of the time. Jos was enthusiastic and supportive of his students, providing lots of positive feedback. He established clear guidelines, and students knew what was expected (e.g., "We're going to read the first section up until the subheading, here. Does everyone know where we are going to read? When you finish, start writing your clunks. Don't write the clunks you already know or can figure out easily. Only write the ones that really keep you from understanding."). He circulated while students worked in their small groups. Students seemed quite engaged in what they were doing. Early in the year, while students were still learning CSR, Jos stopped students periodically and asked them to share their gists with the whole class (e.g., "Some of you got the gist and some didn't. Now let's all think of what was most important . . . someone from each group can share a gist."). He then provided a quick summary. He explained that he did this because they were still learning and he was modeling. He added "We're working towards independence."
