Monologue In Sepedi:

On Your Own Mosibudi Mangena, 1989 SAJLEA, 1998 Emerging Traditions Vicki Briault Manus, 2012-07-10 The monograph explores the linguistic impact of the colonial and postcolonial situations in South Africa on language policy on literary production and especially on the stylistics of fiction by indigenous South Africans writing in English A secondary concern is to investigate the present place of English in the multilingual spectrum of South African languages and to see how this worldly English relates to Global English in the South African context The introduction presents a socio linguistic overview of South Africa from pre historic times until the present including language planning policies during and after the colonial era and a cursory review of how the difficulties encountered in implementing the Language Plan provided for by the new South African constitution impinge on the development of black South African English Six chapters track the course of English in South Africa since the arrival of the British in 1795 considered from the point of view of the indigenous African population The study focuses on ways in which indigenous authors indigenize their writing innovating and subverting stylistic conventions including those of African orature in order to bend language and genre towards their own culture and objectives Each chapter corresponds to a briefly outlined historical period that is largely reflected in linguistic and literary developments A small number of significant works for each period are discussed one of which is selected for a case study at the end of each chapter where it is subjected to detailed stylistic analysis and appraised for the degree of indigenization or other linguistic or socio historic influences on style The methodology adopted is a linguistic approach to stylistics focusing on indigenization of English inspired by the work of Chantal Zabus in her book The African Palimpsest Indigenization of Language in the West African Europhone Novel 2007 1991 The conclusion reappraises the original hypothesis that the specific characteristi

Drum, 2005 Talk to Me Eric Lane, Nina Shengold, 2009-07-29 In this one of a kind collection of monologue plays Eric Lane and Nina Shengold have gathered a breathtaking array of human voices and stories by master playwrights and emerging new writers Each of the plays ranging from one acts and ten minute plays to full length works creates a rich and specific world In these pages readers will meet a dazzling group of dramatic and comic characters an actress chasing a role as a prison guard on a soap opera an Indian waiter new to America a lesbian performance artist taking her father to Auschwitz a surfer dude trying to summarize the plot of Moby Dick in under two minutes and a Dutch librarian hunting down a book that s 123 years overdue Because each selection is a complete monologue Talk to Me is an unprecedented source for actors in search of material for auditions classes and performances as well as a literary gold mine for anyone who loves drama From the Trade Paperback edition Speak the Speech! Rhona Silverbush, Sami Plotkin, 2002-09-18 A detailed guide to approaching Shakespearean text Speak the speech contains everything an actor needs to select and prepare a Shakespeare monologue for classwork auditions or performance Included herein are over 150 monologues Each one is placed in context with a brief introduction is carefully punctuated in the manner that best illustrates its meaning and is painstakingly and thoroughly annotated Each is also accompanied by commentary that will spark the actor's imagination by exploring how the interrelationship of meter and the choice of words and sounds yields clues to character and performance And throughout the book sidebars relate historical topical technical and other useful and entertaining information relevant to the text In addition the authors include an overview of poetic and rhetorical elements brief synopses of all the plays and a comprehensive index along with other guidelines that will help readers locate the perfect monologue for their needs

Four Or Five Roses Peter Friedl, Vanessa Joan Müller, 2004 So far the work of Austrian artist Peter Friedl 1960 has managed to elude stylistic classification Investigating the social political and cultural realities at work in institutionalized practice his projects have been called conceptual aesthetic acts usually they are subtle forays into institutional criticism with political insight Four or Five Roses continues Friedl's exploration of the stereotypical language of the monologue genre The book contains some 45 children's monologues edited by the artist from numerous interviews and conversations recorded on playgrounds in South Africa Faithfully transcribed and translated into English from different South African languages Afrikaans Northern and Southern Suthu Zulu Xhosa the edited monologue then becomes a hybrid genre both fictionalised speech and serious counter voice What is ultimately at stake is how discursive strategies operate as a political tool endlessly reshaped and manipulated for the sake of persuasion The texts are accompanied by color illustrations of the actual South African playgrounds

The Mother They Forgot Mary Moncure Parker, 1926 Monologues for Actors of Color Roberta Uno, 2000 A collection featuring a set of 45 monologues each for men and women excerpted from contemporary plays and specially geared for actors of colour Roberta Uno has selected the monologues so that there is a wide range of ethnicities included African American Native American Latino and Asian American Each monologue comes with an introduction on the characters and stage directions to set the scene for the actor
