American Multicultural Studies Sherrow O. Pinder, 2013 American Multicultural Studies Diversity of Race Ethnicity Gender and Sexuality provides an interdisciplinary view of multicultural studies in the United States addressing a wide range of topics that continue to define and shape this area of study Through this collection of essays Sherrow Pinder responds to the need to open up a rich avenue for addressing current and continuing issues of race gender ethnicity sexuality cultural diversity and education in their varied forms Substantial thematic overlaps are found between sections and essays all of which are oriented toward a single broad objective to develop new and different ways of addressing how multicultural issues in their discursive sociocultural contexts are inextricably linked to the operations of power Power as a site of resistance to which it invariably gives rise is tackled from a perspective that attends to the complexities of America's history and politics

The Interracial Experience Ursula M. Brown, 2000-11-30 The number of black white mixed marriages increased by 504% in the last 25 years By offering relevant demographic research and sociocultural data as well as a series of intensely personal and revealing vignettes Dr Brown investigates how mixed race people cope in a world that has shoehorned them into a racial category that denies half of their physiological and psychological existence She also addresses their struggle for acceptance in the black and white world and the racist abuses many of them have suffered Brown interweaves research findings with interviews of children of black white interracial unions to highlight certain psychosocial phenomenon or experiences She looks at the history of interracial marriages in the United States and discusses the scientific and social theories that underlie the racial bigotry suffered by mixed people Questions of racial identity conflict and self esteem are treated as are issues of mental health An important look at contemporary mixed race issues that will be of particular interest to scholars researchers students and professionals dealing with race family and mental health concerns The Color of Kink Ariane Cruz, 2016-10-04 Winner of the MLA's 2016 Alan Bray Prize for Best Book in GLBTQ Studies How BDSM can be used as a metaphor for black female sexuality The Color of Kink explores black women's representations and performances within American pornography and BDSM bondage and discipline domination and submission and sadism and masochism from the 1930s to the present revealing the ways in which they illustrate a complex and contradictory negotiation of pain pleasure and power for black women Based on personal interviews conducted with pornography performers producers and professional dominatrices visual and textual analysis and extensive archival research Ariane Cruz reveals BDSM and pornography as critical sites from which to rethink the formative links between Black female sexuality and violence She explores how violence becomes not just a vehicle of pleasure but also a mode of accessing and contesting power Drawing on feminist and queer theory critical race theory and media studies Cruz argues that BDSM is a productive space from which to consider the complexity and diverseness of black women's sexual practice and the mutability of black female sexuality Illuminating the cross pollination of black sexuality and BDSM The Color of Kink makes a unique contribution to the growing scholarship on racialized sexuality "Who Set You Flowin'?" Farah Jasmine Griffin,1996-09-26 Twentieth century America has witnessed the most widespread and sustained movement of African Americans from the South to urban centers in the North Who Set You Flowin examines the impact of this dislocation and urbanization identifying the resulting Migration Narratives as a major genre in African American cultural production Griffin takes an interdisciplinary approach with readings of several literary texts migrant correspondence painting photography rap music blues and rhythm and blues From these various sources Griffin isolates the tropes of Ancestor Stranger and Safe Space which though common to all Migration Narratives vary in their portrayal She argues that the emergence of a dominant portrayal of these tropes is the product of the historical and political moment often challenged by alternative portrayals in other texts or artistic forms as well as intra textually Richard Wright s bleak yet cosmopolitan portraits were countered by Dorothy West s longing for Black Southern communities Ralph Ellison while continuing Wright s vision reexamined the significance of Black Southern culture Griffin concludes with Toni Morrison embracing the South as a site of African American history and culture a place to be redeemed

Sex in Tourism Neil Carr,Liza Berdychevsky,2021-11-04 This book encompasses the diversity and complexity of sex in tourism incorporating the light dark and shades of grey in between It brings together work and ideas from a diverse array of researchers from around the world and examines the affects and effects of diverse sexual encounters in tourism romance tourism sex tourism and sexual exploitation in tourism including the sexual exploitation of children in travel and tourism and sexual harassment Sex in tourism has arguably been an understudied area of research relative to the central roles that sex plays within tourism experiences This volume explores the complexity and nuanced nature of sex in tourism in more detail It will be of interest to students and researchers of tourism impacts tourist behaviour hospitality management destination management and development Lethal Performances Otilie P. Klein,2017 This book provides an in depth analysis of representations of female murderers in modern American drama Paying close attention to the plays plot form and style the study seeks to come to terms with the dramatic and cultural function of this phenomenon Given the rarity of female murder in real life the popularity and prevalence of this theme in culture is striking and unsettling at the same time After all a woman who kills not only violates against basic social rules but also upsets gender norms This potential to break with an ideology that rests on hierarchically structured gender binaries equips the figure of the female murderer with the power to symbolically kill established views about gender and sexuality It is this ideologically disruptive potential that makes the female murderer a fascinating object of study as her cultural figuration may provide information about the meaning assigned to women at a certain historical moment Segregation in the New South Carl V. Harris,2022-11-09 Carl V Harris s Segregation in the New South completed and edited by W Elliot Brownlee explores the rise of racial exclusion in late nineteenth century Birmingham Alabama In the 1870s African Americans in this crucial southern industrial city were eager to exploit the disarray of slavery s old racial lines assert their new autonomy and advance toward full equality However most southern whites worked to restore the restrictive racial lines of the antebellum South or invent new ones that would guarantee the subordination of Black residents From Birmingham s founding in 1871 color lines divided the city and as its people strove to erase the lines or fortify them they shaped their futures in fateful ways Social segregation is at the center of Harris s history He shows that from the beginning of Reconstruction southern whites engaged in a comprehensive program of assigning social dishonor to African Americans the same kind of dishonor that whites of the Old South had imposed on Black people while enslaving them In the process southern whites engaged in constructing the meaning of race in the New South

