Ellen Glasgows The Difference:

The Other Woman Susan Koppelman, 1984 Inside and outside marriage what happens to the woman betrayed How do abandoned wives or lovers feel What happens when the battle between the sexes becomes a triangle The plots in this collection of eighteen stories written between the 1840s and 1980s are infinitely variable and the outcomes will enrage shock amuse and sometimes hearten In some stories women forge links with other women in solidarity In others women fight for their men and win In many stories the betrayal ultimately enriches the central character who learns through the loss of her man the value of her own life A Study Guide for Ellen Glasgow's "The Difference" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016

SHORT STORIES FOR STUDENTS CENGAGE LEARNING. GALE, 2016 Feminisms Robyn R. Warhol, Diane Price Herndl, 1997 In the landmark 1991 edition of Feminisms Robyn Warhol and Diane Price Herndl assembled the most comprehensive collection of American and British feminist literary criticism ever to be published In this revised edition the editors have updated the volume in keeping with the expanded parameters of feminist literary discourse With the inclusion of more than two dozen new essays along with a major reorganization of the sections in which they appear Warhol and Price Herndl have again established the measure for representing the latest developments in the field of feminist literary theory Believing that the feminist movement can only move forward where difference commands attention not dismissal or negativism they have continued the original collection's mission of providing a multiplicity of perspectives and approaches This anthology contains three new sections Conflict Gaze and Practice and includes more selections by and about women of color and lesbians Aimed at academics and the general public alike this collection is an indispensable guide to the range of practice on campus today in the field of feminist literary criticism A Certain Slant of Light: Regionalism and the Form of Southern and Midwestern Fiction, The Review of Reviews, 1906 The Independent Leonard Bacon, Joseph Parrish Thompson, Richard Salter Storrs, Joshua Leavitt, Henry Ward Beecher, Theodore Tilton, Henry Chandler Bowen, William Hayes Ward, Hamilton Holt, Fabian Franklin, Harold de Wolf Fuller, Christian Archibald Herter, 1923 The William and Mary Literary Magazine, 1920 The Tragic Life Story of Medea as Mother, Monster, and Muse Jana Rivers Norton, 2019-11-13 This volume offers a critical yet empathic exploration of the ancient myth of Medea as immortalized by early Greek and Roman dramatists to showcase the tragic forces afoot when relational suffering remains unresolved in the lives of individuals families and communities Medea as a tragic figure whose sense of isolation and betrayal interferes with her ability to form healthy attachments reveals the human propensity for violence when the agony of unresolved grief turns to vengeance against those we hold most dear However metaphorically her life story as an emblem for existential crisis serves as a psychological touchstone in the lives of early twentieth century female authors who struggled to find their rightful place in the world to resolve the sorrow of unrequited love and devotion and to reconcile experiences of societal abandonment and neglect as self discovery Civil Wars Susan Goodman, 2003-06-02 In a work that recovers the broader meaning of manners for past generations Susan Goodman demonstrates that American writers have consistently tied the subject of national identity to the norms and behaviors of everyday life that in fact the novel of manners is a dominant form of American fiction The Sewanee Review, 1927 The Calvinist Roots of the Modern Era Alik Barnstone, Michael Tomasek Manson, Carol J. Sacred Estrangement Peter A. Dorsey, 1993-07-01 Sacred Estrangement analyzes certain works by important American writers and thinkers in the context of the rhetoric of conversion Such analysis is especially valuable because it provides a reliable index of the relationship between the self and larger communities Traditionally conversion has served a socializing function signifying that one has come into alignment with certain linguistic behavioral and cultural expectations The socialization process is particularly apparent in the Christian conversion narratives of the seventeenth through nineteenth centuries by publicly testifying to a conversion experience believers became empowered members not only of God's elect community but also of a local population As modern autobiography developed in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries the Christian pattern was secularized and individualized Conversion became a model for many kinds of psychological change With the coming of the twentieth century however the authors upon whom Peter Dorsey focuses including William and Henry James Henry Adams Edith Wharton Ellen Glasgow Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright radically revised conversion rhetoric If conversion had traditionally linked the search for illumination with the search for a defined social role these writers increasingly used conversion as an index of estrangement from mainstream America Dorsey documents this profound change in the way American intellectuals defined the self not in terms of personal orientation toward or away from a given community but as a resistance to such an orientation altogether as if social forces by their nature were a threat to personal identity
