a crime but an entire life spinning a wry and haunting tale of youth and adulthood of obsession and revenge and of two men s intertwined lives United States Postal Service Technical Training Center United States. Newman, 2014-11-18 Tragedy strikes the Geauga County Maple Festival when a local judge is found murdered Although the event is crowded with townsfolk one man says the wrong thing and ends up the county s most wanted He is president of the maple festival Fred Newman and he suddenly finds himself under arrest by the Chief of Police Fred is an attorney in the small town of Chardon and although he may be a prime suspect he's thankfully not alone. Several of the townspeople are called before the court and Fred takes it upon himself to represent his fellow citizens. However, he soon seems even more suspicious when he represents another attorney, which only causes additional small town trouble. Despite the cloud that has settled over Geauga County, Fred continues his duties as President of the maple festival. He takes his responsibilities seriously, but how can he run a successful event when half the attendees think he might be a murderer? It'll take further investigation and the help of a local police officer to clear Fred's name and save the famous celebration.

Engel, 2009 The Colonization of Land in Matthew's Gospel Maziel Barreto

Dani, 2024-08-19 In The Colonization of Land in Matthew's Gospel Maziel Barreto Dani proposes that land is constructed as a colonized and subjugated entity. Traditional scholarship claims that the Gospel of Matthew is detached from spatial territorial discussions and that geographical land concerns are displaced with Christology. Dani, however, reinterprets multiple implicit and explicit references to land in the Gospel to show continuity rather than discontinuity with the Hebrew Bible's concerns with material land promises. She does so by engaging the Gospel within its broader Roman Hellenistic and Jewish contexts where the theme of land possession is pervasive. Central to the Gospel and the imperial contexts from which it emerges are contestations over the land and proclamations to whom the land belongs. Dani argues that while Judea and neighboring lands are under the firm control of Roman imperial power during the first century CE, Matthew's Gospel envisions Rome's demise and the control of land being transferred to an alternative empire governed by the sovereign rule of God. Though God liberates the land from Rome's oppressive grasp and restores land promises to the righteous poor at Jesus' return, the land fails to escape colonial control. That is, the world while relinquished from Roman hegemony is reasserted under God's power and domination. In arguing that Matthew's Gospel employs an imperializing agenda involving land reclamation, the Gospel may be a source for validating and justifying the modern colonization of foreign and occupied land under the guise of God's purposes. The Colonization of Land in Matthew's Gospel challenges colonial ideologies which oppress not only peoples but the lands which they inhabit.