The Legal Response to Violence Against Women Karen J. Maschke, 1997 This collection of essays and reviews represents the most significant and comprehensive writing on Shakespeare s A Comedy of Errors Miola s edited work also features a comprehensive critical history coupled with a full bibliography and photographs of major productions of the play from around the world In the collection there are five previously unpublished essays The topics covered in these new essays are women in the play the play s debt to contemporary theater its critical and performance histories in Germany and Japan the metrical variety of the play and the distinctly modern perspective on the play as containing dark and disturbing elements To compliment these new essays the collection features significant scholarship and commentary on The Comedy of Errors that is published in obscure and difficult accessible journals newspapers and other sources This collection brings together these essays for the first time

Gender and Race in Antebellum Popular Culture Sarah N. Roth, 2014-07-21 In the decades leading to the Civil War popular conceptions of African American men shifted dramatically The savage slave featured in 1830s novels and stories gave way by the 1850s to the less threatening humble black martyr This radical reshaping of black masculinity in American culture occurred at the same time that the reading and writing of popular narratives were emerging as largely feminine enterprises In a society where women wielded little official power white female authors exalted white femininity using narrative forms such as autobiographies novels short stories visual images and plays by stressing differences that made white women appear superior to male slaves This book argues that white women as creators and consumers of popular culture media played a pivotal role in the demasculinization of black men during the antebellum period and consequently had a vital impact on the political landscape of antebellum and Civil War era America through their powerful influence on popular culture

Ebony, 1978-03 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine

White Slave Crusades Brian Donovan, 2010-10-01 During the early twentieth century individuals and organizations from across the political spectrum launched a sustained effort to eradicate forced prostitution commonly known as white slavery White Slave Crusades is the first comparative study to focus on how these anti vice campaigns also resulted in the creation of a racial hierarchy in the United States Focusing on the intersection of race gender and sex in the antiprostitution campaigns Brian Donovan analyzes the reactions of native born whites to new immigrant groups in Chicago to African Americans in New York

City and to Chinese immigrants in San Francisco Donovan shows how reformers employed white slavery narratives of sexual danger to clarify the boundaries of racial categories allowing native born whites to speak of a collective us as opposed to a them These stories about forced prostitution provided an emotionally powerful justification for segregation as well as other forms of racial and sexual boundary maintenance in urban America Color, Culture, Civilization Stanford M.

Lyman,1995 Interracial Intimacies Randall Kennedy,2012-09-12 With the same piercing intelligence as the bestselling Say it Loud Interracial Intimacies hits a nerve at the center of American society race relations and our most intimate ties to each other The best book written on the subject an exhaustive source of deep rich scholarship and surefooted brilliant analysis Seattle Times Analyzing the tremendous changes in the history of America s racial dynamics Randall Kennedy challenges us to examine how prejudices and biases still fuel fears and inform our sexual marital and family choices He takes us from the injustices of the slave era up to present day battles over race matching adoption policies which seek to pair children with adults of the same race He tackles such subjects as the presence of sex in racial politics the historic role of legal institutions in policing racial boundaries and the real and imagined pleasures that have attended interracial intimacy A bracing much needed look at the way we have lived in the past Interracial Intimacies is also a hopeful book offering a potent vision of our future as a multiracial democracy Family Communication and Cultural Transformation Rhunette C.

Diggs,Thomas J. Socha,2023-02-28 Building on their past work in race and family communication Rhunette C Diggs and Thomas J Socha gather in this volume contemporary theory and research concerning ways that families use communication to transform inherited cultural legacies for the better Communication 3 0 The book expands the field of communication s understanding of the life long impact that family communication has on the managing diverse and clashing cultural relationships identities meanings and communication practices It spotlights the economically disenfranchised alongside the economically secure the systematically oppressed next to beneficiaries of Whiteness and those actually or metaphorically killed and or threatened by violence and hateful systems outside of home Together the contributions address omissions of diverse family contexts in family communication research and reconsider qualitative and quantitative approaches that bring respect and equality to the participant researcher relationship This book is suitable as a supplementary text for courses in family communication family studies race and ethnicity in communication and intergroup communication Fade to Black and White Erica Chito Childs,2009-06-16 There is no teasing apart what interracial couples think of themselves from what society shows them about themselves Following on her earlier ground breaking study of the social worlds of interracial couples Erica Chito Childs considers the larger context of social messages conveyed by the media that inform how we think about love across the color line Examining a range of media from movies to music to the web Fade to Black and White offers an informative and provocative account of how the perception of interracial sexuality as deviant has been transformed in the course of the 20th century and how race relations are understood today Selected Writings, Volume 1 Okwui

Enwezor,2025-08-05 Selected Writings is a landmark two volume set of writings by the transformational art curator Okwui Enwezor that demonstrates his tireless efforts to decolonize the global contemporary art world Pimps, Wimps, Studs, Thugs and Gentlemen Elwood Watson,2010-03-22 With essays ranging in topic from the films of Neil LaBute to the sexual politics of Major League Baseball this diverse collection of essays examines the multi faceted media images of contemporary masculinity from a variety of perspectives and academic disciplines The book s first half focuses on the issue of racialized masculinity and its various manifestations with essays covering among other topics the re imagining of Asian American masculinity in Justin Lin s Better Luck Tomorrow and the ever present image of black male buffoonery in the neo minstrel performances of VH1 s Flavor of Love The book s second half explores the issue of contemporary mediated performance and the cultural politics of masculinity with essays focusing on popular media representations of men in a variety of gendered roles from homemakers and househusbands to valorous war heroes and athletic demigods Strike a Pose Cat
