The Education Invasion Joy Pullmann, 2017-03-14 Most Americans had no idea what Common Core was in 2013 according to polls But it had been creeping into schools nationwide over the previous three years and children were feeling its effects They cried over math homework so mystifying their parents could not help them even in elementary school They read motley assortments of informational text instead of classic literature They dreaded the high stakes tests in unfamiliar formats that were increasingly controlling their classrooms How did this latest and most sweeping reform of American education come in mostly under the radar Joy Pullmann started tugging on a thread of reports from worried parents and frustrated teachers and it led to a big tangle of history and politics intrigue and arrogance She unwound it to discover how a cabal of private foundation honchos and unelected public officials cooked up a set of rules for what American children must learn in core K 12 classes and how the Obama administration pressured states to adopt them Thus a federalized education scheme took root despite legal prohibitions against federal involvement in curriculum Common Core and its testing regime were touted as an absolute game changer in public education yet the evidence so far suggests that kids are actually learning less under it Why then was such a costly and disruptive agenda imposed on the nation's schools Who benefits And how can citizens regain local self governance in education so their children's minds will be fed a more nourishing intellectual diet and be protected from the experiments of emboldened bureaucrats The Education Invasion offers answers and remedies

The Politics of Education in Developing Countries Sam Hickey, Naomi Hossain, 2019-02-21 Why have many developing countries that have succeeded in expanding access to education made such limited progress on improving learning outcomes There is a growing recognition that the learning crisis constitutes a significant dimension of global inequality and also that educational outcomes in developing countries are shaped by political as well as socio economic and other factors The Politics of Education in Developing Countries focuses on how politics shapes the capacity and commitment of elites to tackle the learning crisis in six developing countries Bangladesh Cambodia Ghana Rwanda South Africa and Uganda The problem of education quality is serious across the Global South The Politics of Education in Developing Countries From Schooling to Learning deploys a new conceptual framework the domains of power approach to show how the type of political settlement shapes the level of elite commitment and state capacity to improving learning outcomes The domain of education is prone to being highly politicized as it offers an important source of both rents and legitimacy to political elites and can be central to paradigmatic elite ideas around nation building and modernity Of particular importance is the relative strength of coalitions pushing for access as against those focused on issues of higher quality education This book concludes with a discussion of entry points and strategies for thinking and working politically in relation to education quality reforms and critical commentaries Unique World Records 2014 Unique World Records Limited,2014-08-24 Unique World Records 2014 Edition Launched by Chief Guest Shri Sarup Chand Singla Chief Parliamentary Secretary and MLA Bathinda Punjab and Initiative of 1 CRORE TREE Plantation taken First TREE planted by Chief Guest World Record Holders from all over the world HONOURED at Bathinda with Medals Trophies World Record Certificates Live Performance to break make World Records done Certificates honoured to people for taking part in TREE PLANTATION on the occasion at Hotel Bahia Fort Bathinda Punjab on 24th August 2014
