The Rotarian: April 2014 , Book of Majors 2014 College Entrance Examination Board, The College Board, 2013-07-02 The only book that describes majors in depth and lists the colleges that offer them The Geography of Injustice Barak Kushner, 2024-03-15 In The Geography of Injustice Barak Kushner argues that the war crimes tribunals in East Asia formed and cemented national divides that persist into the present day In 1946 the Allies convened the Tokyo Trial to prosecute Japanese wartime atrocities and Japan's empire At its conclusion one of the judges voiced dissent claiming that the justice found at Tokyo was only the sham employment of a legal process for the satisfaction of a thirst for revenge War crimes tribunals Kushner shows allow for the history of the defeated to be heard In contemporary East Asia a fierce battle between memory and history has consolidated political camps across this debate The Tokyo Trial courtroom as well as the thousands of other war crimes tribunals opened in about fifty venues across Asia were legal stages where prosecution and defense curated facts and evidence to craft their story about World War Two These narratives and counter narratives form the basis of postwar memory concerning Japan's imperial aims across the region The archival record and the interpretation of court testimony together shape a competing set of histories for public consumption The Geography of Injustice offers compelling evidence that despite the passage of seven decades since the end of the war East Asia is more divided than united by history Organic Struggle Brian K. Obach, 2015-05-08 Organic Struggle analyzes the evolution of the sustainable agriculture movement in the United States and evaluates its achievements and shortcomings It traces the development of organic farming from its roots in the 1940s through its embrace by the 1960s counterculture to its mainstream acceptance and development into a multi billion dollar industry Earned Citizenship Michael J. Sullivan, 2019-03-19 The migration and settlement of 11 million unauthorized immigrants is among the leading political challenges facing the United States today. The majority of unauthorized immigrants in the U S have been here for more than five years and are settling into American communities working forming families and serving in the military even though they may be detained and deported if they are discovered. An open question remains as to what to do about unauthorized immigrants who are already living in the United States. On one hand it is important that the government sends a message that future violations of immigration law will not be tolerated. On the other sits a deeper ethical dilemma that is the focus of this book: what do the state and citizens owe to unauthorized immigrants who have served their adopted country. Earned Citizenship argues that long term unauthorized immigrant residents should be able to earn legalization and a pathway to citizenship through service in their adopted communities. Their service would act as restitution for immigration law violations. Military service in particular would merit naturalization in countries with a strong citizen soldier tradition including the United States. The book also considers the civic value of caregiving as a service to citizens and the country contending that family immigration policies should be expanded to recognize the importance of caregiving duties for dependents. This argument is part of a broader project in political theory and public policy aimed at reconciling civic republicanism with a feminist ethic of care and its emphasis on dependency work. As a whole Earned Citizenship provides a non humanitarian justification for legalizing unauthorized immigrants based on their contributions to citizens and institutions in their adopted nation.

Handbook of Traumatic Loss Neil

Thompson, Gerry R. Cox, Robert G. Stevenson, 2017-01-06. The Handbook of Traumatic Loss adopts a broad holistic approach that recognizes traumatic loss much more fully as a multidimensional human phenomenon not simply a medical condition. Initial chapters build a foundation for understanding traumatic loss and explore the many ways we respond to trauma. Later chapters counterbalance the individualistic focus of dominant approaches to traumatic loss by highlighting a number of thought provoking social dimensions of traumatic loss. Each chapter emphasizes different aspects of traumatic loss and argues for ways in which clinicians can help deal with its many and varied impacts.

Bush Runner Mark Bourrie, 2019-04-02. WINNER OF THE 2020 RBC TAYLOR PRIZE. Readers might well wonder if Jonathan Swift at his edgiest has been at work. RBC Taylor Prize Jury Citation: A remarkable biography of an even more remarkable 17th century individual. Beautifully written and endlessly thought provoking. Maclean's Murderer Salesman Pirate Adventurer Cannibal Co founder of the Hudson's Bay Company. Known to some as the first European to explore the upper Mississippi and widely as the namesake of ships and hotel chains. Pierre Esprit Radisson is perhaps best described writes Mark Bourrie as an eager hustler with no known scruples. Kidnapped by Mohawk warriors at the age of fifteen Radisson assimilated and was adopted by a powerful family only to escape to New York City after less than a year. After being recaptured he defected from a raiding party to the Dutch and crossed the Atlantic to Holland thus beginning a lifetime of seized opportunities and frustrated ambitions A guest among First Nations communities French fur traders and royal courts witness to London s Great Plague and Great Fire and unwitting agent of the Jesuits corporate espionage Radisson double crossed the English French Dutch and his adoptive Mohawk family alike found himself marooned by pirates in Spain and lived through shipwreck on the reefs of Venezuela His most lasting venture as an Arctic fur trader led to the founding of the Hudson s Bay Company which operates today 350 years later as North America s oldest corporation Sourced from Radisson s journals which are the best first hand accounts of 17th century Canada Bush Runner tells the extraordinary true story of this protean 17th century figure a man more trading partner than colonizer a peddler of goods and not worldview and with it offers a fresh perspective on the world in which he lived Terrain

