Sedgwick,2009 Against the Modern World is the first history of Traditionalism an important yet surprisingly little known twentieth century anti modern movement Comprising a number of often secret but sometimes very influential religious groups in the West and in the Islamic world it affected mainstream and radical politics in Europe and the development of the field of religious studies in the United States touching the lives of many individuals French writer Rene Guenon rejected modernity as a dark age and sought to reconstruct the Perennial Philosophy the central truths behind all the major world religions Guenon stressed the urgent need for the West's remaining spiritual and intellectual elite to find personal and collective salvation in the surviving vestiges of ancient religious traditions. A number of disenchanted intellectuals responded to his call. In Europe, America, and the Islamic world, Traditionalists founded institutes, Sufi brotherhoods, Masonic lodges, and secret societies. Some attempted unsuccessfully to guide Fascism and Nazism along Traditionalist lines; others later participated in political terror in Italy. Traditionalist ideas were the ideological cement for the alliance of anti-democratic forces in post-Soviet Russia, and in the Islamic world, entered the debate about the relationship between Islam and modernity. Although its appeal in the West was ultimately limited, Traditionalism has wielded enormous influence in religious studies through the work of such Traditionalists as Ananda Coomaraswamy, Huston Smith, Mircea Eliade, and Seyyed Hossein Nasr. Reading the Two Books of God

Thomas W. Mann, 2022-09-29. Thomas W. Mann is a biblical scholar and retired parish minister and the author of numerous books and articles. He is particularly interested in how experiences in nature prompt theological reflection based in the Bible, shaping our sense of sacred time and place, and how the lectionary readings of the church year also provide a spiritual calendar for the seasons of our lives. The result is a conversation inspired by poets and writers like Mary Oliver, Wendell Berry, and John Muir, but also by philosophers and theologians ranging from Abraham Joshua Heschel to David Kelsey. Along the way, we enter beach time and take backpacking trips in the Sierras, but also join the triumphal entry parade on Palm Sunday and listen to the stable animals on Christmas Eve. We perceive the beauty of creation through the eyes of science as well as religion, sensually as well as intellectually. We celebrate our communion with all creatures, from fungus to forests, inspired with awe and reverence and with a responsibility to care for the earth so threatened by climate change. How Do You

Pray? Celeste Yacoboni, 2014-06-23. As we evolve, so do our prayers; as our prayers evolve, so do we. This is the evolution of illumination, the collective voice of the soul of the world. How Do You Pray was born from a vision in which Celeste Yacoboni was told to ask the world, "How Do You Pray?" She reached out to leading spiritual, shamanic, scientific, teachers, guides, and activists and asked for their response. Culled from those responses is an original and deeply personal collection of essays talking intimately and candidly about how they pray. These personalities encourage the reader to contemplate the intention of prayer in their own life. This collection speaks to the reader's heart and asks, "What is your soul's expression? How do you dance in ecstasy? Bare your soul to the divine. Bow in gratitude. Merge with nature. Cry out for guidance. How do you pray?" This groundbreaking and moving book gathers responses from leaders of diverse spiritual and religious traditions, ranging from Buddhism to Islam to Christianity, as well as those who do not claim one or any particular walk of faith. Contributors include Brother David Steindl-Rast, Matthew Fox, James O. Dea, Llewellyn Vaughan-Lee, Tessa Bielecki, Lama Surya Das, Hank Wesselman, Father Bede Griffiths, Byron Katie, Joan Halifax, Normandi Ellis, Andrew Harvey, Dan Millman, Kristena Prater, Nicki Scully, Mirabai Starr, and more. This book is a beautiful gift package with matte laminate cover and red ribbon. Resources
