The Routledge Companion to Migration, Communication, and Politics Stephen Croucher,Joao Caetano,Elsa Campbell,2018-12-07 The Routledge Companion to Migration Communication and Politics brings together academics from numerous disciplines to show the legal political communicative theoretical methodological and media implications of migration The collection makes the compelling case that migration does not occur in a vacuum rather it is driven by and reacts to various factors including the political economic and cultural worlds in which individuals live The 25 chapters reveal the complex nature of migration from various angles not only looking at how policy affects migrants but also how individuals and marginalized groups are impacted by such acts In Part I contributors examine migration law debating the role of the state in managing migration flows and investigating existing migration policy Part II offers theories and methods that integrate communication studies political science and law into the study of migration including cultural fusion theory and Gebserian theory Part III looks at how contemporary perceptions of migration and migrants intersect with media representations across media outlets worldwide Finally Part IV offers case studies that present the intricacies of migration within different cultural national and political groups Migration is the key political economic and cultural issue of our time and this companion takes the next step in the debate namely the effects of the how in addition to the how and why Researchers and students of communication politics media and law will find this an invaluable intervention

Teaching Chinese by Culture and TV Drama Lingfen Zhang,2022-04-28 This book integrates culture and authenticity into Chinese classroom practice through exploring the potential of contemporary TV drama as teaching and learning materials for intercultural Chinese language teaching and learning In addressing the four main challenges in culture teaching in Teaching Chinese as a Foreign Language TCFL this book focuses on precisely this area of pedagogical practice in Chinese as foreign language education and draws on a wide interdisciplinary base including foreign language education cultural studies and intercultural communication to explore the potential of authentic TV drama as language and culture materials for revitalising TCFL and foreign language teaching more generally It examines in detail the culturally shaped beliefs values and practices that give meaning to the action and language of the selected clips in a modern award winning Chinese TV drama This book shows a potential experiential pathway into pedagogical practices to bring contemporary culture into classrooms to engage learners with contemporary and authentic texts and to encourage inquiry focused teaching practices which in being intercultural allow for learners own interpretations of cultural messages in interaction and to recognise learners as learning to understand their own values and beliefs as they learn to explore those of other cultures Intercultural Communication Elizabeth Suen, Barbara A. Suen, 2019-11-06 This text is a practical guide that provides readers with effective approaches to communication theories and strategies and offers a wealth of tools for enhancing communication both in Canada and abroad Informed by the authors' intersection of cultural identities and lived experiences Intercultural Communication demonstrates how communicative practices are established and influenced within societal realms Readers' understanding of culture is widened beyond discussions of race and ethnicity by critically examining factors like age, familial roles, sex, gender, socioeconomic status, and disability Guided through real and complex scenarios, this text explores how different social and cultural practices present implications for communication, demonstrating how to manage conversations in appropriate and meaningful ways Key topics include verbal and non-verbal communication, cultural values, self-awareness, and digital communications Case studies, practical activities, and thought-provoking questions accompany each chapter, helping students to explore their own attitudes and actions through self-reflection This invaluable and comprehensive guide is ideal for students enrolled in intercultural communication and cross-cultural communication courses, including studies in business, education, social work, health care, and law enforcement Vulnerability in a Mobile World Helen Forbes-Mewett, 2019-11-25

Populations across the world are becoming increasingly mobile for many different reasons Some are searching for a better and safer life, others migrate for economic or environmental purposes, education, or identity formation While mobility may bring better life chances, this book shows that for some it means experiencing vulnerability What Has Religion Studies in Africa Been Up To? Jaco Beyers, 2023-04-05 The purpose of the book is to provide a collection of perspectives from various parts of Africa on what scholars in religion studies are currently engaged with, whether it refers to topics or methodology Each chapter is written from the perspective of a scholar working within a particular context on a particular theme or topic related to religion studies Several methodologies have been implemented in each contribution to the book Each contribution applies a different methodology for the purpose of investigating a specific topic or research theme In general, the majority of the contributions follow a method of critical literature review as applied to a specific field The book is not intended to provide an exhaustive list of all possible topics and themes addressed in current research in Africa From a decolonized perspective, the book gives voice to African scholars who exhibit their scholarly work as related to religion studies Topics addressed include curriculum design and pedagogical approaches in teaching religion studies, the relation between religion and culture in an African context, religion and health, religion and gender, interreligious relations in Africa, religion and ecology, and religion and mission Teaching Interculturality 'Otherwise' Fred Dervin, Mei Yuan, Sude, 2022-12-14

This edited volume focuses on the thorny and somewhat controversial issue of teaching and learning interculturality in a way that considers the notion from critical and reflexive perspectives when introduced to students Comprised of three parts, the book discusses the nuts and bolts of teaching interculturality, considers changes in the teaching of interculturality, and provides pedagogical insights into interculturalising the notion It studies both teaching explicitly about interculturality and how to incorporate interculturality into teaching practices or into an institution By sharing varied cases and theoretical reflections on the topic the editors and contributors from different parts of the world aim to stimulate more initiatives to enrich the field instead of delimiting it especially in complement to and beyond the West or Global North and also to build up further reflexivity in the way readers engage with interculturality in education This will be a must read for teachers and researchers of intercultural communication education at different educational levels as well as anyone interested in scholarship on education for interculturality Chapter 3 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons 4.0 license
