Emirati Women Generations Of Change:

Emirati Women Jane Bristol-Rhys,2010 In Emirati Women Bristol Rhys weaves together eight years of conversations and interviews with three generations of women her observations of Emirati society in Abu Dhabi the unflattering stereotypes commonly heard in the extensive expatriate communities and discussions with her Emirati university students on topics ranging from marriage independence freedom and the future Arab Family Studies Suad Joseph,2018-07-10 Family remains the most powerful social idiom and one of the most powerful social structures throughout the Arab world To engender love of nation among its citizens national movements portray the nation as a family To motivate loyalty political leaders frame themselves as fathers mothers brothers or sisters to their clients parties or the citizenry To stimulate production economic actors evoke the sense of duty and mutual commitment of family obligation To sanctify their edicts clerics wrap religion in the moralities of family and family in the moralities of religion Social and political movements from the most secular to the most religious pull on the tender strings of family love to recruit and bind their members to each other To call someone family is to offer them almost the highest possible intimacy loyalty rights reciprocities and dignity In recognizing the significance of the concept of family this state of the art literature review captures the major theories methods and case studies carried out on Arab families over the past century The book offers a country by country critical assessment of the available scholarship on Arab families Sixteen chapters focus on specific countries or groups of countries seven chapters offer examinations of the literature on key topical issues Joseph s volume provides an indispensable resource to researchers and students and advances Arab family studies as a critical independent field of scholarship American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 28:4 Norman K. Swazo,Abdul-Samad Abdullah ,Nik Rosila Nik Yaakob,Muhammad Mumtaz Ali,Ahmed Elewa,Frank Griffel,Mahan Mirza,Amr G.E. Sabet,Manata Hashemi,Edith Szanto ,Sadek Hamid ,Mohammad Fadel,Sherman A. Jackson,2011-09-07 The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Nation-Building, State and the Genderframing of Women's Rights in the United Arab Emirates (1971-2009) Vania Carvalho Pinto,2022-07-01 In the United Arab Emirates the extensive change to Emirati women s traditional rights and roles has been one of the most visible transformations taking place throughout the country s 40 years of modern history This book offers an interpretation of why and how these modifications came about The book discovers that there is no direct or easy link between the State s offer of rights towards women and society s acceptance of them Given these circumstances the mechanisms that induce women to actually take advantage of what is offered have not been given sufficient attention The concept of genderframing aims precisely at defining the connecting mechanism and explaining the successes and failures of these policies both mobilization wise and implementation wise The term genderframing refers to a dynamic and interactive process between the State and its population which entails the symbolic rework of meanings associated with women related policies It is argued that such re interpretation has been purposefully conducted by the Emirati State in order to portray the changing roles of women as necessary and desirable for reasons associated with nation building purposes religious conformity promotion of family values and efforts at indigenous cultural preservation The book highlights the profound intertwining of gender nation building and domestic socio political dynamics in a country that while seeking to establish its modernizing credentials is still struggling for self definition and empowerment

The Formation of the UAE Kristi Barnwell, 2024-04-04 December 2 1971 ushered the United Arab Emirates into existence and marked the end of one hundred fifty years of British protection of the Arab states of the Gulf Today the UAE projects an image of modernity and prosperity but before its formation the emirates endured poverty and political upheaval while the rulers and people navigated the transition from autonomous city states to modern nation states under informal British rule This book shows how the Trucial States came to form a sovereign federation paying particular attention to the role of nationalism and anti imperialism Kristi Barnwell demonstrates that the ruling sheikhs of the Gulf Arab rulers in the Gulf strove to create their new state with close ties to Great Britain which provided technical military and administrative assistance to the emirates while also publicly embracing the popular ideologies of anti imperialism and Arab socialism that were still dominating the political discourse in the Arab world In the process she situates the Emirates modern history in the broader narratives of the history of the Middle East The research draws on primary source materials from British and American government archives speeches and government publications from the Arab Emirates as well as memoirs and secondary sources

