Making Literature Matter 5th Ed + Re:writing Plus John Schilb, John Clifford, 2011-08-29 Making Literature Matter 5th Ed + Writer's Help Two Year Access Card). John J. Ruszkiewicz, 2011 Making Literature Matter John Schilb, John Clifford, 2011-08-25 Students respond powerfully to literature when it explores issues that matter to them such as how love can be compromised by the demands of tradition how authoritarian injustice can be resisted and how popular culture influences behavior And when students learn to analyze and argue for how literature engages such issues and exerts such power they develop and hone their critical thinking and writing skills In its fifth edition Making Literature Matter continues to deliver on the promise of its title Its thematic anthology gathers memorable stories poems plays and essays into unique literary clusters addressing issues that rouse passionate responses in students At the same time its comprehensive rhetoric shows students how to harness those responses into thoughtful arguments about the issues raised by the clusters and the literature Read the preface This anthology is now available with video Learn more about VideoCentral for Literature

Good Books Matter Larry Swartz, Debbie Nyman, 2008 Based on extensive research on the features that make children's books appealing and appropriate this valuable teacher resource offers guidance on selecting books strategies for specific grade levels suggestions for extension and tips for assessment This teacher friendly book is organized around the major genres traditional literature picture books nonfiction poetry and multicultural texts that will inspire young readers Throughout the book teachers will find suggestions for using literature to implement shared reading reading aloud and response strategies with emergent developing and independent readers This comprehensive book is rooted in the belief that educators must consider and offer a wide range of choice to ensure that students read good books It argues that the choices children make about what they read should be governed by their interests and desire to learn not by a grade or reading level

Why Does Literature Matter? Frank B. Farrell, 2018-07-05 Literature matters because it allows for experiences important to the living out of a sophisticated and satisfying human life because other arenas of culture cannot provide them to the same degree and because a relatively small number of texts carry out these functions in so exceptional a manner that we owe it to past and future members of the species to keep such texts alive in our cultural traditions from Chapter One Frank B Farrell defends a rich conception of the space of literature that retains its links to issues of self formation and metaphysics and does not let that space collapse into just another reflection of social space He maintains that recent literary theory has badly misread findings in the philosophy of language and the theory of subjectivity That misreading Farrell says has tended to endorse ways of understanding literature that make one question why it matters at all Farrell here opposes some recent theoretical trends and through a mix of philosophical and literary studies tells us why in his view literature does truly matter Among the writers Farrell discusses are John Ashbery Samuel Beckett Amit Chaudhuri Cormac McCarthy James

Merrill Marcel Proust Thomas Pynchon Salman Rushdie W G Sebald and John Updike The philosophers important to his arguments include Donald Davidson Daniel Dennett and Bernard Williams G W F Hegel Martin Heidegger Friedrich Nietzsche and Ludwig Wittgenstein play roles as well Among the literary theorists addressed are Stephen Greenblatt Paul de Man and Marjorie Perloff In addition to his close readings of literary philosophical and critical texts Farrell considers cultural studies and postcolonial studies more generally and speculates on the possible contributions of object relations theory in psychology to the study of literature Making Literature Matter + I-Cite John Schilb, John Clifford, Douglas Downs, 2011-08-29 Literatures of the World' 2007 Ed. ,2007 Limited Liability Company & Partnership Answer Book, 5th Edition Nelson, 2024 Reading and Writing Instruction in the Twenty-First Century Ellen C.
