Terror and Counter-Terror in Contemporary British Children's Literature Blanka Grzegorzczak, 2020-05-10 The widespread threat of terrorist and counter terrorist violence in the twenty first century has created a globalized context for social interactions transforming the ways in which young people relate to the world around them and to one another This is the first study that reads post 9 11 and 7 7 British writing for the young as a response to this contemporary predicament exploring how children's writers find the means to express the local conditions and different facets of the global wars around terror. The texts examined in this book reveal a preoccupation with overcoming various forms of violence and prejudice faced by certain groups within post-terror Britain as well as a concern with mapping out their social relations with other groups and those concerns are set against the recurring themes of racist paranoia, anti-immigrant hostility, politicized identities and growing up in countries transformed by the effects of terror and counter-terror. The book concentrates on the relationship between postcolonial and critical race studies, Britain's colonial legacy and literary representations of terrorism, tracing thematic and formal similarities in the novels of both established and emerging children's writers such as Elizabeth Laird, Sumia Sukkar, Alan Gibbons, Muhammad Khan, Bali Rai, Nikesh Shukla, Malorie Blackman, Claire McFall, Miriam Halahmy and Sita Brahmachari. In doing so, this study maps new connections for scholars, students and readers of contemporary children's fiction who are interested in how such writing addresses some of the most pressing issues affecting us today, including survival after terror, migration and community building.

Reaching Tin River Thea Astley, 2018-04-30 Tin River is a townlet of terminal attractiveness. Tin River is a state of mind. Researching in the archives, Belle discovers the long dead Gaden Lockyer, a colonial pioneer in Jericho Flats, and soon becomes obsessed. Belle's quest for Lockyer is her way of coming to terms with the past, her mother, a drummer in her own all-women's group, her absent American father and her ineffectual husband Seb. In Reaching Tin River, Thea Astley's satire is at its sharpest and most entertaining. Thea Astley was born in Brisbane in 1925. Her first novel Girl with a Monkey was published in 1958 and her third The Well-Dressed Explorer (1962) won the Miles Franklin Literary Award. Many notable books followed, among them the groundbreaking A Kindness Cup (1974) which addressed frontier massacres of Indigenous Australians and It's Raining in Mango (1987). Her last novel was Drylands (1999), her fourth Miles Franklin winner. Her fiction is distinguished by vivid imagery and metaphor, a complex ironic style and a desire to highlight oppression and social injustice. One of the most distinctive and influential Australian novelists of the twentieth century, Astley died in 2004. How lucidly Ms Astley evokes for us Australia's rough pioneer history and Belle's love for it. You will like this journey, I promise, and when it is over you will wish it weren't and you will feel cross and want from Ms Astley much, much more. New York Times. Dazzling imagery on every page. Beautifully written. Publishers Weekly. Intelligent, fresh and new. Kirkus Reviews.

Pricing the Priceless Joseph P. Newhouse, 2004-08-20 The health care industry differs from most other industries in that medical pricing is primarily administered by the government and private insurers and in that it uses several types of contracts. Providers may receive a fixed sum for all necessary services within a given period of time for the necessary services to treat a given condition or for each specific service. The industry is changing dramatically, offering many natural experiments to aid understanding of the economics of pricing for health care. In Pricing the Priceless, Joseph Newhouse explains the different pricing systems and how they affect resource allocation and efficiency, focusing on the efficiency of pricing. He also discusses larger issues of equity, fair distribution of burden and social justice. Although most of the examples are American based the same issues arise in all medical care financing and delivery systems and the theories and models are general enough to apply to many institutional contexts The topics include Medicare managed care the contemporary integration of health insurance and medical care the management of moral hazard and stunting uncertainty and risk aversion the demand for health insurance agency relationships information disparities regulation and supply side and demand side selection Economic Foundations of Law second edition Stephen J.