Sex and the Citadel Shereen El Feki, 2013-03-12 Kirkus Best Books of the Year 2013 If you really want to know a people start by looking inside their bedrooms As political change sweeps the streets and squares the parliaments and presidential palaces of the Arab world Shereen El Feki has been looking at an upheaval a little closer to home in the sexual lives of men and women in Egypt and across the region The result is an informative insightful and engaging account of a highly sensitive and still largely secret aspect of Arab society Sex is entwined in religion tradition politics economics and culture so it is the perfect lens through which to examine the complex social landscape of the Arab world From pregnant virgins to desperate housewives from fearless activists to religious firebrands from sex work to same sex relations Sex and the Citadel takes a fresh look at the sexual history of the region and brings new voices to the debate over its future This is no peep show or academic treatise but a highly personal and often humorous account of one woman s journey to better understand Arab society at its most intimate and in the process to better understand her own origins Rich with five years of groundbreaking research Sex and the Citadel gives us a unique and timely understanding of everyday lives in a part of the world that is changing before our eyes

Migration and Integration Challenges of Muslim Immigrants in Europe Annemarie Profanter,Elena Maestri,2021-09-06 As the impetus of globalization continues to gather pace more and more people leave their homes pursuing dreams of a better life for themselves and their families Muslim immigrants converging on Europe from widely divergent communities scattered throughout North Africa the Middle East and South East Asia represent a great variety of local cultures and traditions Trans Mediterranean networks form the basis of migration routes and are key factors in the destinations of these migrants and in the overall process of immigration be this towards Europe or other Muslim countries South North fluxes intertwine with South South fluxes among which the Gulf Arab countries stand out as a prime destination not only for low skilled labour Different situations emerge within a variegated discourse on co existence integration assimilation and the preservation of identity The adoption of this transnational dimension incorporating both destination and points of origin enables the investigation of migration to move beyond a purely Eurocentric approach Thus different national patterns are analyzed with a focus on a number of significant case studies By debating policies and cultural approaches the aim is to add innovative scholarship to the challenge of integration Cross cultural pluralism on the part of the nation states comprising the European Union is one avenue for moving the dialogue between different cultural frameworks towards a more compatible form Beyond Exception Ahmed Kanna,Amélie Le Renard,Neha Vora,2020-08-15 Over the nearly two decades that they have each been conducting fieldwork in the Arabian Peninsula Ahmed Kanna Am lie Le Renard and Neha Vora have regularly encountered exoticizing and exceptionalist discourses about the region and its people political systems and prevalent cultural practices These persistent encounters became the springboard for this book a reflection on conducting fieldwork within a field that is marked by such representations The three focus on deconstructing the exceptionalist representations that circulate about the Arabian Peninsula They analyze what exceptionalism does how it is used by various people and how it helps shape power relations in the societies they study They propose ways that this analysis of exceptionalism provides tools for rethinking the concepts that have become commonplace structuring narratives and analytical frameworks within fieldwork in and on the Arabian Peninsula They ask What would not only Middle East studies but studies of postcolonial societies and global capitalism in other parts of the world look like if the Arabian Peninsula was central rather than peripheral or exceptional to ongoing sociohistorical processes and representational practices The authors explore how the exceptionalizing discourses that permeate Arabian Peninsula studies spring from colonialist discourses still operative in anthropology and sociology more generally and suggest that de exceptionalizing the region within their disciplines can offer opportunities for decolonized knowledge production The Routledge Handbook of Strategic Communication Derina Holtzhausen,Ansgar Zerfass,2014-11-20 The Routledge Handbook of Strategic Communication provides a comprehensive review of research in the strategic communication domain and offers educators and graduate level students a compilation of approaches to and studies of varying aspects of the field The volume provides insights into ongoing discussions that build an emerging body of knowledge Focusing on the metatheoretical philosophical and applied aspects of strategic communication the parts of the volume cover Conceptual foundations Institutional and organizational dimensions Implementing strategic communication and Domains of practice An international set of authors contributes to this volume illustrating the broad arena in which this work is taking place A timely volume surveying the current state of scholarship this Handbook is essential reading for scholars in strategic communication at all levels of experience

