

International Relations Research Paper

International Relations (IR) is the study of relationships between countries. The author in this reading goes into detail on the origins of IR and how they fit into our society today. Key topics that are talked about are state sovereignty, state system, the security dilemma, hegemony, balance of power. IR can affect many things from wars to the economy, as was seen with WWII and The Great Depression. The main reason we study IR is the fact that the entire population of the world is living independent states. Together these states form a global system.

States are independent of each other, but that does not mean that they do not rely on each other. Most states find a way to co-exist simply because of international markets, which effects the wealth and welfare of their citizens. When states are isolated and cut off by the state system, the people usually suffer as a result, ie Burma, North Korea, Iraq. IR conventionally dates back to the early modern era (sixteenth and seventeenth centuries) in Europe, sovereign states were initially established. Most states are friendly and peace loving, but a few states may be hostile.

This usually leads to the age old problem of national security. Most states have a military, this allows the states to co-exist without intimidation from another. Unarmed states are very rare and many states enter into alliances with other states to increase their national security. Three other basic values states are usually expected to uphold are freedom, order and justice. Freedom is expected by the people because of the sacrifices they have to make to their country such as paying taxes and military service. In return the people expect a free country. States have a common interest in establishing and maintaining nternational order so that they can co-exist and interact on a basis of stability. States are also expected to uphold international law.

There have been moments in modern history that have shown us how the basic values of IR can effect our lives. One such case is the oil shock during the 1970s when it became clear that North American motorist rely heavily on overseas oil suppliers and that conflict in these countries can effect the price at the pumps in ours. The IR state system is not without its flaws, countless men, woman, and children in third world countries suffer from no education to hungry. For this reason the state systems credibility to provide the very basics for its people is put into question. Some even say the international system tolerates human suffering and that the system should be changed so everyone can flourish.

This has lead to discussions on alternative IR theories. Like anything the state system has its advantages and disadvantages. The state system is not something that has to exist, in fact like many social organizations it can come or go during a certain time in history. Even thou the state system didn't come into ffect until the sixteenth and seventeenth centuri

The Southeast Asia Treaty Organisation Ang Cheng Guan, 2021-09-09 A History of the Manila Pact and the Southeast Asia Treaty Organisation SEATO from its establishment in 1954 until its dissolution in 1977 The Southeast Asia Treaty Organization SEATO has received meagre scholarly attention in comparison to other key events and global developments during the duration of the Cold War due to its perceived failure early in its existence However there has been a renewed interest in the academic study of the organization Some scholars have argued that SEATO was not an outright failure New literatures have also shed in detail the workings of SEATO such as operational level contingency plans and counter insurgency plans This book aims to reconstruct a comprehensive life cycle of SEATO using declassified archival documents which were unavailable to scholars studying the organization from the 1950s through the 1980s and provide a nuanced assessment of it In addition in recent years there is also an emerging interest in the possibility of a multilateral military alliance in Asia for instance the Quadrilateral Security Dialogue morphing into an Asian NATO As such it is therefore crucial to study how previous multilateral alliances in the context of Asia were formed how they functioned and subsequently dissolved A groundbreaking reference on a key element of the United States Cold War strategy in Asia which will be a valuable resource to scholars of twentieth century diplomatic history

The Relationship between Human Security Discourse and International Law Shireen Daft,2017-12-01 The concept of human security has emerged in international relations and policy as an idea which not only seeks to relocate the focus of international society on the individual but also challenges the current priorities of the international community In particular it places emphasis on promoting and facilitating a nexus between security development and human rights It is potentially a paradigm in the making gaining considerable momentum within the UN international relations scholarship and regional bodies And yet by and large it continues to be unexplored by the international legal community despite the success of a number of international treaties being attributed to the discourse This book seeks to address this gap and establish the nature of the relationship between human security discourse and international law determining whether human security can meaningfully contribute to the international legal framework To determine this the book analyses the core principles of human security discourse and examines the degree to which they find parallels in the existing normative structure of international law The book examines the how the broad narrow debate that dominates human security discourse has played out in international law making It goes on to consider the processes for the creation of so called human security treaties in order to determine a blueprint for future development of international human security treaty law In concluding Shireen Daft sets out a structured principled approach through which international legal scholarship can engage with human security highlighting the ways in which engagement between the two fields can be sustained External Research List ,1968
