Makkah Ziyarat Urdu Books:

A Sinner in Mecca Parvez Sharma, 2017-08-15 From the recipient of a 2018 Guggenheim Fellowship Based on the New York Times Critic Pick documentary The first book about the Hajj from a gay perspective written by a man with a deep knowledge of Islamic history This pilgrimage is the centerpiece of his book and he recounts it with courage and fierce emotion The Guardian This is the Islam you've never been allowed to see Daringly reported from its frontlines and forbidden to most of humanity for centuries The Hajj pilgrimage is a journey every Muslim is commanded by God to go on at least once in a lifetime if they are able and like millions Parvez Sharma believes his spiritual salvation lies at Islam's ground zero Mecca But unlike the journeys of his fellow Muslims the consequences of his own could be deadly In A Sinner in Mecca author filmmaker and 2018 Guggenheim Fellow Parvez chronicles his pilgrimage as a very openly gay Muslim to Saudi Arabia where Islam's heart beats and where being true to himself is punishable by death Risking his life Parvez embarks on a Jihad of the self filming his experience along the way Already under fire for his documentary A Jihad for Love which looks at the coexistence of Islam and homosexuality he would undoubtedly face savage punishment if exposed from being thrown off a cliff to public beheading Parvez's odyssey is at once audacious global and remarkable He meets everyone from extremists to explorers of the spiritual kind and the world they open up is frightening yet breathtaking In Mecca Parvez comes out to a pilgrim who then asks him why he would want to be part of something that wants no part of him This book is his answer to this question and many more Parvez provides an unflinching look at our troubling unfolding history including Hizbullah ISIS Trump the race wars an embattled Europe and more He offers real solutions borne of his efforts to get his hands dirty to find them This is a lived history and its author is no armchair theorist Following the New York Times Critics Pick hit documentary of the same title A Sinner in Mecca unflinchingly showcases parts of the dangerous ideology that governs today's ISIS and how much it has in common with Saudi Arabia's sacred yet treacherous dogma Wahhabi Islam A Sinner in Mecca is simultaneously one man's personal odyssey as well as a groundbreaking provocative revelation of a clandestine world and its fastest growing and most contested religion

Global Muslims in the Age of Steam and Print James L. Gelvin, Nile Green, 2014 The second half of the nineteenth century marks a watershed in human history Railroads linked remote hinterlands with cities overland and undersea cables connected distant continents New and accessible print technologies made the wide dissemination of ideas possible oceangoing steamers carried goods to faraway markets and enabled the greatest long distance migrations in recorded history In this volume leading scholars of the Islamic world recount the enduring consequences these technological economic social and cultural revolutions had on Muslim communities from North Africa to South Asia the Indian Ocean and China Drawing on a multiplicity of approaches and genres from commodity history to biography to social network theory the essays in Global Muslims in the Age of Steam and Print offer new and diverse perspectives on a transnational community in an era of global transformation

A Journey to Mecca and London Begum

Sarbuland Jung, 2025-01-07 Descended from Mughal nobility Akhtar al Nisa Begum Nawab Sarbuland Jung grew up in Hyderabad in southern India where she lived a quiet private and privileged life at the heart of the state's royal court In 1896 at the age of 20 she married Nawab Muhammad Hamidullah Khan Sarbuland Jung a prominent lawyer and the scion of a leading Muslim reformist movement In 1909 the wealthy couple embarked on a four month journey through the Middle East and Europe performing the hajj in Mecca and sitting for tea with the future king and queen of England A Journey to Mecca and London provides the first full English translation of Begum Sarbuland's Urdu travel diary from this journey of which only three original copies remain Originally intended for circulation among friends and family and later published her informal entries not only reveal the everyday practices of an Indian woman of her time but also detail her impressions and reactions as she explored the world alongside her husband As Begum Sarbuland encountered other women and Muslims during her travels those encounters shaped her reassessment of her own identity as a Muslim woman Her observations hold continued significance for readers interested in critical questions about gender Islam and identity Daniel Majchrowicz has thoroughly annotated his translation and paired it with rich appendices including a biographical sketch of Begum Sarbuland and excerpts from Hamidullah Khan's own accounts of their journey Engagingly written and enriched with years of original research archival work and family interviews A Journey to Mecca and London restores the nearly forgotten narrative of one of India's first Muslim women travel writers to its rightful place in Indian and Islamic history Subject Catalog Library of Congress, Muslim Communities and Cultures of the Himalayas Jacqueline H. Fewkes, Megan Adamson

Sijapati, 2020-12-20 This book chronicles individual perspectives and specific iterations of Muslim community practice and experience in the Himalayan region to bring into scholarly conversation the presence of varying Muslim cultures in the Himalaya The Himalaya provide a site of both geographic and cultural crossroads where Muslim community is simultaneously constituted at multiple social levels and to that end the essays in this book document a wide range of local national and global interests while maintaining a focus on individual perspectives moments in time and localized experiences It presents research that contributes to a broadly conceived notion of the Himalaya that enriches readers' understandings of both the region and concepts of Muslim community and highlights the interconnections between multiple experiences of Muslim community at local levels Drawing attention to the cultural social artistic and political diversity of the Himalaya beyond the better understood and frequently documented religious cultural expressions of the region this book will be of interest to academics in the fields of Anthropology Geography History Religious Studies Asian Studies and Islamic Studies

New Pathways in Pilgrimage Studies Dionigi Albera, John Eade, 2016-11-18 Although there has been a massive increase in the volume of pilgrimage research and publications traditional Anglophone scholarship has been dominated by research in Western Europe and North America In their previous edited volume International Perspectives on Pilgrimage Studies Routledge 2015 Albera and Eade sought to expand the theoretical disciplinary and geographical perspectives of

Anglophone pilgrimage studies This new collection of essays builds on this earlier work by moving away from Eurasia and focusing on areas of the world where non Christian pilgrimages abound Individual chapters examine the practice of ziyarat in the Maghreb and South Asia Hindu pilgrimage in India and different pilgrimage traditions across Malaysia and China before turning towards the Pacific islands Australia South Africa and Latin America where Christian pilgrimages co exist and sometimes interweave with indigenous traditions This book also demonstrates the impact of political and economic processes on religious pilgrimages and discusses the important development of secular pilgrimage and tourism where relevant Highly interdisciplinary international and innovative in its approach New Pathways in Pilgrimage Studies Global Perspectives will be of interest to those working in religious studies pilgrimage studies anthropology cultural geography and folklore studies