Western Privilege Amélie Le Renard, 2021-09-21 Nearly 90 percent of residents in Dubai are foreigners with no Emirati nationality As in many global cities those who hold Western passports share specific advantages prestigious careers high salaries and comfortable homes and lifestyles With this book Amélie Le Renard explores how race gender and class backgrounds shape experiences of privilege and investigates the processes that lead to the formation of Westerners as a social group Westernness is more than a passport it is also an identity that requires emotional and bodily labor And as they work hook up parent and hire domestic help Westerners chase Dubai's promise of socioeconomic elevation for the few Through an ethnography informed by postcolonial and feminist theory Le Renard reveals the diverse experiences and trajectories of white and non white male and female Westerners to understand the shifting and contingent nature of Westernness and also its deep connection to whiteness and heteronormativity Western Privilege offers a singular look at the lived reality of structural racism in cities of the global South

Representing the Nation Pamela Erskine-Loftus, Mariam Al-Mulla, Victoria Hightower, 2016-05-26 The 1970s saw the emergence and subsequent proliferation across the Arabian Peninsula of national museums institutions aimed at creating social cohesion and affiliation to the state within a disparate population Representing the Nation examines the wide ranging use of exhibitionary forms of national identity projection via consideration of their motivations implications current and future possible historical backgrounds official and unofficial meanings and meanings for both the user visitor and the multiple creators The book responds to due to the importance placed on tradition heritage and national identity across all the states of the Peninsula and the growth of re imagined and new museums the need for far greater discussion and research in these areas

Culturally Sensitive Research Methods for Educational Administration and Leadership Eugenie A. Samier, Eman S. ElKaleh, 2023-09-01 This book explores the multicultural and non Western contexts behind the approaches problems and issues that arise in research methodologies when used in relation to educational administration and leadership This volume argues that increasing internationalisation and diversity of the field requires research methods that better reflect the values cultures political systems and conditions of non Western communities and countries Discussing the research methods data collection practices interpretive approaches and research ethics that produce more accurate and authentic results the book looks at a number of theoretical frameworks and epistemological approaches that inform the development of such methodologies Traditional methods like sharing circles and storytelling are explored as well as an examination of social space in designing methodology aimed at spatial justice and an exploration of methods for Indigenous communities in East Asia A valuable resource for researchers scholars and students with an interest in multicultural education the book will also appeal to academics interested in race ethics and educational research methods more broadly

Emerging Scholarship on the Middle East and Central Asia Katlyn Quenzer, Maria Syed, Elisabeth Yarbakhsh, 2018-09-15 Emerging Scholarship on the Middle East and Central Asia Moving from the Periphery provides fresh analysis and cutting edge critique of phenomena and events across the region Working out of diverse disciplinary traditions the authors call on varied theoretical frameworks in order to challenge entrenched stereotypes and long standing perspectives This volume explores emerging directions in scholarship across a range of issues including the Gulf Saudi strategizing Afghan refugees in the Islamic Republic of Iran contemporary Turkish politics the current Syrian conflict Middle Eastern and Central Asian art perceptions of security threats from Afghanistan and the potential future role of China in the region The authors in this volume have given wide berth to dominant approaches to scholarship on the region while grappling with overlooked issues and marginal populations in order to advance new frameworks On the Periphery deserves a central place in future scholarly engagement with the Middle East and Central Asia

