Signing the Body Katherine Dauge-Roth, 2019-11-14 The first major scholarly investigation into the rich history of the marked body in the early modern period this interdisciplinary study examines multiple forms uses and meanings of corporeal inscription and impression in France and the French Atlantic from the late sixteenth through early eighteenth centuries Placing into dialogue a broad range of textual and visual sources drawn from areas as diverse as demonology jurisprudence mysticism medicine pilgrimage commerce travel and colonial conquest that have formerly been examined largely in isolation Katherine Dauge Roth demonstrates that emerging theories and practices of signing the body must be understood in relationship to each other and to the development of other material marking practices that rose to prominence in the early modern period While each chapter brings to light the particular histories and meanings of a distinct set of cutaneous marks

devil's marks on witches demon's marks upon the possessed devotional wounds Amerindian and Holy Land pilgrim tattoos and criminal brands each also reveals connections between these various types of stigmata links that were obvious to the early modern thinkers who theorized and deployed them Moreover the five chapters bring to the fore ways in which corporeal marking of all kinds interacted dynamically with practices of writing on imprinting and engraving paper parchment fabric and metal that flourished in the period together signaling important changes taking place in early modern society Examining the marked body as a material object replete with varied meanings and uses Signing the Body Marks on Skin in Early Modern France shows how the skin itself became the register of the profound cultural and social transformations that characterized this era

Embodied Politics in Visual Autobiography Sarah Brophy, Janice Hladki, 2014-11-05 From reality television to film performance and video art autobiography is everywhere in today's image obsessed age With contributions by both artists and scholars Embodied Politics in Visual Autobiography is a unique examination of visual autobiography's involvement in the global cultural politics of health disability and the body This provocative collection looks at images of selfhood and embodiment in a variety of media and with a particular focus on bodily identities and practices that challenge the norm a pregnant man in cyberspace a fat activist performance troupe indigenous artists intervening in museums transnational selves who connect disability to war and many more The chapters in Embodied Politics in Visual Autobiography reflect several different theoretical approaches but share a common concern with the ways in which visual culture can generate resistance critique and creative interventions With contributions that investigate digital media installation art graphic memoir performance film reality television photography and video art the collection offers a wide ranging critical account of what is clearly becoming one of the most important issues in contemporary culture

The American Journal of Surgery, 1909 Includes the papers and or proceedings of various surgical associations

Spiritualism and Phenomenology Emmanuel Falque, 2025-04-08 The conflict between spiritualism and phenomenology will no longer take place Better it is through their encounter and their backlash that a new fruitfulness for thought will develop The case of Maine de Biran thus comes to exemplify a new beginning à la française for metaphysics on the one hand and for phenomenology on the other But the philosopher from Bergerac in the Dordogne is most often read according to his explicit meaning and not his implicit one He is supposedly the thinker of freedom and consciousness spiritualism or of the inner self and the lived body phenomenology But these readings forget the exceptions to the primitive fact of internal effort illness sleep sleepwalking madness the body object the outer self which mark Biran's oeuvre as one of the summits of a thought that escapes phenomenality and confers a real consistency upon corporeality A new Columbus of metaphysics as he himself names himself Maine de Biran read otherwise initiates for today a new beginning for thought

The Medical News and Library, 1854 Journal of the American Medical Association, 1905 Memory Of Thought Alexander García Düttmann, 2002-12-06 A reconstruction of aspects of the philosophy of Adorno and Heidegger This title reconstructs the philosophy of Adorno and Heidegger in the light of the importance that these thinkers attach to two proper names Auschwitz and Germanien In Adorno s dialectical thinking Auschwitz is the name of an incommensurable historical event that seems to put a provisional end to history as a negative totality In Heidegger s thinking of Being Germanien is a name inscribed in an historical mission on which the fate of Western civilization seems to depend it thus becomes the name of a positive totality of history
