Racial Integration in the Church of Apartheid Marthe Hesselmanns, 2018-11-01 In Racial Integration in the Church of Apartheid Marthe Hesselmanns uncovers the post apartheid transformation of South Africa's Dutch Reformed Church This church once constituted the religious pillar of the Afrikaner apartheid regime 1948-1994 Today it seeks to unite the communities it long segregated into one multiracial institution Few believe this will succeed A close look inside congregations reveals unexpected stories of reconciliation though Where South Africans realize they need each other to survive faith offers common ground albeit a feeble one They show the potential but also the limits of faith communities untangling entrenched national and racial affiliations Linking South Africa's post apartheid transition to religious nationalist movements worldwide Hesselmanns offers a unique perspective on religion as source of division and healing

The Knowledge Gap Natalie Wexler, 2019-08-06 Essential reading for teachers education administrators and policymakers alike STARRED Library Journal The untold story of the root cause of America's education crisis It was only after years within the education reform movement that Natalie Wexler stumbled across a hidden explanation for our country's frustrating lack of progress when it comes to providing every child with a quality education The problem wasn't one of the usual scapegoats lazy teachers shoddy facilities lack of accountability It was something no one was talking about the elementary school curriculum's intense focus on decontextualized reading comprehension skills at the expense of actual knowledge In the tradition of Dale Russakoff's The Prize and Dana Goldstein's The Teacher Wars Wexler brings together history research and compelling characters to pull back the curtain on this fundamental flaw in our education system one that fellow reformers journalists and policymakers have long overlooked and of which the general public including many parents remains unaware But The Knowledge Gap isn't just a story of what schools have gotten so wrong it also follows innovative educators who are in the process of shedding their deeply ingrained habits and describes the rewards that have come along students who are not only excited to learn but are also acquiring the knowledge and vocabulary that will enable them to succeed If we truly want to fix our education system and unlock the potential of our neediest children we have no choice but to pay attention