Evaluation Colin W. Mitchell,2014-09-25 Written from the point of view of the earth scientist this book acts as an introduction to terrain evaluation The emphasis throughout is on the physical rather than the economic social or legal aspects of the subject and topics covered include remote sensing and data processing technologies Partner to Partition Yossi Katz,2014-01-14 In this work Yossi Katz shows that the Jewish Agency Executive s partition plan though never implemented was not an isolated episode but had short and long term implications from the Jewish perspective that as well as having an impact on the immediate settlement policies it also had significant effect on the partition of Palestine in the late 1940s and on shaping the state in formation Jerusalem Unbound Michael Dumper,2014-05-27 Jerusalem s formal political borders reveal neither the dynamics of power in the city nor the underlying factors that make an agreement between Israel and the Palestinians so difficult The lines delineating Israeli authority are frequently different from those delineating segregated housing or areas of uneven service provision or parallel national electoral districts of competing educational jurisdictions In particular the city s large number of holy sites and restricted religious compounds create enclaves that continually threaten to undermine the Israeli state s authority and control over the city This lack of congruity between political control and the actual spatial organization and everyday use of the city leaves many areas of occupied East Jerusalem in a kind of twilight zone where citizenship property rights and the enforcement of the rule of law are ambiguously applied Michael Dumper plots a history of Jerusalem that examines this intersecting and multileveled matrix and in so doing is able to portray the constraints on Israeli control over the city and the resilience of Palestinian enclaves after forty five years of Israeli occupation Adding to this complex mix is the role of numerous external influences religious political financial and cultural so that the city is also a crucible for broader contestation While the Palestinians may not return to their previous preeminence in the city neither will Israel be able to assert a total and irreversible dominance His conclusion is that the city will not only have to be shared but that the sharing will be based upon these many borders and the interplay between history geography and religion Bitter Roots Abena Dove Osseo-Asare,2014-01-13 For over a century plant specialists worldwide have sought to transform healing plants in African countries into pharmaceuticals And for equally as long conflicts over these medicinal plants have endured from stolen recipes and toxic tonics to unfulfilled promises of laboratory equipment and usurped personal patents In Bitter Roots Abena Dove Osseo Asare draws on publicly available records and extensive interviews with scientists and healers in Ghana Madagascar and South Africa to interpret how African scientists and healers rural communities and drug companies including Pfizer Bristol Myers Squibb and Unilever have sought since the 1880s to develop drugs from Africa s medicinal plants Osseo Asare recalls the efforts to transform six plants into pharmaceuticals rosy periwinkle Asiatic pennywort grains of paradise Strophanthus Cryptolepis and Hoodia Through the stories of each plant she shows that herbal medicine and pharmaceutical chemistry have simultaneous and overlapping histories that cross geographic boundaries At the same time Osseo Asare sheds new light on how various interests have tried to manage the rights to these healing plants and probes the challenges associated with assigning ownership to plants and their biochemical components A fascinating examination of the history of medicine in colonial and postcolonial Africa Bitter Roots will be indispensable for scholars of Africa historians interested in medicine biochemistry and society and policy makers concerned with drug access and patent rights

Affective Connections Dorota Golanska,2017-12-20 Inspired by the philosophical framework of Deleuze and Guattari in relation to affect Affective Connections disavows the dominant oppositional discourse around representation to offer an affirmative approach to perception cognition and experience It advances a new materialist concept of synaesthetic perception where synaesthesia is understood as a union of senses This idea offers a new figuration for thinking about our cognition exploring the role of embodied experience and the agency of matter in the production of knowledge Looking at a number of memorials memory sites and artworks relating to the Holocaust the book uses this idea of synaesthetic perception to explore trauma memory and the production of art in relation to painful memories In doing so it demonstrates that modes of interacting with the past and encountering the lived experience of trauma can trigger a deeper understanding of these events and produce more complex forms of affective connections It proposes a shift away from empathy towards sympathy understood in new materialist terms not just as a sentimental response to trauma but as an affective notion that allows for a more comprehensive grasp of experiences of discrimination exclusion suffering or pain 14 YEAR-WISE CTET Paper 2 (Social Science/ Studies) Solved Papers (2011 - 2020) - 3rd English Edition Disha Experts,2020-04-06
