Chapter XV. Jack Thayer's Story
Wreck (of the Titanic)

One of the calmest of the passengers was: young Jack Thayer, the seventeen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Thayer. When his mother was put into the life-boat he kissed her and told her to be brave, saying that he and his father would be all right. He and Mr. Thayer stood on the deck as the small boat in which Mrs. Thayer was a passenger made off from the side of the Titanic over the month sea.

The boy's own account of his experience is one of the most remarkable of all the wonderful tales of tremendous catastrophes:

The boy's last words were "I love you" and "I am sorry".
The most remarkable thing about the boy's death was the immense amount of love and forgiveness that he showed to his father, mother and myself while he was dying.

there. There was no great shock. I sat on my feet at the time and I do not remember to have anyone down. I put on an overcoat and rushed out to see what was going on. I saw nothing there. I then went forward to the door and saw the signs of life. The only life I saw was on the A & O. I saw a very far ahead, having just come out of a long to see. I saw a very far ahead, having just come out of a long deck. I could see a very far ahead, having just come out of a long down room. I saw a very far ahead, having just come out of a long down to our room and my father and mother. I saw a very far ahead, having just come out of a long side of a deck. I saw a very far ahead, having just come out of a long

"I then went down to our room and my father and mother came there. Father thought he saw small pieces of ice floating around, but not see any myself. There was no big berg. We stayed in the side, and the ship had then a fair list to port. We stayed in the side for about five minutes. The list seemed very slow. I then went down to our rooms on C deck, all of us did so. We all put on life-preservers, and walked around the side far about five minutes. The list seemed to collect

"We then went down to our rooms on C deck, all of us putting on our clothes. We all put on life-preservers, and put our overcoats. Then we hurried up on deck, and walked out at different places until the women were all ordered to collect at the port side.
