Migrant Workers and ASEAN Anisa Santoso, 2017-04-21 ASEAN The Association of Southeast Asian Nations has made slow progress in defining a regional policy for the protection of migrant workers This book examines the normative structures within the institutions at play at both state and regional level of ASEAN which influence the making of a migrant workers protection policy The author puts forward a novel alternative policy analysis tool the Two Level State and Regional Analysis that enables satisfactory explanation for policy making cases whereby normative institutional structures are involved and social policies are considered The author argues that the formulation of a working coherent migrant workers protection policy has not been achieved because of the presence of normative institutional structures with ideas unsupportive to the protection of migrant workers which results in a slow institutionalisation process Although the migrant workers in question are their citizens and migrant sending countries are supposed to have more supportive normative structures for workers protection the author finds that when examined closely institutions in both migrant sending and receiving countries tend to have normative structures that are against workers protection These arguments drive the analytical questions of the book to inquire about the forms of the normative structures involved and their influence in the relevant institutions A unique contribution to the study of ASEAN and migration in Southeast Asia this book will be of interest to academics in the field of Social Policy Migration Studies and Asian Studies in particular Southeast Asian Studies Malaysian Chinese Lee Hock Guan ,Leo Suryadinata,2012 This collection of papers examines a variety of topics on the Chinese in Malaysia the nature of Malaysian multi ethnic society and the position of the ethnic Chinese the conflation between ethnicity and religion the 8 March 2008 election and its impact on the community the similarities and dissimilarities of the Chinese positions in East and West Malaysia the new developments in the economy and the media and education in the past few decades under the New Economic Policy which have major bearings on the 8 March 2008 election and the post election Malaysian Chinese community Sharing Knowledge Making a Difference: The Role of International Scientific Cooperation Prof. Allam Ahmed,Prof. Michael Busler,2011-01-01 The 2011 edition of World Sustainable Development Outlook includes a selection of the best papers presented during the 9th International Conference of WASD held in Atlantic City USA in October 2011 The theme of the conference was Sharing Knowledge Making a Difference The Role of International Scientific Cooperation