Everyday Life in the Spectacular City Rana AlMutawa, 2024-01-09 Everyday Life in the Spectacular City is a groundbreaking urban ethnography that reveals how middle class citizens and longtime residents of Dubai interact with the city's so called superficial spaces to create meaningful social lives Rana AlMutawa shows that inhabitants adapt themselves to top down development projects from big malls to megaprojects These structures serve residents evolving social needs transforming Dubai's spectacular spaces into personally important cultural sites These practices are significant because they expand our understanding of agency as not only subversive but also adaptive Through extensive fieldwork AlMutawa herself an Emirati native to Dubai finds a more nuanced story of belonging This story does not seek to uncover the real city that lies beneath the veneer of the spectacle but rather to demonstrate that social meanings and forms of belonging take place within the spectacle itself By offering an alternative to the discourse of authenticity and elucidating the dynamics of ambivalent belonging AlMutawa belies stereotypes that portray Dubai's developments as alienating and inherently disempowering Everyday Life in the Spectacular City speaks beyond the Middle East to a globalized phenomenon for Dubai's spectacles are unexceptional in today's changing world

Shopping with Allah Viola Thimm, 2023-09-18 Shopping with Allah illustrates the ways in which religion is mobilised in package tourism and how spiritual economic and gendered practices are combined in a form of tourism where the goal is not purely leisure but also ethical and spiritual cultivation Focusing on the intersection of gender and Islam Viola Thimm shows how this intersection develops and changes in a pilgrimage tourism nexus as part of capitalist and halal consumer markets Based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork in Malaysia the United Arab Emirates and Oman Thimm sheds light on how Islam and gender frame Malaysian religious tourism and pilgrimage to the Arabian Peninsula but she raises many issues that are of great importance beyond these regional contexts This book also offers an innovative methodological analytical toolkit to research mobility and intersectionality across socio geographic scales Scaling Holistic

Intersectionality By bringing methodological holism into a fruitful engagement with the antiracist feminist framework intersectionality Thimm argues that hierarchical relationships i.e. marginalisation power and empowerment can shift for an individual or a social group depending upon the social sphere Shopping with Allah will primarily be of interest to readers within the anthropology of gender the anthropology of Islam and the anthropology of religion more broadly Education and Development The Emirates Center for Strategic Studies and Research, 2019-05-14 For all countries the greatest challenge to successful progress and development is fostering quality education Through education and knowledge economies develop we become more civilized societies prosper and the highest civilizational ambitions are realized Thanks to the wisdom and insight of its leadership the United Arab Emirates has recognized the challenge and what is needed to overcome it and excel It has established schools launched programs and mobilized all of its human and physical resources Further the UAE has drawn inspiration from successful international models and reproduced aspects of them as it shapes its own education system This has seen the UAE in less than half a century rank high on regional and international development indicators The outstanding achievements made by the UAE in education recorded in international reports and by specialized agencies are not a matter of luck or coincidence Rather they are the result of decades of planning and serious efforts from public institutions invested in education This publication includes several papers delivered at the conference Education and Development Investing in the Future which was organized by the Emirates Center for Strategic Studies and Research ECSSR in November 2016 The papers provide intellectuals those interested in education and decision makers with rich and diverse material on the educational system and its goals in the UAE which will help identify its mechanisms characteristics and outlook for the future Participation Culture in the Gulf Nele Lenze, Charlotte Schriwer, 2018-09-03 This book examines the civil social interactions which have shaped and continue to influence the political and social development of modern Gulf societies It analyses the influence of public and private social spaces such as sports arenas and dawawin as well as developments in the legal and cultural spheres Geographically the volume covers Bahrain Iran Kuwait Oman Qatar Saudi Arabia and the UAE Each chapter discusses a different aspect of current trends in society offering a multidimensional perspective on recent developments In so doing the chapters highlight the existence of a growing participation culture as a force for dynamic social change in a global context Bringing to attention the continuing social change in public and private spaces which have increased public social interactions within the last ten years this book also demonstrates the opening of dialogues between the public and the authorities The contributors are established scholars living in the Gulf as well as academics with long term field research in the region thus providing unique perspectives on current sociopolitical trends in the Gulf states Participation Culture in the Gulf will be useful to students and scholars of Middle Eastern politics and society as well as social movements and political participation more generally Handbook of Families in the Arab Gulf States Md Mizanur Rahman, Kaltham Al-Ghanim, Ziarat Hossain, Sharique Umar, 2025-06-30 This open access book collates and advances
