Low, Anne Pakir, 2021-08-29 This book provides a first systematic and comprehensive account of English in East and South Asia EESA based on current research by scholars in the field It has several unique features Firstly it provides a rigorous theoretical overview that is necessary for the understanding of EESA in relation to the burgeoning works on World Englishes as a discipline Secondly in the section on linguistic features a systematic template was made available to the contributors so that linguistic coverage of the variety varieties is similar Thirdly the vibrancy of the sociolinguistic and pragmatic realities that govern actual English in use in a wide variety of domains such as social media the Internet and popular culture music are discussed Finally this volume includes an extensive bibliography of works on EESA thus providing a useful and valuable resource for language researchers linguists classroom educators policymakers and anyone interested in the topic of EESA or World Englishes This volume hopes to advance understanding of the spread and development of the different sub varieties reflecting both the political developments and cultural norms in the region Native and Non-Native Teachers in English Language Classrooms Juan de Dios Martinez Agudo, 2017-05-08 Despite being highly debated in applied linguistics and L2 teaching literature the controversial issue of non nativeness still remains unresolved Contemporary critical research has questioned the theoretical foundations of the nativeness paradigm which still exerts a strong influence in the language teaching profession Written by well known researchers and teacher educators from all over the world both NSs and NNSs the selected contributions of this volume cover a great variety of aspects related to the professional role and status of both NS and NNS teachers in terms of both perceived differences and professional concerns and challenges The strongest aspects of this volume are the global perspectives and the implications for future research and teacher education It is precisely this international perspective which makes this volume illustrative of different realities with a similar objective in mind the improvement of second language teaching and teacher education In today s world being a NS or NNS should not really matter but rather teachers professional competences This publication thus provides a forum of reflection and discussion for all L2 educators who need to be aware of how much they might offer to their future students The Oxford Handbook of English Grammar Bas Aarts, Jill Bowie, Gergana Popova, 2020 This handbook provides an authoritative critical survey of current research and knowledge in the grammar of the English language The volume s expert contributors explore a range of core topics in English grammar covering a range of theoretical approaches and including the relationship between core grammar and other areas of language Linguistic Approaches in English for Academic Purposes Milada Walková, 2023-12-14 This edited volume brings together researchers and practitioners who work in various linguistic frameworks and EAP contexts with contributions from Australia Canada New Zealand Singapore Sweden UAE the UK Ukraine and the USA It extends existing linguistic research further by applying theories and approaches and by investigating genres that have received little attention in EAP so far such as Complex Dynamic Systems Theory Grice s Cooperative Principle and the article comments and university seminar genres amongst others The volume provides linguistic description of both student and expert genres and provides clear pedagogical implications in the form of teaching recommendations suggested teaching activities evaluation of teaching materials or a practical methodological approach Overall by focusing on new areas of linguistic research in EAP the volume enhances teaching practice and inspires further research and scholarship

The Routledge Handbook of English Language Education in the Philippines Julius C. Martinez, Isabel Pefianco Martin, 2025-09-30 This handbook serves as a comprehensive resource on English language education in the Philippines addressing a wide range of issues including ideologies multilingualism identities policies methodologies assessment teacher education and curriculum Chapters cover a range of educational contexts from Luzon to Mindanao islands from basic to higher education and from formal to non formal schooling This book upholds the think and do otherwise perspective by problematizing contemporary paradigms and practices that operate from naturalized ideas inherited from the American colonizers This includes repairing pedagogies that redress injustices experienced by historically marginalized groups and hoping for possibilities and approaches to teaching and learning English that are just equitable and inclusive The six sections in the Handbook bring up conditions for thinking and doing otherwise pointing to ways in which genuine changes can start to happen Scholars from diverse backgrounds come together in this handbook to take collective ownership of English language education in the Philippines This ownership does not mean ignoring and disposing of the country's colonial past but reclaiming English language education as an ongoing project instead This handbook likewise demonstrates that such a project makes it possible for wider audiences to see that Global South scholars from and in the Philippines also have much to teach the rest of the world about thinking and doing otherwise and by extension problematizing repairing and hoping Given its scope and breadth the handbook is an invaluable reference for students pre service and in service teachers teacher educators researchers and policymakers interested in English language language education TESOL sociolinguistics and applied linguistics
